

NEW PRESIDENT - Dr. Bill A. Sampson, chairman of the education division, Southern Oregon college, has succeeded Dr. James Lyles, Willamette university, as president of the Oregon Association for Higher Education. Dr. Dorris M. Lee, Portland State college, has assumed the office of vice-president, formerly held by Dr. Sampson, and Dr. Chester C. Squire, SOC assistant professor of education, has been elected member-at-large. Re-elected secretary-treasurer was Mrs. Regina Ewalt, director of professional services for the Oregon Education association's headquarters in Portland.

Straub Plans Visit To Area Friday

State Sen. Robert W. Straub, a candidate for Congress in the fourth district, will be in Jackson county May 4 to continue his campaign in southern Oregon. Straub's schedule includes coffee hours in Josephine County and an appearance on KMTV-TV at 4 p.m. Friday Straub will address the Democrat Social club at Ping's Garden at 6:30 p.m. Straub said he is anxious to meet as many voters as possible, and that he will plan to be in front of the Medford Library, near the courthouse, at 5 p.m., May 4.
