

Sorority Week To Close With Tea Thursday Night

A tea Thursday, May 10, at Girls Community club will mark the close of Sorority Week. The event is sponsored by Alpha Lambda chapter, Epsilon Sigma Alpha International, and will also observe Founders' day.

Guests will be members of two other valley chapters, Delta Omega and Beta Nu, and members of Beta Sigma Phi chapters in Jackson county.

Mayor John W. Snider has praised the work of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority for the group's participation in civic affairs.

"I would like to call attention," Mayor Snider said, "to the fine work being done by Epsilon Sigma Alpha International on the occasion of 'Sorority Week,' May 5 to 10, 1962.

"This organization has been of great help to the community through its many humanitarian efforts."

Members of Alpha Lambda chapter met at the home of Mrs. Glenn Wilkins May 3 for a candlelight jewel pin ceremony for Mrs. Gary Straube. The ceremony was conducted by the president, Mrs. Lyman Smith, assisted by Mrs. Robert Rar, vice-president. Candlelighters were Mrs. Robert Bennett and Mrs. Richard Harrison.

April 30 a convention luncheon was held at the home of Mrs. William Cox for members of the chapter.

May 12 installation of new officers will be held at the Medford hotel. May 14 a business meeting will be held at the Herb Partridge home.

Reception Is Given For Mrs. McKee

Eagle Point - Among the more than 100 guests at a recent party which honored Mrs. Floyd McKee, who will retire soon after having taught school for 25 years, was one of her former teachers and one of her first students.

The former teacher is Mrs. Sanford (May) Richardson, Table Rock. The early-day pupil is Mrs. William Ziegler, Applegate, the former Maud Poole. Also among the guests was Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Nealon of the Table Rock area, long-time friends of the honored woman, and four generations of the McKee family.

The reception for Mrs. McKee was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Barrows. Hosts were teachers of the Eagle Point Elementary school, where Mrs. McKee teaches. They presented her a lamp for her home.

Ralph Humphrey, who was one of her students when he was in the eighth grade and was assistant principal for the school in which she taught last year, made the presentation.

Mrs. Steven Wisely took charge of the guest book. Mrs. Glenn D. Hale, Mrs. Robert Work and Mrs. Eleanor Mitchell served refreshments.
