

Mothers Announce Scholarships

Oregon State University Mothers' club has announced that 16 tuition scholarships will be given for the 1962-63 school year. This news was brought back by Mrs. H. Chandler Drew, Medford, and Mrs. R. G. Tabor, Ashland, after attending a meeting of the executive board of the club held in Corvallis.

Among the 16 winners are Miss Patricia Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thompson, Ashland, and Miss Mimi Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jones, Route 1, Box 356, Talent. Miss Thompson is a junior in education and Miss Jones is a junior in home economics. Miss Jones will leave June 22 for Honolulu, Hawaii, where she will be assistant water front director for a Girl Scout camp during the summer.

Speaker of the executive board meeting was President James Jensen of OSU. He spoke of the need of changing traditions in order to meet present-day needs of the school. He also stated that there is a need for more students to work towards teaching on the higher levels since there are inadequate resources to staff colleges.

The club voted in favor of combining the traditional Dads' and Mothers' week ends into a Parents' week end at the university.

Officers of the OSU Mothers' club for the coming year are Mrs. Joseph K. Roe, Corvallis, president; Mrs. R. A. Calkins, Portland, vice president; Mrs. Melvin Johnson, Salem, secretary; Mrs. Frank Graham, Jasper, treasurer.

McLoughlin PTA Meeting Slated

Student skills will be featured at the regular meeting of the McLoughlin Parent-Teacher association, Thursday, May 17 at 7:30 p.m. The meeting will be held in the boys' gymnasium at the school.

Displays from the arts and crafts, woodworking shop, science, and geography classes will be set up at the rear of the room. Girls of Miss Ruth Osborn's sewing classes will demonstrate articles they have made in a style show. Refreshments, to be served in the cafeteria after the meeting, will be prepared and served by members of the homemaking classes under the direction of Mrs. Mary McKenna.

Preceding the program a brief business meeting will be held, and officers for the 1962-63 year will be installed. New officers are president, Mrs. William G. Travis; vice-president, Mrs. Walter Olson; secretary, Arthur Iverson; and treasurer, Mrs. Louise Davis. Installing officer will be Mrs. William Siebert.

Social Events ♦ Women's News

Legion Auxiliary In Jacksonville Elects Officers

Jacksonville - Mrs. Alfred Hanenkrat was elected president of the auxiliary to Centennial Post 100, American Legion, at elections held Friday evening in the Community hall.

Mrs. Florence Whitely was elected first vice president and Mrs. Paul Bulkin, second vice president. Mrs. Lind McBeth, the retiring president, was elected secretary. Miss Twyla Hanenkrat, treasurer; Mrs. Charles P. McBeth, chaplain; Mrs. Russell Berriman, historian; and Mrs. Robert J. Bohl, sergeant at arms.

Installations will be held with the post at joint ceremonies with the Medford Post and auxiliary in the Medford American Legion hall on Saturday, May 26 at 8 p.m.

A no host dinner will precede the installations at 7 p.m. in North's Chuck Vagon restaurant in Medford. Reservations for the dinner should be made with Mrs. Lind McBeth before that date.

Plans for the department convention to be held in Seaside June 21 through 25 were discussed at the meeting and will be completed at the next meeting on Friday, May 25.

PTA Holds Installation

Applegate Valley - William Barker was installed president of the Applegate Valley PTA at their final meeting this month which included the annual potluck dinner. Mrs. Lewis Buckley was installed as vice president; Mrs. Ernest Stalun, secretary; and Mrs. Gary Conrad, treasurer. Mrs. Glen Travis, past president was installing officer. Mrs. Travis also is the new president of McLoughlin Junior High PTA, and is past vice president of McLoughlin and of the Jackson County Council of Parent-Teacher associations.

Mrs. Arthur Goss received a pin as retiring chairman at Ruch.

The Ruch unit netted $103 from the talent show held recently, which is being used for band instruments and capes. PTA mothers have just completed making 30 band capes in the school colors of blue and gold. Mrs. Rupert F. Maddox was chairman of the project with Mrs. Goss as co-chairman. A rummage sale will be the final activity of the group this school term.

