Durno Plans Visit In Jackson County

Rep. Edwin R. Durno will be in Jackson county Friday and Saturday for his last campaign appearances here before the May 18 election.

The Medford Congressman has concentrated his campaign for the GOP nomination for U.S. Senator in areas where his record is less known than in the Fourth district, according to a local campaign official.

An open public meeting is planned for 8 p.m. Friday at the American Legion hall on Walnut street at which Dr. Durno will be available for informal questioning. Voters are urged by the local committee to meet and question him regarding his stand on domestic and foreign issues, and on current happenings in Congress and the Administration.

Dr. Durno will further clarify his position during three television appearances. He will appear at 4:30 p.m. and 6:55 p.m. Friday over KMED-TV and at 10 p.m. Saturday on a simulcast over KBES-TV and KOTI-TV.

Duncan Endorsed by Two Local Unions

Robert B. Duncan, Medford, candidate seeking the Democratic nomination for fourth district congressman, has received the endorsement of two labor unions here.

The Building Trades Council of Medford and vicinity last night endorsed Duncan because of "his outstanding service to the people of the state of Oregon, and his proven ability as an effective legislator."

The council also voted to support the candidacy of W. E. Morrison as a write-in candidate for state senator on the Democratic ticket.

The Culinary Alliance and Bartenders Union, Local 329, this week endorsed Duncan for the fourth congressional district nomination.
