Shady Cove Grange

The Shady Cove Grange met in the music room of the Shady Cove school on April 21 with Master Johnny Minor presiding.

Mrs. Louis Jusenberry gave the quarterly report of the Home Economics club. The proceeds from the rummage sale in March was turned over for the Grange building fund. Also a detailed report on the dinner given for the truck drivers of the Steve Wilson company for their work in hauling logs for the Grange and other civil organizations.

The Grange property on Long Branch is to be sold - and the money put in the building fund.

A $25 4-H scholarship was given to the Jackson County 4-H Leaders association.

Those reported on the sick list were Mrs. Madeline Wells, Mrs. Agnes Brown, Mrs. Ernie Seggesenman and Wally Cross.

Mrs. Nellie Moisenbaker and C. Langlo were elected to the executive committee.

Ray Deister suggested the Grangers save their scrap iron and when a load was ready he'd take it to Medford. The sale of it would also add to the building fund.

The April HEC meeting was at the Jennie Linden home on Kee lane. The May 8 HEC meeting will be at the Bert Clark ranch on Big Butte.

Lecturer Cecil Kee had as part of the program a treasure hunt pertaining to Easter.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Harper and Mr. and Mrs. Neil Dusenberry were on the serving committee.

The next Grange meeting will be May 5.

Gold Hill Grange

Gold Hill Grange met in a short session Thursday, April 19, preceded by a potluck supper at 6:30 p.m. and a two-hour program of poetry, serious readings, oratory, and a humorous section put on by the school students in the community.

The students are all contest winners in their particular division. Allen Hill was director of the humorous section; Ida von Buskirk, serious; Mildred Black, poetry; Mildred Black and Gilbert Mack, oratory.

The Grange charter was draped for Maud G. y who died in Arizona where she and her husband, John Gray were spending the winter. Gray is reported in the hospital at Wickenburg, Ariz. Bertha Potter was reported ill at her home in Gold Hill.

The Grange voted to hold the potluck supper on the last meeting night of each quarter instead of the last meeting of each month.

A. A. Walker was appointed fire insurance delegate for the meeting to be held on Sunday before the State Grange meeting in Grants Pass. State Grange will be in session Monday, June 18, through June 23. On May 17 Mildred Black's sixth and seventh graders will give a program at Gold Hill Grange entitled, "Modern Times Through Ancient Eyes."

Phoenix Grange

Real property tax and the present burden on agriculture will be discussed at an organizational meeting at Phoenix Grange, May 8, at 8 p.m.

Anyone interested is invited to listen to representatives from the Cattlemen's association; Grange; Fruit Growers association and the Farm Bureau. The purpose is to figure a fair and equitable tax basis for agriculture. Women attending are asked to take cookies.

Roscoe Roberts, county deputy, was escorted to the master's station while visiting at the recent meeting. Later he explained the percentage refund on liability insurance and other insurance data.

Olin Poe was elected as delegate to attend the fire insurance session at the next State Grange convention. Alternate delegates are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Cyr.

Other election projects were for the state officers and the favoring of the 4-H scholarship at the University of Oregon.

Agriculture reports were made by Charles Hockersmith and Mervin Hixon on local interests.

Melvin Lattie, legislative chairman, informed members about a tax meeting he attended where it was learned that a farmer's tax is estimated at 100 per cent more than the professional man. He said several solutions were suggested. Mrs. Olin Poe explained the types of jars and jelly glasses to be used by those who are entering the White Satin sugar contest that is listed in the Grange Bulletin.

Mrs. Sol Cox read the Home Economics quarterly report. The meeting ended with the literary program followed by refreshments served by Mr. and Mrs. Willis House and Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Hixon.