Returns

Hornbrook - Miss Marlene Dringman returned to her home in Ft. Jones, Calif., last week after spending several weeks here with her grandmother, Mrs. Tony Shelley and Mr. Shelley. She attended the local elementary school while here.

Mrs. Sam L. MacCorkle (center) left Medford Junior Service league gave at Monday for her home in Charleston, W. Va. Rogue Valley Country club recently after a brief visit in Medford with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert S. Cummings, hard-of-hearing children. The starlight 2447 Hillcrest road. Mrs. MacCorkle is shown with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wimberly white in a Peppermint lounge theme.

Happy Camp PTA Holds Installation

Happy Camp - Officers for the coming year of the Happy Camp Parent-Teacher association were installed at the last regular meeting of the year held last week.

Coming from Yreka to install the officers was Mrs. Edna Barr, district parliamentarian and state homemaking chairman, who gave a brief speech on the aims of the PTA and accomplishments of the national organization.

Installed president was Mrs. LaVonne Walters. Others installed were Mrs. Albert Attebery, secretary; Mrs. Dave Titus, treasurer; Mrs. Robert Edmunds, historian; and Mrs. H. C. Fleming, auditor. Not at the meeting was Mrs. George Chambers who has been elected vice president.

Mrs. Lloyd Westby, retiring president after two years, was presented a past president's pin by Mrs. Barr. Mrs. Walters was presented the president's pin also by Mrs. Barr.

In other business, a letter was read from Fire Chief Frank Looten, thanking the PTA for a donation to the Leon Higley fund in lieu of flowers for the Higley funeral. According to Mr. Looten, two asbestos fire suits were purchased through the donations of the Happy Camp people to the fund.

It was voted to set up a committee of three persons to head the well baby clinic.

The grand prize of the flower show was awarded to Bonnie Simmonds. Making the award was Mrs. C. E. Polkowski, one of the judges. The other two judges for the event were Mrs. Clinton Norcross of Happy Camp, and Mrs. Fred Krupp of Klamath river. The judges spent the entire afternoon preceding the meeting, selecting first, second, third, fourth and honorable mention prizes in each of the classes of the elementary school.

All first prizes were on display in the auditorium for the meeting, with the grand prize selected from these first prizes.

In the way of announcements the high school principal, James Foote announced the following activities, May 15, annual Arion Award concert, and also, May 15, Baseball game, Yreka versus Happy Camp here, last home game of the season. Mr. Foote also thanked the PTA for the $200 donation toward the purchase of the bleachers for the Athletic field. Mr. Foote also announced that the next immunization clinic will be held here May 24 at 1 p.m. Another clinic will probably be held in October, he said, for those needing the third polio shot. Graduation exercises will be held June 6 at

Guests Attend Session of Club

Guests at last Wednesday's meeting of the Townsend club were Mrs. Maude Lynch of Boise, Ida, and Mrs. Edna Evans, Medford, who were brought by Mrs. Eva Wright, Ashland, Mrs. John Backes brought her daughter-in-law, Mrs. James Backes.

Three Democratic candidates spoke to the group. Charles Cray, candidate for state representative; K. C. Wernmark, candidate for county judge, and W. E. Morrison, a write-in candidate for state senator. All became members of the group.

Money derived from dances sponsored by the club will be divided equally with all delegates who will attend the national convention of Townsend clubs, it was announced. Another dance will be sponsored by the club on May 25.

Traditional Tea Held in Ashland

Ashland - More than 60 mothers, grandmothers and daughters mingled as guests and hostesses Saturday afternoon in Trinity parish hall when Chapter AC, PEO Sisterhood, observed Mother's day.

In charge of the program was the chapter president, Miss Florence Allen. Co-chairmen were Mrs. Marcus Woods and Mrs. Herbert Lewis.

Mrs. Glenn Taylor, a member, and her husband presented a group of four piano and violin selections appropriate to the day's theme. Miss Trudee Lewis gave a reading dedicated to mothers and Miss Carol Bjork concluded the program with an original dissertation in defense of the tall girl. Miss Lewis and Miss Bjork are high school forensic team members.

Several group games and contests were played before refreshments were served at small tables marked by individual flower corsages. The room was decorated with tall baskets and vases of deep lavender lilacs and white spirea.

