

Ex-Dodger Helps Houston Beat LA

By NORMAN MILLER
UPI Sports Writer

Paul Richards, one baseball's better brains, moaned last October that he was being offered a lot of humpies for organizing his Houston Colts, but these same derelicts are making him and Manager Harry Craft look like a pair of geniuses.

There were many experts who took Richards at his word and consigned the Colts to the National League cellar this season.

It's still early, of course, but the Colts have looked mighty respectable so far, and projecting their present 10-13 record through a 162-game schedule, they would wind up with 70 victories.

Bob Aspromonte, John Weekly and Bob Tiefenauer, three of the Colts' mangled minions, produced like champions Monday night as Houston defeated the Los Angeles Dodgers, 9-6, in the major leagues' only game.

Puts Colts Ahead

Aspromonte hit a three-run homer in the seventh inning to put the Colts ahead; Weekly connected in the eighth for an insurance run, and Tiefenauer pitched three shutout relief innings to receive credit for his first major league victory since 1955.

Aspromonte called his homer "the greatest thrill of my life." It had a special meaning because it was hit against the Dodgers, who had cast him adrift for one of the two new clubs to grab.

"This is the dream of every ballplayer, to get a hit like that against his old club," the 23-year-old third baseman beamed. "I never felt better in my life."

It's been a long time between major league victories for 32-year-old Tiefenauer. Although he first had a trial in the big show 10 years ago, that 1955 win was his only other triumph in the majors.

Four Runs Unearned

The Colts went ahead with five runs in the second inning, four of them unearned. The Dodgers committed two errors and their pitchers forced in two runs with walks.

Los Angeles moved ahead, 6-5, in the sixth with three runs, knocking out Colts' starter Drive Glusti and his successor, Al Cicotte.

Aspromonte then hit his homer off rookie lefty Pete Richert, who was charged with the defeat. Tiefenauer gave up only one hit during the last three innings. Aspromonte, who had been in a slump, now has collected nine hits in Houston's last three games.

PROTEST - Colt 45 players Al Cicotte (31) and John Weekly (24) argue with umpire Frank Secora after his call on the first runner of the game, Dodger shortstop Maury Wills, in the first inning of last night's LA-Houston contest. It was a happy night for the Colts, however. They won, 9 to 6. (UPI)

Chips Are Down for SOC Baseball Team This Week

Ashland - The chips will be down this week for the Southern Oregon College baseball team, winners of seven of eight games in the Oregon Collegiate Conference.

Coach Ted Schopf's Red Raiders, who swept a three-game series from Eastern Oregon here over the weekend, close out their regular season schedule this week with a total of five games on tap, four of which will be crucial OCC encounters.

This afternoon in Klamath Falls the Ashlanders tangle with Oregon Tech in a single nine-inning clash, while on Thursday and Friday they travel to Portland for three games with the league-leading Portland State Vikings in a series that will probably decide the Conference championship.

On Saturday in Eugene the Raiders close out against University of Oregon in a single game.

Portland State is unbeaten in six OCC outings this season while Southern Oregon is in second place with their 7-1 record. Victories in their final four Conference games is a must for Schopf's crew if they expect to win their first OCC title in recent years.

Solid pitching by a trio of right-handers, Dave Hughes, Earl Tichenor and Don Johnson carried the Raiders past EOC last weekend. Hughes allowed only two infield singles and struck out 13 Mountie batters in Friday's 3-1 Raider win. On Saturday, Tichenor pitched a seven-hitter as SOC won the first game of a doubleheader, 11-4. Johnson hurled a brilliant three-hitter and fanned 12 batters as Schopf's crew won the series finale, 6-1.

Hughes and freshman Paul Blinks both rapped home runs for SOC during the series. Blinks' blow on Friday was his third of the season.

Outfielder Damien Rossetto was the overall hitting star of the three games for Southern Oregon with five hits, including two doubles and a triple, in 11 times at bat. The left-handed hitting junior also had four runs-batted-in.

Eagle Point Wins Jr. High Track Meet

The revolving trophy of the Roxy League Junior Highs was won by Eagle Point at the third annual A-2 Grade School and Junior High invitational track and field meet, held at Eagle Point Saturday.

Eagle Point won with 158 points, posting over last year's winner, Talent, which was a close second this year with 154 1/2. St. Mary's got 150, Rogue River 136 and Gold Hill 55 to round out junior high scoring.

Shady Cove won the grade school section with 109 1/2 points, Prospect 48, Sams Valley 32, and Evans Valley 22 1/2 points, completing the scoring for the meet.
