

Chapel Rites Wed Couple

Grants Pass - Miss Nancy Leilia Whipple and Allan E. Stienhardt were wed in 4 o'clock afternoon rites Sunday, May 6 in Meeker chapel of the First Methodist church, Medford. The Rev. Gerald C. Nelson performed the ceremony in the presence of about 20 guests.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Whipple, 3931 South Pacific Highway, Grants Pass, and the bridegroom is a son of Everett Stienhardt of Rogue River. Mr. Whipple gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Hazel Williams, Grants Pass, an aunt of the bride, was maid of honor and the bridegroom's father was best man.

Mrs. Leslie Boardman, organist, furnished the wedding music. About 30 persons attended the reception given by the bride's parents in their home. The bride attended Emerson school in Butte, Mont., and Rogue River, Ore., schools. The bridegroom is a station manager at Rogue River.

Men and women of the valley who attended the recent Jewelerama given as a benefit for the American Cancer society were most interested in the showing of fabulous jewelry that the Hillcrest committee and Brophy Jewelers, sponsors, plan to possibly give another year after next. Mrs. Fred Spiegelberg, committee member, is shown wearing an unusual necklace, bracelet and ring of matched star rubies valued at many thousands of dollars. Mrs. Spiegelberg's fashionable white chiffon gown and dark coloring provided interesting contrast for the rare and beautiful rubies.

Sis-Q Council To Hold Election

Officers will be elected when Rogue Sis-Q Area Council of Square Dancers will meet at the Roxy Ann Grange hall Tuesday, May 15, at 8 p.m.

Each member club is asked to have four delegates or alternates present. The Star Promenaders will host this meeting. They suggest that those attending take dancing shoes. Any interested square dancer is invited to attend.

Session Planned

Mrs. Charles Hoppe will preside for a business meeting of the Scottish Rite Women's club planned for Monday, May 14, at 8 p.m., in the Masonic temple. Wives, daughters or mothers of Scottish Rite Masons are invited to attend. Hostesses for the event are Mrs. Fred Purdin and Mrs. Clay Roberts.

Health Unit Officers Are Named

Gold Hill - Mrs. Grover T. Mulkey was elected president of the Gold Hill Health unit during the last business meeting. Mrs. Arthur Baye was named vice president. Mrs. Clarence Parsley is retiring as president after serving two years in that capacity. Those on the nominating committee were Mrs. Melvin Burnett, Mrs. Clyde Kell, and Mrs. W. S. Dickerson.

The meeting followed a picnic luncheon at the home of Mrs. Dickerson on Sardine Creek road.

Mrs. Virginia Kyer, executive secretary for the Jackson County Tuberculosis and Health association announced that the mobile x-ray clinic will be in Gold Hill on Tuesday, June 12 from 2 until 8 p.m.

Mrs. Mulkey, who with Mrs. Edward Knapp represented the health unit at a pre-planning meeting concerning the mobile x-ray unit, gave a report. She told of some benefits that have resulted from wonder drugs.

Mrs. Melvin Burnett, clinic chairman, reported on plans for the pre-school clinic held on May 3.

Mrs. Clarence Parsley was named chairman to act as mobile unit co-ordinator. She will be in charge of pamphlets and local volunteers. Members who offered their services were Mrs. Baye, Mrs. Ted Schoenemann, Mrs. Dale Smith, Mrs. Mulkey, Mrs. Burnett, Mrs. Parsley and Mrs. Kell. Others will be needed, it was indicated by Mrs. Kyer.

Miss Elizabeth McGalliard, nurse from the Jackson County Health department, said plans are under way to give the Sabin oral vaccine in the county. Those present were told to watch the newspaper for information on the program.

This was the last meeting until September 11 when the group will resume meetings. Members of the unit coming from Medford other than Mrs. Kyer and Mrs. Knapp were Mrs. Paul Dix, Mrs. Brennan and Mrs. Ivan Burton who became a new member of the group on May 2. Mrs. Paul Molloy reported that $22 had been received for the Cancer Crusade as a result of envelopes left at Gold Hill schools. Of that figure $5.85 was donated by seventh graders in Dean Robert's classroom from their party fund. She said these youngsters had voted during a class meeting to sponsor a door to door Cancer Crusade on Wednesday, May 3 after school.

Home From Gates - Gold Hill - Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scott have returned to their home on Lampman road after spending some time at Gates, Ore.

Ashland Civic Club Officers Installed

Ashland - Officers for the coming year were installed by Mrs. Clay Lee, Medford, president of District 1, Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, at the May meeting of the Ashland Women's Civic club. Chosen to succeed Mrs. Ella Foster as president is Mrs. Bert Roberts.

On the executive board are Mrs. Wesley Reed, vice president; Mrs. Stewart Hedges, secretary, and Mrs. Henry Dooms, who was reelected treasurer. Before turning over the gavel to the new president Mrs. Foster expressed her appreciation for the cooperation of the club members who had made her two-year term a memorable and successful one.

Mrs. Roberts responded briefly with the hope of continued activity and outlined several plans for next year's program.

Speaker for the afternoon session, Mrs. Inez Cavelle of Pacific Northwest Telephone company, told of the direct dialing system that is to go into effect here July 15. She explained the area code numbering whereby a call can be made direct to 5500 cities in the United States and Canada, with all of the facts involved recorded on perforated tape for company and customer statements.

She said that telephone installations, which are increasing at the rate of 8,000 a day in the United States, make efficient automation imperative, but that the new system will not mean a decrease in employees although there will be a slight decrease in certain rates.

In observance of Federation Poetry month, Mrs. Gertrude Bartlett and Mrs. Pearl Crouch gave several of their own poems and in conclusion Mrs. Roy Nye read a rhymed review of the past club year's accomplishments.

Mrs. Dooms was elected delegate to the state convention in Portland, May 7 through 10. Others from the Ashland Civic club attending the state sessions are Mrs. Nye, state international affairs chairman, and Mrs. Foster, state chairman of mineral and wildlife division of conservation.

A noon covered dish luncheon was served by the Mesdames Hedges, Hazel Thompson, Katherine McLean, Stella Corthell and Mabel McDermott. The opening meeting of the fall will be held in September but during the summer there will be a picnic in Lithia park.

Ashland Women Plan Installation

Ashland - New officers of the American Legion auxiliary, Guy Applewhite post, are to be installed at a session Tuesday in Legion hall on Winburn way. The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. and a social hour will follow.

Mrs. John Scott Hall is the president. Others on the executive board are Mrs. George Engle, first vice president; Mrs. H. F. Jenkins, second vice president; Mrs. Everett E. McLaughlin, secretary, and Mrs. Charles Gettinglin, treasurer. Mrs. Guy Applewhite is historian; Mrs. Elden Corthell, is chaplain, and Mrs. Emil Kroeger and Mrs. Emil Sorenson are sergeants-at-arms.