The annual Mother's day tea is an Ashland traditional social event dating almost to the chartering of Chapter AC in 1923.

Class awards for most parents in attendance were awarded to Mr. Schaefer's eighth grade, and Mrs. Fitzer's third grade, for the elementary school; and the freshman class of the high school.

The meeting was adjourned to the open house at the Elementary school in observance of Public Schools week.

Pictures Selected

At the last meeting of Southern Oregon Society of Artists, Mrs. Mark Young, artist of Hill, Calif., selected paintings to be exhibited at the Public Library of Medford and Jackson County during May and June.

Mrs. Young gave helpful criticism of the paintings which were selected. The artist is currently exhibiting her own paintings at Frames, etc., Ashland.

Guests introduced at the meeting were Mrs. Henry Dittmann, Mrs. Raymond Vandervalle, Mrs. Henrietta Oliver, Mrs. Kathryn Christenson, Mrs. Dorothy Green, Mr. William Coghill and Mr. Emil Knutson.

Paintings on exhibit at the public library are by Mrs. Barbara Moser and Mrs. Viola Morre, Gold Hill; Mrs. Elizabeth Sheffield, Rogue River; Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson, Central Point; Mrs. Nettie Williams and Mrs. Joan Beyer, Medford.

Paintings by Mrs. Grace Kurz are on exhibit at the Medford Municipal Airport during May.

Calendar

Wednesday
7 p.m. - Veterans of World War I, Barracks 540 and auxiliary, Girls Community club.
8 p.m. - Rogue Valley Alumnae chapter, Delta Gamma sorority, Mrs. George Hammond, Rogue Valley Manor.

Thursday
9:30 a.m. - Jacksonville Garden club, Community club room.

10 a.m. - Wenonah club, Weatonka council, Degree of Pocahontas, Athanas home, 840 B st., Ashland.

10:30 a.m. - Lone Pine Extension unit, Mrs. Leroy Glass, 2424 Obispo dr.

12 noon - Rogue Valley Council on Aging, no host luncheon, Jackson House.

1 p.m. - Blue Star Mothers club, Santo hall.

1:30 p.m. - WCTU, Fire-place room, First Presbyterian church.

Coming Events Are Announced For Gold Hill

Gold Hill - Coming events in Gold Hill were announced during the last meeting of the Woman's Society of Gold Hill Community Methodist church.

Men of the church, with the assistance of the Woman's society, will help pay the balance due on lots recently purchased by the church with proceeds raised by a spaghetti supper to be given at the Patrick Elementary school multipurpose room Saturday, May 19 from 5 until 8 p.m. Donald Meister is chairman.

A coffee hour is planned May 27 to honor members of the church choir following the worship hour. At the coffee hour the secret pals of choir members will be revealed and WSCS members will escort their secret choir pal to the refreshment table. The choir will recess for the summer after that date.

It was announced that the Rev. E. J. Aschenbrenner, superintendent of the Eugene district, will attend the fourth quarterly conference and church conference at the Gold Hill Community Methodist church Monday, May 21 at 7:30 p.m. All members and friends of the church, and other interested persons are asked to attend.

The Rev. David Carter, director of Wesley Foundation, has reminded the group that members are to serve luncheon at the Wesley Foundation on Wednesday, May 16 at Southern Oregon college, Ashland. Mrs. Lawrence Smith and Mrs. Melvin Burnett will take charge.

Mrs. Thomas Z. Smith reported on the sub-district seminar that she and other WSCS members attended recently. Besides Mrs. Smith those attending were Mrs. E. C. Hoffman, Mrs. Blanche Merriman and Mrs. Roy Bornoman.

Those attending the May Fellowship luncheon at First Methodist church in Medford were Mrs. Hoffman, Mrs. Merriman, Mrs. Ivan Smith, Mrs. Thomas Z. Smith, Mrs. Cassie Johnson, Mrs. Millie Walker and Mrs. J. G. Kofahl.

Mrs. S. M. Christensen reported on two recent fund raising events. Proceeds will go to the improvement fund. It was reported by Mrs. Ferd Jones that several boxes of used greeting cards, scraps of ribbon, wrapping paper and magazines with colorful pictures had been sent to the Fairview Home in Salem. She urged members of the group to continue contributing such items for this purpose.

