

Stan Musial Spurs Cardinals, Shatters Endurance Mark; Mays Stars on Birthday

Cincinnati, SL Divide; Giants Win

By NORMAN MILLER
UPI Sports Writer

When Stan (The Man) Musial, finally decides to call it quits, National league pitchers should be happy to chip in and throw him a lavish "Auld Lang Syne" party.

Come to think of it, Musial would like to name that a Cardinals World Series blow-out in St. Louis next October.

The Man, starting his 21st major league season at the age of 41, says this probably is his last. Manager Johnny Keane of the Cards says, "Don't you believe it." And in the meantime the harassed hurlers around the league will have to endure his booming bat.

Musial hit a three-run homer in the ninth Sunday to give the Cards a 3-0 victory over the Cincinnati Reds in the second game of a double-header. The Reds won the opening game, 5-4, but only after Musial had driven in a run during a three-run rally that momentarily tied the score.

Sets Record

Not only that, but he also broke Honus Wagner's National league "endurance" record by playing in the 2,786th and 2,787th games of his career. His present batting average is a lousy .375 and he leads the Cards in runs batted in with 18.

Cincinnati won the opener by scoring twice in the eighth off Don Ferrarese. Frank Robinson's double, an intentional walk to Wally Post, John Edwards' single and a wild pitch by Ferrarese produced the runs. The Cards scored once in their half of the eighth but with the bases loaded and one out, Dave Sisler retired the next two hitters and gained the win. Bob Gibson pitched a five-hitter for the Cards in the nightcap.

Willie Mays, who is 10 years younger than Musial and just as much of a menace to pitchers celebrated his 31st birthday with a two-run homer, double and single that led the league-leading San Francisco Giants to a 7-3 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

In other NL games, the New York Mets edged the Philadelphia Phils, 7-5, in 12 innings and Roman Mejias hit three homers as the Houston Colt .45s split a doubleheader with the Milwaukee Braves, winning the first and losing the second.

Mantle Hits Three

Mickey Mantle was the American league's big blaster as he hit three homers while the New York Yankees divided a doubleheader with the Washington Senators, losing the opener, 4-2, then winning the nightcap 8-0.

The Los Angeles Angels, who won Saturday night on Bob Belinsky's no-hit, no-run pitching, beat the Baltimore Orioles again, 15-7; the Minnesota Twins defeated the Detroit Tigers, 10-7; the Cleveland Indians topped the Kansas City Athletics, 5-1, and the Chicago White Sox gained a split of a twin bill with the Boston Red Sox, winning the second game, 5-3, after losing the opener, 3-2.

Lefty Billy O'Dell of the Giants held the Cubs to seven hits for his fourth victory without a defeat. Harvey Kuenn also hit a homer as the Giants made it 11 wins in their last 12 games.

Gil Hodges' two-run bases-loaded single in the 12th inning against the Phils earned the Mets their fourth victory of the season. Craig Anderson, fourth Mets pitcher, received credit for the victory in the rain-interrupted game and Jack Baldschun was the loser, although Hodges' hit was made off Art Mahaffey.

Dick Farrell pitched a four-hitter and Mejias drove in

Bob Shantz Traded Again; NY Mets Obtain Mizell

By JOE SARGIS
UPI Sports Writer

You couldn't exactly blame little Bobby Shantz for wondering where the next bounce will take him along the major league trail.

Shantz, still a class pitcher after 13 major league seasons, was picked up by the St. Louis Cardinals on Sunday in a swap which sent pitcher John Anderson and outfielder Carl Warwick to the Houston Colts.

Only two years ago Shantz was a member of the American league champion New York Yankees. In the special AL draft to stock the new Washington and Los Angeles clubs, Bobby was drafted by the Senators. He never even pitched one ball for them before being traded to the Pirates, for whom he won six games and lost three last year. Then came the special draft to fill the rosters of the new five runs with two of his homers in the nightcap. Del Crandall's homer provided Warren Spahn with his winning margin in the nightcap. It was Spahn's 312th win.

In the AL, Mantle's two homers helped rookie Jim Bouton win his first major league start with a seven-hitter. Roger Maris also hit a New York homer. Washington rookie Dave Stenhouse, also making his first major league start, was credited with the opening game victory. Gene Woodling's pinch homer tied the score and an error by rookie first baseman Joe Pepitone of the Yankees helped the Senators score the winning run.

Lee Thomas collected five hits and drove in five runs for the Angels against Baltimore. Los Angeles made 19 hits and pinned the defeat on Billy Hoelt, Jack Spring scored his season's first win in relief. Brooks Robinson hit a grand-slam homer for Baltimore.

Bernie Allen's three-run homer off Hank Aguirre in the ninth inning enabled Minnesota to sweep a three-game series with Detroit. Ray Moore was the winner in relief. Zoilo Versalles also homered for the Twins and Bill Bruton connected for Detroit.

On Army Pass

Jim (Mudcat) Grant of the Indians, pitching on a week end pass from the Army, held Kansas City to six hits for his first win of the year. Willie Kirkland helped him by hitting a three-run homer.

Reliever Turk Lown struck out three Boston batters with two on base in the ninth inning to save the White Sox' nightcap victory for rookie Joel Horlen. In the opening game, Jim Pagliaroni's double followed by Gary Geiger's single in the seventh produced the winning run for Boston. Camillo Carreon hit a Chicago homer. Gene Conley scattered 10 hits in gaining the victory.

Ducks Keep On Trying; Relays Next

Eugene - Oregon may be the best dual meet track team in history. And the Ducks keep on trying to prove it.

The unbeaten Ducks, getting brilliant individual performances, powered over arch-rival Oregon State 98-45 here Saturday for their eighth straight two-way victory.

Oregon, which now has won 36 straight dual meets at home and has picked up 35 wins in a row against Northern division foes, took first places in 14 of the 17 events and tied for first in another event.

Both the Ducks and the Beavers, which now have a 7-2 record in dual meet competition, will send athletes to the West Coast Relays in Fresno, Calif., this week end.

Oregon's quartet of Burleson, Vic Reeve, Keith Forman and Archie San Romani will have their eye on the world four-mile relay record of 16:23.8, held by a New Zealand foursome.

4400 relay - Oregon (Mel Renfro, Jim Puckett, Jerry Tarr, Harry Jerome) 40:5 (meet record, old record: 41:4; Oregon, 1962; new meet event).

1 mile - Dwyll, Burleson, Oregon, 4:01.2 (meet record, old record: 4:04.2; Burleson, 1961); Archie San Romani, Oregon, 4:04.8; Vic Reeve, Oregon, 4:06.1.

Broad jump - Jerry Close, Oregon, 24-5 1/2; Mel Renfro, Oregon, 24-0; Jim Roehm, OSU, 21-2 1/2.
