Blonde Believer in Physical Fitness Maps Swim Program

New York - (UPI) - A pretty, 5-foot-8 blonde, who thinks most Americans aren't physically fit, leaves for Europe in a few weeks on a swimming expedition to top them all.

Mary Margaret Revell, a 24-year-old native of California who now lives in Detroit, hopes that by the end of the summer her name will have made swimming history.

Between the 15th and 20th of this month Miss Revell will leave for Spain where she will attempt to swim the 12-mile-wide Straits of Gibraltar. She then will go to Turkey where she will try to swim the Bosphorus Straits and the Dardanelles.

Later in the year she plans to swim the English Channel roundtrip. But before that she has scheduled a 75-mile swim that may take up to 36 hours from Port Huron, Mich., to Detroit.

Mary Margaret, who weighs in at 135 pounds and measures 36-24-36, has been swimming since she was three years old. But her long distance swims have come only in the past four years. She has made two long distance swims already this year, but they were not too successful.

In January she attempted a 25-mile swim in Lake Meade, Nevada, but had to give up when freezing temperatures and snow paralyzed her face and neck muscles. Just three weeks ago she completed 20 of the 28 miles around Miami Beach, Fla., when she was forced to quit because of an appendicitis attack.

Despite these setbacks, Mary Margaret is confident she will be successful this summer. "I just know I'm going to do it," she said in an interview in New York. "Faith is what really gives me my confidence."

A follower of St. Jude, Miss Revell said "I know I've scheduled a lot and it really frightens me sometimes" but "I have so much faith."

But Mary Margaret also has some strong feelings on physical culture. She doesn't think Americans are taking care of themselves and plans to do all she can to convince them to change their bad habits.

"I feel very strongly about it," she said. "With all this talk going on about physical fitness in this country there is still not enough being done."

Gunnar Reveals Two Decisions

Salem - (UPI) - State Tax Judge Peter Gunnar has announced the first two decisions to be made on cases filed in the small claims division of his one-man court.

The cases were Dorrans vs. State Tax Commission and Perkins vs. State Tax Commission. They involved similar matters and were tried in Pendleton by Gunnar a few weeks ago.

In a ruling that affected both cases, Gunnar said that class B common stock of Pendleton Grain Growers is not taxable in the year of receipt by the taxpayers. He added, however, that some 15-year notes held by the grain growers cooperative are taxable at full face value in the year of receipt.

The dispute arose out of the distribution by the coop of class B stock and 15-year notes to members.

The coop members contended that the stock was not taxable and that the notes were taxable only on a discount basis. The Tax Commission held that both were taxable at full face value.

Tax court decisions can be appealed to the State Supreme Court.

MERGER APPROVED

Portland - (UPI) - Stockholders of Iron Firemen Manufacturing Co., Portland, and Electronic Specialty Co., Los Angeles, approved a merger of the two firms Tuesday.
