

Home Extension Units Set Meetings This Week

Several Home Extension units in the county have scheduled meetings for the week. The study topic will be "Using Accessories" in the Home. One unit is planning a fashion show and luncheon.

Evans Valley

The fashion show and luncheon planned by the Evans Valley unit will begin at 12 noon, on Thursday, May 10 in the Wimer Grange hall. A nominal charge will be made for both events and children under six years old will be admitted without charge. All persons interested are invited to attend. Shree's Clothing store of Rogue River will furnish fashions.

Howard

Installation of officers will be conducted at the meeting of Howard unit in the home of Mrs. Ernest Gleason, 2684 Crater Lake highway Thursday, May 10. The session will begin at 10:30 a.m. Child care will be provided at the home of Mrs. Ralph Peyton, 2634 Biddle road.

Valley Rogue

Mrs. Glen Allen, district chairman, will be the installing officer for installations during the meeting of the Valley Rogue unit Monday, May 7 at 7:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. David Dodge, 224 Oak Grove road. Mrs. W. H. Howell and Mrs. David Dodge will be project leaders.

Medford Parents Unit

The Medford unit will meet at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, May 8 at the home of Mrs. Lee Johnson, 3436 Hanley road, Medford. Mrs. L. H. McConnell and Mrs. B. Simmons will give the lesson. A special guest will be Miss Brigitte Moser, a foreign exchange student from Austria attending Crater High school, who will speak.

Lake Creek

Mrs. W. W. Jackson will install the officers of the Lake Creek unit at that group's final meeting for the season, Wednesday, May 9, at 10:30 a.m.

Mrs. Willard Welch, Brownsboro, will be hostess in her home. Mrs. Carl Vickoren and Mrs. Mark Hoeft will be in charge of the lesson. Information concerning the day's menu can be obtained by calling Mrs. Henry Meyer. Table service is required.

Mrs. Leland M. Charley, chairman, attended the state council meeting held in Corvallis last week.

A kaffee klatch recently was held to raise funds for the Cancer crusade.

An invitation is extended to all women of the area who are interested.

Butte Falls

Mrs. Duane Burton will be installed chairman of the Butte Falls unit when they meet Thursday, May 10. Mrs. Virgil Conley will be installed vice chairman; Mrs. Keith Scott, secretary, and Mrs. Shirley Hatcher, treasurer.

The meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Curt Thomson, 12 miles northeast of Butte Falls on Prospect road. A potluck luncheon will be served. Leaders will be Mrs. Robert Daniels and Mrs. Duane Burton.

Phoenix Unit

During installations at the Phoenix unit meeting Thursday, May 10 at 10 a.m., in the Phoenix Presbyterian church, Mrs. Curtis Stockstill will be installed chairman; Mrs. E. E. Rasmussen, vice chairman; Mrs. Troy Dyson, secretary, and Mrs. Walker Caldwell, treasurer.

A report will be given on the recent state council meeting at Corvallis.

Mrs. Dyson and Mrs. Frank Kievet will lead the lesson. A dessert luncheon will be served. Table service will be required.

Child care will be available at the home of Mrs. Lee G. Covey, 206 Third street, Phoenix. Mothers are required to take sack lunches for their children.

Reese Creek

Mrs. David Kahl, county committee member, will install officers for the Reese Creek unit when members meet Thursday, May 10 at 10:30 a.m., in the home of Mrs. D. C. Evans on Crater Lake highway.

Mrs. Willis Morris and Mrs. Roy Loper are project chairmen, and the luncheon hostesses will be Mrs. Phillip Nevin, Mrs. W. E. Hammel and Mrs. Joseph Whipple. Child care will be available for a nominal fee and luncheon will be served for a small charge.

Members have been reminded by officers that the Home Extension Spring festival and luncheon will be held this year on Monday, May 14, in the Mon Desir Dining inn, Central Point. Persons interested in further information on the festival may contact Mrs. J. W. Martinson, Hillcrest 6-3909.

