

Miss Vicky Enders was queen of the 1962 Junior-Senior Promenade of Medford High school held May 5 at the school gymnasium. The queen and her court are (left to right) Miss De Etta Lawson, senior, Miss Shirley Tillery, junior, Miss Susi Bergholm, exchange student from Orsa, Sweden, Queen Vicky, a senior, Miss Deanna Arnold, junior, Miss Sandra Gannon, junior and Miss Sandra Bates, senior. Queen Vicky, wearing white, received a crown of flowers from Charles McNair, student body president. "Twilight Beneath the Sea" was the Prom theme. (Knackstedt photo)

Concert Scheduled

The final concert to be given by the Medford High school Vocal Music Department is scheduled for Tuesday, May 15, in the school auditorium.

Included in the program will be selections by the a capella choir, advanced girls' chorus and madrigal singers.

Each of the large groups will sing some of the numbers that they performed at the Southern Oregon District contest held at Ashland recently. At the contest, each group received superior ratings, and the choir was selected as the outstanding choral group in the Senior division.

Also included on the program are selections from the current Broadway musicals, "Camelot" and "The Sound of Music," to be sung by the Madrigal and advanced girls' chorus.

The concert will start promptly at 8 p.m., and is free of charge to the public.

Farewell Tea Is Given For Mrs. Compton

Mrs. Richard M. Gray and Mrs. T. M. Lytle gave a tea May 8 at the former's home on Cherry Lane honoring Mrs. Judson Compton. Mr. and Mrs. Compton and their five children will leave soon for New Brunswick, N.J., where Mr. Compton, a Boy Scout executive, will take up his duties on the national Boy Scout public relations staff.

Mrs. Compton has been an active Girl Scout volunteer, serving as Rogue Valley council treasurer, bookkeeper and secretary, and as chairman of the established camp committee.

The tea table was decorated in yellow and green, the Girl Scout colors, and an epergne held baby ivy and yellow-potential flowers. Mrs. Lytle poured.

The 30 guests came from Grants Pass, Yreka, Ashland and Medford. Mrs. Compton was presented a tea apron decorated with the yellow trefoil of the Girl Scouts, and the guests inscribed their names on the hem.

Both Mrs. Gray and Mrs. Lytle are past presidents of the Girl Scout council.

Chairmen who planned the annual Junior-Senior dinner and dance in honor of St. Mary's High school graduating seniors posed during the event, held at Rogue Valley Country Club May 4. They are (left to right) Marylee Lowry, chairmen of program and decorations; Miss Linda Metz, publicity chairman; Miss Kathleen Hout, decorations chairman; Miss Barbara Lewis, Miss Laura Batzer, chaperones, and Jim Calhoun, who with Miss Lewis was general co-chairman of the event. Mood Indigo was the dance theme.

State Officers Of Daughters Visit Here

Four state officers of Court St. Mary's, Catholic Daughters of America, were in Medford Sunday, May 6 for annual initiation ceremonies for the Medford court.

The day's activities began with mass at 8:30 a.m., in Sacred Heart Catholic church, followed by breakfast at Roxy Ann Grange hall, served by the Grange women. Tables were decorated by Mrs. Fred Shere.

Here to participate in the ceremonies were Mrs. Agnes Schottlofer, Eugene, state regent; Mrs. William Elsen, Tigard, state secretary; Mrs. Margaret Brown, Salem, treasurer, and Mrs. J. W. Moore, Molalla, monitor.

Initiated were Mrs. Anthony Bock, Central Point; Mrs. John D. Ferrin, Phoenix; Mrs. Donald Groesch, Mrs. Richard M. Knoll, Mrs. John L. Mansfield, Mrs. Leland S. Middleton, Mrs. Joseph F. Clark, Mrs. Helen M. Murphy, Mrs. Vincent P. Nicoletti, Mrs. Joan W. Pruet, Mrs. John J. Petrusich, and Mrs. N. J. Wilson, all of Medford; Mrs. Harold W. Cronin and Mrs. Bruce J. Schweizer, both of Ashland.

Mrs. Cora N. Callaway, transferred from Wallace, Ida.

Mrs. Dorothy Dickey Returns To Ashland

Ashland - Mrs. Dorothy Dickey has returned to Ashland after a year's absence and is a houseguest of Mrs. Elizabeth Sommer, 153 Oak street. She spent several months with sisters in Indiana and during the winter visited in Florida with relatives.

Friendship Is Theme Of Extension Festival

"Friends Around the World" is the theme of the annual Spring Homemakers' festival of the Jackson County Home Extension units to be held at Mon Desir Inn from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Monday, May 14.

Mrs. David Kahl, county advisory committee chairman, will preside. Mrs. Iva Harper will give the invocation. Group singing will be led by Mrs. Frank Williams, accompanied by Mrs. J. L. Tengesdal.