Mrs. Ivan Smith was in charge of the program and worship entitled "Rich Toward God" for the May meeting of the group. This included the annual pledge service at which time members indicated the amount each intends to give toward the total Woman's Society budget. Mrs. George Dorman and Mrs. Cassie Johnson served refreshments.

On Campus

Ashland - Mr. and Mrs. David Lindsay, 1480 Webster street, were among parents of students who spent Parents Week end, May 4-6, on the campus of Lewis and Clark college in Portland. Their son Thomas is a freshman majoring in pre-dentistry.

In Ashland

Ashland - Mr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Williamson, Albany, Ore., spent the week end in Ashland with Mr. and Mrs. Ben Willard, 110 Church street. Mrs. Williamson and Mr. Willard are cousins.

Guests

Applegate Valley - Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Holm, Raymond, Wash., were recent guests of his aunt, Mrs. Willis Scott. Mr. Holm is mayor of Raymond.

MONTGOMERY WARD 117 S. CENTRAL PHONE SP 3-7301

SEE WARDS BIG NEW JUST-ARRIVED SELECTION May dress pageant

famous Crisp-lyne daytime dresses

MISSSES AND HALF SIZES AT ONE AMAZING LOW PRICE

The exclusive Crisp-lyne hangtag assures excellent fit and tailoring in easy-care fabrics. Hurry to Wards and see them now. Here are 3 typical beauties:

- A. Arnel triacetate and cotton check sundress
- B. Dan River cool woven cotton stripe sundress
- C. Dan River woven cotton plaid, great pockets

3⁹⁸

ENTER WARDS "NAME-THE-BRAND" SEA LURE SWIMSUIT CONTEST

You can win a 7-day trip via Pan American Jet Clipper® to the CARLTON BEACH HOTEL in Bermuda if you live east of the Mississippi... or to Sheraton's ROYAL HAWAIIAN HOTEL in Hawaii if you live west of the MISSISSIPPI. Ask for details in Wards Misses' Sportswear Dept.

LUCKY WINNER OF OUR $50 WARDROBE CONTEST: MRS. BILL FREEMAN 17 Perrydale-Medford

LUCKY WINNER OF OUR WARD WEEK WISHING WELL CONTEST: MR. F. V. BROWN Rte. 2, Box 61-Jacksonville His Wish: Naugahyde Sofa and Chair

A County Commissioner Should Have ...

ECONOMY

MEL LATTIE knows the value of a dollar and what it should buy.

EXPERIENCE

MEL LATTIE has had 18 years experience in successful businesses in the Rogue River Valley.

INTEGRITY

MEL LATTIE is a man you can trust, with the affairs of the county and know they are in safe, experienced hands.

Vote MEL LATTIE COUNTY COMMISSIONER May 18th

Pd. Ad. Lattie for Commissioner Comm. Dick Gray, Chmn., RFD-3, Medford

Steinfeld's WESTERN ACRES MILD-FLAVORED KRAUT Delicious PICKLES

YOU CAN BUY Three Jays MILK

AT ANY OF THE FOLLOWING MARKETS:

MEDFORD -

BIG "Y" - North Pacific Highway GROCERIA - 200 West 6th Street OAKDALE - 401 South Oakdale WOODLAND HEIGHTS - 1501 Prune Street 24 FLAVORS - 1105 West Main Street CHUCK'S MARKET - 838 West McAndrews Rd. GRANDVIEW - 2330 Crater Lake Ave. EASTSIDE - 608 East Main Street KIMMY'S KORNER - 630 Crater Lake Ave. O.K. MARKET - 1202 North Riverside OREGON FOOD STORE - 523 So. Central ONLY B. and H. - 827 North Central ELK CITY MARKET - Opp. Elk Lbr., Highway 99

CENTRAL POINT JACKSONVILLE FABER'S - 350 E. Pine THRIFT MARKET PAULSEN'S - 126 E. Pine JACKSONVILLE MARKET

GOLD HILL COGSWELL'S MARKET GAIL'S MARKET VAN HORN MARKET

AT THE RANCH - Highway 99 No., Opp. Gold Hill