

Miss Julie Wray will be one of the models for a style show which The Carriage House will give for the annual awards luncheon of Medford Jaycettes May 19 at Rogue Valley Country club. Miss Wray is on the staff of the store.

Mrs. Claud Hoover (at left), new president of Ladies of Elks, presided for her first meeting at a luncheon Tuesday at the Elks temple. Pictured with Mrs. Hoover is the retiring president, Mrs. Harold B. Looper.

MEDFORD MAIL TRIBUNE

MEDFORD, OREGON, SUNDAY, MAY 6, 1962

In the gay spirit of the Second Alley Art show, held last week end in connection with the Pear Blossom Festival, Mrs. John (Marilyn) Briggs, Ashland artist, posed with one of the pieces of sculpture which she entered in the show. Mrs. Briggs is known mainly for her oil paintings. This entry was titled "Here Rover, Rover."

Mrs. Kathryn Thomas has been named Secretary of the Year by Rogue River chapter, National Secretaries association, and was presented a symbolic trophy.

Mrs. W. E. Thompson posed at a century-old piano during a tea which observed her 90th birthday anniversary April 26. Mrs. Thompson was Margaret Chavner and the tea was held in the stately old Chavner family home built in 1891 on the ranch near Gold Hill which the family has owned for more than 100 years. The honored woman, who studied at the New England Conservatory of Music, still occasionally plays the piano.

Busy Month

Among women attending the May meeting of Ladies of Elks was Mrs. Franklin Van Pelt (at left), wife of the district deputy grand exalted ruler for Oregon South district, and Mrs. Leonard Carlson, wife of the exalted ruler of the Medford lodge.

Mrs. John S. Day (at left) and Mrs. Ray Frisbie examine a pearl and diamond necklace which was one of the pieces shown at the Jewelrama given recently as a benefit for the American Cancer society. Several hundred valley residents attended the unusual jewel showing.

Seven members of Beta Sigma Phi received the Order of the Rose degree at a Founders' day banquet Monday night at Kim's restaurant. The degree, given for 15 years of service to the organization, was conferred on (left to right), Mrs. O. A. Eden, Mrs. Edgar Mair, Mrs. Ernest Mickelson, Miss Adabee Seiler, Mrs. Verl Walker, Mrs. Everett Ballard and Mrs. Wilson Slater. Yellow roses, the sorority flower, decorated the table and were presented to the honored women. (Knackstedt photo)