Mrs. Mable Mack, assistant director of extension work for Oregon and former home economics agent for Jackson county, will be a special guest. She will tell of the history of extension work in the state and in Jackson county in particular. This county was one of the first in the state to establish a home economics extension program.

Mrs. Earnest Miller, who has been a resident of our county since last fall, will speak about her native country, Australia. Her talk will be of special interest as the triennial convention of the Associated Country Women of the World will be held in Australia in October. The Home Extension council is a member of the ACWW which is an organization made up of 142 women's organizations from 35 countries. It is one of the non-governmental organizations which have been granted consultative status in the United Nations.

After luncheon, which will be served at Mon Desir, Mrs. Julie Tummers will tell of her trip to Medford's sister city, Alba, Italy and show pictures she took there.

Displays will be set up showing the project lessons studied during the year, as well as special projects that have been carried on by individual units in addition to the planned lessons. The Home Extension has stressed a traffic safety program this year and a display will be shown of that subject. Members also help a great deal in the 4-H program, procuring leaders and giving scholarships to the 4-H summer school.

Lively Rogues Slate Election

Lively Rogues Dance club members will elect officers during an informal dinner dance meeting scheduled for Thursday, May 17 at 7:30 p.m., in the Rogue Valley Country club.

Music will be furnished for the dancing by Caesar's combo.

Host couples will be Mr. and Mrs. John Pletsch and Mr. and Mrs. Lou Cranston.

Travel East

Ashland - Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Andres, 72 Laurel street, are motoring east to visit in Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin. They are former Midwesterners.

Returns

Ashland - Mrs. J. A. Langtry, 111 North Main street, returned recently from a 10-day visit in Eureka, Calif. with her daughter, Mrs. Beth Hays.

SPEED READING It's a Good Investment!

Investment in knowledge always pays dividends. Stock markets may crash, real estate values may go down, but the investment you have made in yourself can never be taken from you. Reading dynamically will help you attain a greater knowledge in all fields.

The above class graduated recently in Eugene with gratifying results. This class included students, housewives, teachers, laborers, business and professional men and women. They enjoy and use this modern reading technique—YOU CAN TOO!

SPEED READING AS TAUGHT BY DYNAMIC READING INSTITUTE WILL:

- Increase your reading speed
- Increase your retention
- Make your reading more relaxing and enjoyable.
- Teach you a fast, proven study method
- Maintain your maximum comprehension

This modern approach to reading can be used on all types of literature from light novels to highly technical matter with more satisfaction and better understanding than at your present reading level. Dynamic Reading will help professional and business people faced with the problem of keeping abreast with the latest developments in their fields.

Dynamic Reading Institute is having outstanding success in training people of all levels from 12 to 80 to read more rapidly and to remember what they have read.

CLASSES BEGIN...

7 P.M. THURSDAY - MAY 17th

JACKSON HOTEL

Downtown Medford

Everyone Welcome

DYNAMIC READING INSTITUTE

Bonded to and Licensed by The Oregon State Department of Education
For further information call SP 3-1471, or write Dynamic Reading Institute, Inc., 3128 Madrona Lane, Medford, Oregon.

HOT WEATHER COLOGNE

COOL! FRESH! FRAGRANT! Splash it on—all over—and feel instantly cooler. You'll leave a delicious trail of fragrance all day—and what fragrance. Seven beautiful scents... all light but lingering. Choose several and enjoy changing them about as you change your clothes. You can afford them at this special price. JUST $1

Dorothy Gray

McLains DRUG CENTRE

THRIFTY GREEN STAMPS
8 No. Central SP 2-7113

JEWELRY

Gifts For Graduation

There's nothing quite so appropriate at graduation time as a gift of fine jewelry. We have just what your favorite grad wants.

- Sterling Silver
- Watches
- Rings
- Costume Jewelry

- Tie Sets
- Earrings
- Necklaces
- Bracelets
- China

Many, Many Other Fine Gifts!

We Will Gladly GIFT WRAP Your Purchase Absolutely FREE!

Lawrence's

21 N. CENTRAL Est. 1908
Convenient Terms if Desired!

Norfield's

Roamer
Bone Nylon Mesh
$12.99

Cadet
Black White
$12.99

Shopper
White and Beige
$11.99

Cobbies are so soft and easy-going...

You'll love the way they pace your busiest days. Very soft and light on happy little heels and wedges. And their supple, caressing Cobbie fit is simply all-day-wonderful!

Most Cobbies 10.99 to 13.99

This product has no connection whatever with The American National Red Cross

NORFIELD SHOE CO.

"Southern Oregon's Oldest Shoe Concern"

221 East Main Street
Phone SP 2-2123