Mrs. Martinson and Mrs. Kenneth Dufour were project leaders at the previous meeting of the group held in the home of Mrs. Nevin. Luncheon hostesses were Mrs. D. T. Stephenson and Mrs. Merle McGraw. A special guest was Miss Joan Beasley, county agent, and also visiting was Mrs. Marshall Caster.

Medford Unit

A planned luncheon will be served at a meeting of the Medford unit Wednesday, May 9 in Santo hall, 710 North Columbus avenue. The session will open at 10:30 a.m.

Those who have not been contacted regarding luncheon contributions are to take salad or dessert. Table service will be required.

Mrs. Jessie Walters will be the project leader.

Nitelights

Installation of officers and a report of the recent state council meeting are on the program for the Nitelights unit on Tuesday, May 8. Mrs. Ira Fitzgerald will do the installing. Mrs. S. S. Snook, 3286 Snowy Butte road, will be the hostess in her home. Mrs. W. H. Colley and Mrs. V. L. Parent will present the lesson.

Members are reminded by the officers to take articles for a silent auction; Betty Crocker coupons and used postage stamps, for extension projects.

Willamette Unit

Mrs. J. L. Holmes will be installed chairman at the Tuesday, May 8 meeting of Willamette Unit in the home of Mrs. Kenneth Goebel, 882 Hopkins road, Central Point. Mrs. G. C. Barnum is to be installed the vice chairman; Mrs. L. W. Fleiser, secretary, and Mrs. Irving Thompson, treasurer.

The meeting will open at 10:30 a.m., and the lesson will be given by Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Mark Bradley.

Derby

Mrs. Floyd Burg was elected chairman of the Derby unit at a recent meeting. Elected vice chairman was Mrs. Amos Cothrin, secretary, Mrs. John E. Walter, secretary, and Mrs. Roy Terrill, treasurer.

The officers will be installed at this week's meeting of the unit, Thursday, May 10, in the home of Mrs. Burg. Mrs. O. C. Barlow, past chairman, will be the installing officer.

Oak Grove Unit

Mrs. John Aeschliman will be installed chairman of the Oak Grove unit Tuesday, May 8 when members will meet in the home of Mrs. V. A. Turpin, 3027 Old Military road. Miss Joan Beasley, county agent, will be the installing officer.

Mrs. W. H. Ward will be installed vice chairman, Mrs. Gerald Brog, secretary, and Mrs. Leroy Everson, treasurer.

Mrs. Robert Wobbee, Mrs. Turpin and Mrs. Aeschliman will report on the state council meeting.

Mrs. Brog will be cohostess and the project lesson will be given by Mrs. Ward and Mrs. R. D. Coffin. A potluck luncheon will be served and table service will be needed.

Home Economics Festival tickets will be available at the meeting.

Child care will be available at the home of Mrs. Anna Thomas, 185 Clover lane. Anyone wanting to make arrangements with her may call her at SP 2-7560.

Mrs. Thomas Spatz, Central Point, (at left) and Mrs. Orville Reichenberg, Medford, both registered nurses, are helping to arrange the course for expectant parents which the Jackson County chapter, American Red Cross, will begin this week. Mrs. Reichenberg will be one of the instructors. The class will begin Monday, May 7; anyone interested may call the chapter house, SP 2-4405.

Red Cross Plans Class For Expectant Parents

A Red Cross mother and baby care course will start this week at the Rogue Valley hospital for expectant parents, grandmothers and any adult who may be responsible for a very young child.

The course will be held for three weeks with two classes a week. One session will meet on Mondays and Wednesdays from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. and the other on Tuesdays and Thursdays at the same hour.

First class of each session will be held Monday and Tuesday, May 7 and 8. The two sessions will be identical and persons may select which nights are more convenient for them. Classes will be limited as to the number of students, and more will be scheduled if the need arises.

There is no charge for the course and speakers will be Mrs. Orville (Natalia) Reichenberg, RN, and Mrs. Robert (Alberta) Fry, RN. They have received instruction to teach these classes by Miss Pat Joyce, San Francisco, nursing service instructor trainer from the Pacific area office.

The course has been approved by local physicians, who expressed a need for such a program.

The subjects to be covered will include preparation prior to the baby's birth, the birth, after birth, the baby's first year, the child's health and the child at home.
