Mrs. McKee is to be honored at a reception today given by Eagle Point teachers at the home of Mrs. Ray Barrows, Brownsboro highway between 2 and 4:30 p.m. Mr. Davies will be honored at a community reception set for May 6; he is a former mayor of Eagle Point. At the dinner Tuesday night the four were presented retirement pins from their school principals and awards from the Classroom Teachers' association.

Mrs. Alyce Archer, Rogue River, is the new president of the Jackson County unit, Oregon Education association. She was installed by Mrs. Maxine Smith, a former president, at a dinner held Tuesday night at Rogue Valley Country club. Speaker

Bethel Holds Initiation; Coming Events Announced

Four young women were initiated into the Bethel 55, International Order of Job's Daughters during a recent meeting of the Bethel. Miss Laurie Beth Buonocore, honored queen of the Bethel, conducted the ceremonies.

The new members are the Misses Elizabeth Brood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Brood, Miss Paula Minear, daughter of Robert C. Minear, Miss Patricia Eastwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Eastwood, and Miss Linda Messal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Messal. Each initiate introduced her parents and guests to the Bethel.

Other guests introduced were Mrs. Paul Selby, charter guardian of Bethel 55, Mrs. Richard Mayfield, worthy matron of the Roxey Ann court of Amaranth; Mrs. Raymond Reter, past junior guardian of Bethel 55; and Miss Karlee Selby, past honored queen Bethel 55.

Two members were elected by the Bethel to represent the members at grand session, June 21-23, to be held at Coos Bay and North Bend, Junior princess, Lynn Langston was chosen as representative for group one and Miss Madelyn Buonocore, recorder, from group two.

Miss Laurie Beth Buonocore announced a "Go-To-Church Sunday," which will be at the St. Mark's Episcopal church, May 6, at 11 a.m. All girls will meet at the church. No robes are to be worn.

Following the church services a Mother-Daughter luncheon and style show will be held at the Masonic temple. Mrs. Raymond Reter reminded the girls that their reservations for the luncheon must be made by May 2. Reservations can be made with Mrs. Harold Gordon at SPring 3-5055 or with Mrs. Raymond Reter, SPring 2-2634. Styles to be modeled will be supplied by Parker Woods Leont's.

On a recent visitation night to Bethel 28 of Goldside, Ore., honored queen Laurie Beth Buonocore and Bethel members were presented the traveling gavel. The gavel is presented to the Bethel which has representatives coming from the longest distance to visit.

Proficiency work was passed by the Misses Judy Moe, Sharon Mast, and Nancy Edwards. Refreshments were served by Pat Hardenberger, Vicki Hall, Lynn Taylor and their mothers.

Fashion Show Set in Gold Hill

Gold Hill - The annual mothers' tea and fashion show will be staged by girls of Hanby Elementary school's seventh and eighth grade homemaking classes on Thursday, May 3, at 1:30 p.m. in the multi-purpose room at Patrick Elementary school.

Mrs. Beth Ness, homemaking teacher, said a Dutch theme will be carried out in an "Old Dutch Garden." It is an invitational affair due to the large number of girls in the seventh and eighth grade classes. Invitations are in the form of a Dutch shoe.

Senior Center Events Listed; Open House Set

Mrs. E. H. Loveness will show colored slides of a trip to Ireland, Scotland, Norway and of the Brussels World Fair at the Senior Activity center Monday, April 30, at 1 p.m.

The pictures of the fair will show exhibits from many countries and are intended to give those who attend an idea of what to expect should they attend the Seattle World's Fair.

Senior activity center members will participate in a number of coming events, and several members of the painting classes took part in the Alley Art exhibit held April 28 in connection with the Pear Festival.

Also members of the painting classes are preparing pictures to enter in the annual open house and art exhibit to be held May 13 at the center.

The Saturday painting class will meet May 5 at 1 p.m. with Mrs. Ruby Twedell as director.

On Wednesday, May 2, the Senior orchestra will play for a meeting of the Ashland Women's Civic club of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs at their clubhouse in Ashland.

The group's regular practice period will be held Thursday, May 3 during the afternoon, at the center. Edward Root has directed the group for the past four years and extends an invitation to others who wish to join the orchestra.

Classes in Spanish meet regularly each Monday and Thursday from 10 a.m. to 12 noon under the direction of Walter Hatch.

Hosts and teachers of the various classes are to meet Wednesday, May 3, at 11 a.m., at the center, to plan a program for open house, which will open the festivities of Senior Citizens week in this area.
