Oven Fire — Medford firemen reported that a plastic tray left in an oven at the Plaza Apartments, 235 South Oakdale ave., ignited shortly before 9 a.m. Saturday, causing considerable smoke and some minor damage. The apartment was occupied by Mrs. E. Andrews.

Flue Fire — A flue fire was reported at 3:30 p.m. Saturday at the home of Jay C. Cochran, 63 Bush st., Ashland. There was no damage.

Toastmasters To Meet — Dale Prentice, James Haggerty and Ted McDaniel will speak at a meeting of the Jackson Toastmasters club at 6:30 a.m. Monday at Sambo's.

Guild to Meet — St. Catherine's guild of St. Mark's Episcopal church will meet Monday, May 14, at 8 p.m. in the Guild hall to make final preparations for annual card party to be held Tuesday, May 15, at the church. A few reservations are still open for the party: Mrs. Robert Wilcox, 6 Normandy 4-1427, and Mrs. Don McNeil, Spring 2-2163, are taking reservations.

Roundtable Speaker — Edward B. Jacobson, district manager of the Social Security Administration, will explain aspects of the Social Security program at the Monday noon luncheon of the Chamber of Commerce Round Table. Jacobson has been invited to speak in rebuttal to the remarks of a Roundtable speaker several weeks ago who criticized the Social Security program. The Roundtable meets at North's Chuck Wagon.

Attends Meeting — Lou Cranston, of the Goldy-Cranston-Henselman Agency, Medford, attended an agent's educational meeting in Gearhart, Ore., late last week. The meeting was conducted by the U. S. Fidelity and Guarantee Insurance company.

Meeting Set — The Jackson County Medical Society will hold a combined medical-legal meeting at 7 p.m. Wednesday, May 16, at the Rogue Valley County club. Hosts for the meeting will be Drs. John McLaughlin, Eugene Meyerding, and William J. Miller.

Visit San Francisco — Mr. and Mrs. Osa Waggoner and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wallace, both of Phoenix, spent a recent week end in San Francisco where they visited the Waggoners' son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Arnold.

OBITUARIES

OTTO F. KONSCHOT
Funeral services for Otto F. Kenschot, 76, of 1356 Siskiyou Blvd., Medford, who died Friday, will be held at Perle Funeral home at 10:30 a.m. Monday. The Rev. George Bolster, rector of St. Marks Episcopal church, will officiate. Committal services, by officers of the Masonic lodge, will be at Siskiyou Memorial park.

Mr. Kenschot, the son of Frederick Kenschot and Caroline Williams, was born at Newark, N. J., Oct. 28, 1885. He was self employed as a meat cutter and packer in Kent, Wash., from 1908 to 1930 and in Klamath Falls from 1930 until his retirement in 1945. He moved to Tacoma, Wash., in 1945 and to Medford in 1960.

He was a member of the Episcopal church in Kent, Wash., past master of Verity Masonic Lodge 59, past patron of Valley City Eastern Star Chapter 72, Royal Arch Masons of Kent, Wash., and Hillah Temple Shrine, Ashland. He was a past noble grand of IOOF Lodge in Kent, Wash.

In 1908, in Butte, Mont., he was married to Mina Steinseifer, who survives.

Other survivors include one son, Fred O. Kenschot, Medford; two daughters, Mrs. Ruth C. Palmer, Medford, Mrs. Mildred J. Burke, Klamath Falls; one brother, Ernest Kenschot, Kearney, N. J.; eight grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

Casket bearers will be Harold Pyle, Ivan Harrington, Earl Yoakley, Raymond Ritter, Willard Ward, and Wilbur Arnold.

OBITUARIES

MYLES LESLIE FARMER
Myles Leslie Farmer, 59, of Dorris, Calif., member of a prominent pioneer Ashland family, died Thursday in Klamath Falls. Funeral services will be held in Ashland at 3 p.m. Monday at Litwiler's Mountain View chapel with Rev. Marshall Horn of Dorris officiating. Interment will be in Mountain View cemetery. Farmer was born Dec. 12, 1905. Mr. and Mrs. John W. Farmer have the family home on Tolman Creek rd., Ashland. He spent his boyhood here, graduating from Bellview school and Ashland Senior High school. Following graduation he spent two years in Astoria and a time in Portland, returning to marry Neva Byrd of Ashland on Dec. 12, 1933. The couple was married in Medford and made their home in Ashland for a time before moving to Dorris. He is survived by his widow, Neva; a daughter, Mrs. Betty Cooper, and two grandchildren, Deniece and Bruce of Metairie Falls, Wash.; his father, John W., of Ashland; three sisters, Mrs. Bessie Slogher, Mrs. Amy Curtis and Mrs. Genevieve Byrd, all of Ashland; and six brothers, Earl, Ivan, Harry, Glenn and Daniel, all of Ashland, and Chester of Gresham.

LUCY SIMMONDS
Mrs. Lucy C. Simmonds, route 3, box 192B, Medford, died Friday night at her home. Conger-Morris Funeral directors are in charge of arrangements.

ANNA C. ROBERTS
Funeral services for Mrs. Anna Catherine Roberts, 52, of 2476 Spring st., Medford, who died Thursday, will be held at Perle Funeral home at 1:30 p.m. Monday. The Rev. Clayton G. Crisman, pastor of the Friends church, will officiate. Committal services, by R. J. Ritchey and officers of the Grange, will be in Siskiyou Memorial park.

Mrs. Roberts, the daughter of Henry Hanson and Iva S. Webster, was born May 21, 1909, at Medford.

She was a charter member of the Roxy Ann Grange, a member of the state and national Grange, and a past officer of the Jackson County Pomona Grange. Prior to her illness, she was the chaplain of the Roxy Ann Grange. She served as a state delegate to the national Grange several times.

On Dec. 18, 1930, in Medford, she was married to Roscoe Roberts, who survives.

Floyd Perry Jarman, 74, of Phoenix, died Friday afternoon in a local hospital.

Funeral services will be held at 3 p.m. Monday in Hillcrest Memorial chapel on the North Phoenix rd. The Rev. King K. Jones of the Jacksonville Presbyterian church will officiate. Committal will be in Hillcrest Memorial park, with Conger-Morris Funeral

Limelinters Tickets Still Available

Tickets for the Limelinters, a trio of folk singers and veteran entertainers who have appeared on the Dinah Shore show, the Ed Sullivan show, and in several night clubs in the country, are still available here for their performance at Hedrick Junior High school Monday.

The Limelinters appearance here is sponsored by the Southern Oregon college student body.

According to Duane Jarnigan, Ashland, who heads the ticket committee, the reserve section is nearly filled, but a number of choice seats still remain.

Jarnigan pointed out that tickets would be on sale at the door prior to curtain-time at 8 p.m. Non-college students may obtain special rates by obtaining their tickets in advance at Purucker's Music House, Medford; The Mart, Ashland; the Melody House, Grants Pass; or at the college business office.

Publicity cochairmen, Betty Duffy and Jim Bjork, Ashland, reported that the overall support for the Limelinters' appearance has been accelerating.

SMALLEST HEARING AID IN THE WORLD

The smallest hearing aid in the world, the new Sonotone "WISP-EAR" is worn entirely inside the ear. It weighs under 1/16 of an ounce with battery—light as a nickel, small as a dime. The "WISP-EAR" fits completely inside the ear — no outside cords, tubes or wires. Can help 7 out of 10 persons with hearing losses, including those who "hear but don't understand." You must see it to believe it. Phone, visit or write—
