Moeller-Kapuscinski Wedding Service Held

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Moeller left today for their home in Corvallis after visiting for the week end at the home of Mr. Moeller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moeller, Route 3, Box 82, Medford. The young couple was en route home from their wedding trip to Reno, Nev., and Lake Tahoe, Calif. The bride is the former Miss Wanda Marie Kapuscinski, daughter of Mrs. Gabrielle Kapuscinski, Cottage Grove, and Joseph Kapuscinski of Corvallis.

The wedding was performed at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, April 28 in the Medford Sacred Heart Catholic church. The Rev. John A. H. celebrated the rites in the presence of about 75 guests.

Mr. Kapuscinski escorted his daughter to the altar. Miss Carol Kapuscinski of Corvallis, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Henry Moeller, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man.

Ushers were Charles Culy, a brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Fred Rauch, Hood River, a fraternity brother of the bridegroom.

ny, a sister of the bride, and Mrs. Richard White. The bridegroom's cake was served by Mrs. Ronald Nelson, and coffee was poured by Mrs. Ralph Rudzik, Corvallis. Registering the guests was Miss Susan Kapuscinski, and in charge of gifts was Miss Edith Kapuscinski, both of Corvallis, and both sisters of the bride.

The bride is a 1960 Corvallis high school graduate and is a sophomore majoring in education at Oregon State university. She also is employed as a secretary for Bartley and Starns, certified public accountants, and is affiliated with Jameson house, a girls' cooperative.

The bridegroom was graduated from Medford High school in 1952 and from Oregon State university in 1956. He is employed in the horticultural field, and is a member of Chi Phi fraternity.

For her wedding trip the bride chose a brown and white checked linen sheath dress with matching coat.

The couple's home is at 1215 Van Buren street in Corvallis.

Kell-illingworth Rites Held in Gold Hill Home

Gold Hill — Miss Dana Lynn illingworth became the bride of C. William Kell in a ceremony held Sunday, April 21 in the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Clyde Kell, Gold Hill. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. illingworth, Medford.

A friend of the bridegroom, the Rev. O. L. Kendal, a retired Methodist minister, officiated at the single-ring 7:30 o'clock evening ceremony attended by 15 close relatives of the couple.

For the ceremony the room was decorated in the wedding color theme of blue and white. Setting for the wedding was an arch decorated with white wedding bells and white streamers that were held in place by small bouquets of blue and white daisies. A white milk glass bowl held pastel shades of sweet peas with an arrangement of blue that gave the effect of a water fall to complete the decor.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a fitted suit of white shantung fashioned with a round neckline and elbow length sleeves. Her hat was an open crown pill box styled of white veiling and her corsage was blue carnations. She wore a white pearl necklace with matching ear rings, and bracelet and white accessories.

Miss Shirley Zell, only sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. She wore a frock of pastel green fashioned with round neckline, puffed elbow length sleeves trimmed with white lace, and white accessories.

Best man was Ronald Laws, Rogue River, cousin of the bridegroom who came from Oregon Technical Institute at Klamath Falls for the rites. A reception followed the ceremony. The bride's table was centered with a wedding cake flanked with blue tapers in crystal holders. Mrs. Ernest H. Cooper, Gold Hill, cut and served the cake and Miss Delores Cooper, Gold Hill, poured coffee. Miss Elizabeth Ann Laws, Rogue River, cousin of the bridegroom, took charge of the guest book, and Virginia illingworth, seven-year-old sister of the bride, assisted at the gift table. Mrs. Cooper assisted with decorations for the wedding.

The wedding cake was decorated by the bride's father. For her daughter's wedding and reception, Mrs. illingworth selected a coral knit suit with white accessories; the bridegroom's mother wore a brown suit dress with white accessories.

Coming from a distance for their granddaughter's wedding and reception were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Marjensen, Tillamook, Ore. Also among the guests were the bridegroom's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Force and his paternal grandfather, Charles Kell, all Gold Hill.

The bride has resided in southern Oregon nearly 2 years and attended Phoenix High school. The bridegroom, a member of a longtime Gold Hill family, has resided here all of his life. He attended St. Mary's High school at Medford and Crater High school at Central Point.

Musician Visits Here

Miss Norma Lyon, Ocoos Bay, is visiting in the valley at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Fichtner, 2347 Corona avenue, Medford. Miss Lyon, a native Oregonian, is a composer, pianist and teacher and is recognized throughout the northwest for her accomplishments in music. She also is the illustrator for the Paul Bunyan books.

The visitor has appeared as guest pianist with the Portland Chamber orchestra under the direction of Dr. Boris Sirpo, when she played her own compositions which she had orchestrated for the chamber group.

Her books of instructional music are published by the Belwin company in New York.

Two of her musical compositions, "Sea Sketches," and "The Dune Suite," were inspired by impressions of the sand dunes and ocean as seen from her studio on a bluff overlooking the coast line.

From Salem

Mr. and Mrs. Macey Arnold and Mrs. N. F. Helmick are spending the week end in Medford as guests of Dr. and Mrs. L. Paul Walker, 2132 Dellwood avenue. Mrs. Arnold is a sister of Mrs. Walker and Mrs. Helmick is their mother.

Bride Honored At Shower Party

Mrs. Patrick McCoy was honored at a wedding shower Tuesday, May 1, at the home of Mrs. C. R. Schmidt, 250 Janney lane. Cohostess was Mrs. Ralph B. Matthews.

Mrs. McCoy is the former Lynn Ann Latham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Latham, 815 Park street. Some two dozen friends and relatives attended the event. After a game was played, gifts were opened and refreshments were served.

Ashland — Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Lupton, 473 Euclid avenue, returned home last week after a six-weeks vacation in Florida and on the Atlantic coast. They spent some time in New York City and also visited Niagara Falls.

Medford Woman Named Director

Mrs. Glen V. Allen, 951 South Stage road, was elected a director of the Oregon Home Economics Extension council at a meeting in Corvallis May 3.

Mrs. Allen will serve until 1964 to fill out the unexpired term in office to which she had been appointed last August.

Of the some 750 homemakers registered for the conference 53 were from Jackson county, 29 from Josephine and 13 from Klamath. "Home — the Foundation of Citizenship" was the theme. It was reported that more than 22,000 homemakers in the state are actively participating in informal cooperative extension sponsored study groups.

Medford Club To Host Group

The Medford Sojourner club will entertain the Klamath Falls Sojourners at a luncheon and card party Thursday, May 10, at 12:30 p.m. in the Girls Community club.

Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Clifton Green, Spring 3-7084 or Mrs. Earl Malbourn, Spring 2-8048, not later than Tuesday, May 8.

Any woman who has lived in Medford and vicinity for less than two years is invited to attend and become a member of the club. The requirement for membership is attendance at three out of four successive meetings. This is a social club organized with the purpose of helping newcomers in this area to become acquainted.

Father Visits

Ashland — Visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arlo M. Miller, 735 Leonard st., is Mrs. Miller's 80-year-old father, B. W. Anderson, who took his first plane ride when he flew from his home in Anaheim, Calif., last week.
