

Pendleton Doctor Engages in Feud With Hospital

Pendleton—A controversy between a prominent Pendleton physician and the new Community Memorial Hospital here has broken into the open.

Dr. Louis J. Feves, former president of the Oregon State Medical Society, said he had been denied a permit to practice medicine at the hospital.

Dr. Feves said the denial was made on improper grounds without a hearing and was contrary to the hospital's bylaws. He said he received the denial in a letter written by Hospital Administrator S. O. Kivie which said "your application will not be approved at this time because of your public attitude and action regarding our community hospital."

Accusations Said False

Dr. Feves denied any improper action toward the hospital. He said accusation that he had told patients not to patronize the community hospital were false.

Dr. Feves said he had been invited to a May meeting of the hospital board if he cared to "show cause why this action should be reconsidered." He said he would not attend the meeting and as far as he was concerned it meant he was being denied the permit.

Dear Bill Open

A spokesman for the hospital board said the door was still open for Dr. Feves to apply. He said Dr. Feves had been given the same opportunity as every other doctor in the area to sign an application form to receive a staff permit.

The spokesman said Dr. Feves refused initially to sign the form but did ask for one at a later date. He said the hospital board felt it wise to meet with Dr. Feves to try to resolve their differences which was why he was invited to the May 14 meeting.

Japanese Family To Visit Brookings

Brookings—The Brookings Junior Chamber of Commerce said Wednesday it is expecting three members of a Japanese family for the May Azalea Festival, but a fourth cannot come.

The three are Nobuo Fujita, his wife Ayako, and son Yasuyoshi. Fujita is the former World War II pilot who tried to set Oregon forests afire by dropping incendiary bombs. The Fujitas were invited here by the Jaycees in a gesture of friendship.

The Jaycees said they have been notified Fujita's daughter cannot make the trip because she is expecting a child. It will be Fujita's first grandchild.

4-H NEWS

Rabbitry

The West Side Rabbitry 4-H club took a trip to the Eugene County Rabbit show recently. Members going were Janet Lee, Jerry Clark, Lee Stracey, George Helfner, Don Pinkham, Gary Pinkham and our leader, Phyllis Caldwell.

Three members entered rabbits. They were Don Pinkham, Janet Lee and Gary Pinkham. They were competing against the top rabbit breeders of Oregon and anyone could enter.

There were five rabbits entered from our club and only one did not place.

Desert Pegasus

Halter showmanship and horsemanship were reviewed and practiced at the Desert Pegasus 4-H club meeting recently. In addition to preparation for the first show of the season, which will be sponsored by the Siskiyou Horse club to be held in Ashland, arrangements were made for the trail ride. The ride was managed by Jim West.

Next Sunday, May 20, the Pegasus will sponsor a gymkhana at the White City Dromedary for the entertainment of the veterans. This event is open to all interested horsemen in the valley.

The Pegasus toured Floyd Silva's Arabian farm at Grants Pass recently. They also visited Paul Adams' farm to see his Arabian stallion. They had a fine time and the excursion left them with many wonderful memories.

Reese Creek

The Reese Creek 4-H club met in the home of Ben Gardner recently. Mr. Moore gave the members their final test for the club year.

The next meeting was scheduled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hopewell. Mr. Hopewell showed the members through his dairy barn.

Andy Northrop, Reporter.

Ruch Woolies

The Ruch Woolies 4-H club held their fifth meeting recently at Mrs. Margaret Cantrell's house. The club went to the fair grounds to a recent sheep clinic.

John Landers, the speaker, told and showed us different methods of keeping sheep.

We had a short discussion on breeds of sheep. The next meeting will be held May 23 at Mrs. Cantrell's home at 7:30 p.m.
