

Church Ceremony Held

Central Point—An event of May 6 was the wedding of Miss Diane Marie Griffith and Arnold Artie Wolfe. The ceremony was read at 3 o'clock in the afternoon at First Methodist church.

The Rev. Gerald Nelson performed the rites in the presence of about 200 guests.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Byron R. Griffith, 30 Crater lane, Central Point, and the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. John S. Wolfe, 322 Benson street, Medford, and the late Mr. Wolfe.

Mr. Griffith gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Rae Burritt was maid of honor and bridesmaids were the Misses Marleen Froeber, Janie Ward and Joan Skov, all of Medford. Cousins of the bride from Eugene, Wendy Boll and Robin Boll, were flower girls and Randy Martin of Medford carried the rings. Candle lighters were Miss Gail Eastin and Miss Cindy Pryde.

Gerry Lyons served as best man, and Jerry Swartzley and Dean Welch, both of Medford, and Edward Cripe, seated the guests.

The bride's gown of peau de soie was designed with a chapel train and bustle bow. The bodice was trimmed with lace and pearlized sequins and her illusion veil was held by miniature pearls from a lace crown. The bridal bouquet was a white orchid with white carnations. She carried an heirloom handkerchief loaned by her grandmother, Mrs. Eric Wahlstrom.

Wears Satin

The maid of honor wore a ballerina length gown of peacock blue satin with bell shaped skirt. She carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with a peacock blue carnation. The bridesmaids wore matching gowns of teal blue and carried bouquets centered with teal carnations. All wore veils to match their gowns.

The flower girls wore matching dresses of yellow and lavender, trimmed with lace and designed with jackets and their head bands matched their frocks. Their necklaces were gifts from the bride, and they carried baskets filled with rose petals.

The candlelighters' dresses were of flowered white nylon over blue taffeta and they wore matching head bands. Their wrist corsages were of carnations.

Baskets of bridal wreath and hawthorn decorated the church and white bows marked the pews.

Miss Diana Hunter furnished the wedding songs accompanied by Mrs. Leslie Boardman, organist.

For her daughter's wedding the bride's mother wore a pale blue sheath dress with jacket, of broadened satin with which she wore matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in a beige sheath dress with jacket, also of broadened satin and both wore corsages of pink rosebuds.

Many Guests

Out-of-town guests included Vernon Griffith, a brother of the bride, who is stationed with the Navy at Bremerton, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Eric Wahlstrom, Iron Mountain, Mich., maternal grandparents of the bride; Mrs. Carl Boll, a paternal grandmother of the bride; William Boll, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Boll Jr., and family, all of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Hilden Pryde and family, Hoquiam, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Houg and family, Aberdeen, Wash.; Donald Wolfe, a brother of the bridegroom, and Jay Mullen, both of Eugene; Mrs. Catherine Flock and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Flock, all of Montague, Calif.; Robert Custance, James Wickler, Douglas Williams, Mrs. John Mathes and Mrs. A. D. Tilton, all Klamath Falls; Mrs. Bradley Martin and Mr. and Mrs. Carol Williams, all of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Ralleg Mathews and Mr. and Mrs. Otto E. King, all of Shady Cove; Mrs. M. Swenson of Wisconsin; Mrs. J. Olmstead of New York; and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lawrence and Mrs. Bessie Henderson, aunt of the bridegroom.

A reception was given by the bride's parents at the Jackson House. The reception table

Carpenter - Donker Rites Are Held at Salade Home

The wedding of Helene Salade Donker to Alfred S. V. Carpenter took place Saturday, May 5, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Lillian Salade, Central Point. The brief ceremony was read at four o'clock in the afternoon by the Rt. Rev. Benjamin D. Dagwell, Portland, retired bishop of the Episcopal church.

The bride is also the daughter of Louis Salade, San Francisco.

For the ceremony the bride wore a dress of champagne colored silk with three-quarter length sleeves and slightly full skirt having geometric insets of chartreuse, lavender and aquamarine silk. She wore three small chartreuse colored orchids and carried a small black prayer book with a spray of lily of the valley.

Mrs. Martin Luther Jr.,

Phoenix, attended her sister. She wore a lavender print silk frock with orchid corsage.

Leonard Carpenter, Carmel, Calif., was best man for his brother.

Here for the wedding were the bride's daughter, Miss Laine Donker, student at Mills college in California; the bridegroom's son, Harlow, Waitsville, Vi., his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Carpenter, Carmel; his niece, Mrs. Bernard Van Horne, and Mr. Van Horne, Lafayette, Calif., and Mrs. F. R. Alley, Pacific Palisades, Calif., who is the former Patricia Thompson, daughter of Mrs. W. A. Thompson, Medford, and long-time friend of the bride and bridegroom.

Also attending the wedding was the bride's son, William Donker III.

Orchids for the bride and her sister and for a mantel decoration were sent from New York as a gift from her cousin, Mrs. Valentina Sarra, the former Marcy Westcott of Chicago, Ill.

The newlyweds are at home at Topside, the Carpenter residence on Old Stage road. Mr. Carpenter and his bride have both lived in the Rogue valley many years and are widely known; Mr. Carpenter is an orchardist and civic leader.
