Ducks Clip Idaho 11-4

Moscow, Idaho —UP— The Oregon Ducks combined 13 hits and five errors for an 11-4 win over the Idaho Vandals in a Northern Division baseball game here Wednesday.

Sandy Nosler, Dave Moore and Eric Hardin each drove in three runs for Oregon. Nosler collected a triple, double and a single. Moore smashed a two-run homer in the seventh inning.

Bob Christiansen collected the win for the Ducks although he needed relief in the eighth inning by Robbie Snow. Lee Townsend was the losing pitcher.

The win left Oregon with a 5-3 record in the division. The teams were scheduled to play here again today.

188, Doris Price 185, Jeanne Luther 184.

NEW YORK JOCKEY
New York —UP— Jaipur, a top contender for Saturday's Preakness at Pimlico, will be ridden by Bobby Ussery in the 13/16-mile second leg of the Triple Crown. Ussery replaces Willie Shoemaker, who had a previous commitment aboard Cleida in the Acorn Stakes at Aqueduct.

FROSH WIN 25-0
Eugene —UP— The score was 25 to 0 but it was a baseball game, not a spring football game. The Oregon Frosh won 19 hits and walked 19 in the Eugene High school by that score Tuesday.

Minnie Minoso Out of Danger

St. Louis —UP— Injured St. Louis Cardinal outfielder Minnie Minoso was reported out of danger Wednesday and expected back in the lineup in six weeks.

The 39-year-old Cuban suffered a fractured skull and a broken right wrist last Friday night when he ran into the left field wall during a game with the Los Angeles Dodgers. Minoso was in pursuit of Duke Snider's line triple when the accident occurred.

Omaha Dodgers Close In on Indianapolis

United Press International
The Omaha Dodgers moved to within 11 percentage points of first place in the American association last night when they rapped out a 5-1 victory over league-leading Indianapolis.

A ninth-inning rally gave Oklahoma City a 9-8 win over Denver.

In a battle to stay out of the league basement, Louisville beat Dallas-Fort Worth, 8-2.

BOWL PACT CHANCE

Lafayette, Ind. —UP— The chance for a new Rose Bowl agreement between the Big Ten and the Pacific Coast was rated good today after the subject became a late addition to the agenda for the Big Ten's spring meeting.

GETS NEW JOCKEY

Cepeda Supplies Big Blow for SF

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

They say in the dugouts around the National league that the San Francisco Giants scare you with Willie Mays and beat you with Orlando Cepeda.

It's no criticism of Willie the Wonder — at 31 the most exciting player in the majors — just the ultimate tribute to the prowess of the game-winning bat swung by the 24-year-old, 210-pound Cepeda.

This is Cepeda's fifth season in the big time — and it looks like it'll be by all odds his best. He's batting at a .336 clip, has hit 10 homers and leads the NL with 38 runs batted in. At that pace he'll surpass his 1961 figures of .311, 46 and 142 in those departments by a wide margin.

Cepeda supplied the crushing blow for the Giants again Wednesday when his three-run homer climaxed a five-run seventh-inning rally as San Francisco whipped the St. Louis Cardinals, 7-2. The win extended the Giants' latest winning surge to four straight games during which they have outscored their rivals, 31-7.

Marichal Wins Seventh
Juan Marichal yielded nine hits and five walks, but was helped by three double plays in winning his seventh game for the Giants. One of the hits off him was a single by Stan Musial that tied the Cardinal all-time great with Hans Wagner's NL record of 3-430 lifetime hits.

The Los Angeles Dodgers remained four games behind the Giants with a 5-2 victory over the Houston Colts; the Cincinnati Reds downed the Philadelphia Phillies, 6-5; the New York Mets edged the Chicago Cubs, 6-5, in 11 innings, and the Pittsburgh Pirates shut out the Milwaukee Braves, 6-0, in other NL games.

In the American league, the Cleveland Indians retained first place by defeating the Kansas City A's, 10-9; the New York Yankees outslugged the Boston Red Sox, 9-8; the Minnesota Twins topped the Detroit Tigers, 8-4; the Los Angeles Angels beat the Baltimore Orioles, 3-1, and the Washington Senators shaded the Chicago White Sox, 3-1.

Steal Five Bases
The Dodgers collected only six hits but stole five bases as Joe Moeller won his second game. Shortstop Maury Wills and Willie Davis stole two bases each with Wills running his season total to 18.

Vada Pinson's ninth-inning double snapped a 5-5 tie and gave the Reds their sixth straight win after the Phillies tied the score in the eighth on Roy Sievers' first NL homer. Jim Brosnan went the last three innings to win his first game of the year for Cincinnati.

Felix Mantilla's 11th-inning double single gave the Mets their second extra-inning win over the Cubs in as many days. Johnny De Merit and Gil Hodges homered for the Mets, who have won six of their last eight games, while Ernie Banks hit No. 9 for the Cubs.

Al McBean and Diomedes Olivo combined in a five-hitter for the Pirates who routed Bob Hendley in 3-2-3 innings. Smokey Burgess and Dick Stuart hit homers and Bill Virdon had two triples and McBean one as the Pirates made eight of their 11 hits good for extra bases.

Romano's Blast Wins
Johnny Romano's two-run homer in the last of the ninth won for Cleveland after the A's took a 9-8 lead in the top of the frame. Willie Kirkland and Chuck Essegian also homered during a game in which eight pitchers issued a total of 16 walks and allowed 17 hits.

Clete Boyer's tie-breaking double capped a three-run ninth-inning outburst that brought the Yankees their win over the Red Sox, Bill Skowron, Frank Malzone and Carl Yastrzemski homered during the three-hour and 16-minute slugfest.

Vic Power drove in three runs with three singles and pitcher Camilo Pascual contributed two run-scoring singles for the Twins, who broke a 2-2 tie with two runs in the fourth inning. Jim Bunning, clipped for six runs in five innings, suffered his second loss.

Leon Wagner and Lee Thomas hit homers for the Angels as Ken McBride picked up his second win with the ninth-inning relief aid of Jack Spring and Ryne Duren.

Rookie Dave Stenhouse pitched a four-hitter for the Senators, Early Wynn, seeking the 295th win of his big league career, suffered his second defeat of the season.

Savage Rapids Section Salmon Angling Better

Portland —UP— Here is the weekly fishing outlook, prepared by the Oregon state game commission:

Southwest — Trout angling good in Loon, Tenmile, Empire, Squaw and other south coastal lakes. Lakes in Rogue river drainage also producing. Salmon fishing good at Galice on Rogue and improving in Savage Rapids section. Action slow to fair in Lower Rogue and over Coos Bay bar.

Central — Deschutes river good at Maupin and fair above Bend. Crane Prairie and Wickiup good for kokanee on troll, Suttle Lake fair. Blue Lake good for rainbow. Little Deschutes good for planted rainbows. Metolius and Fall Rivers fair. Prineville and Ochoco Reservoir good on troll.

Boston —UP— Home run king Roger Maris was expected back in action today after suffering a muscle pull that sidelined him in the midst of Wednesday night's 9-8 New York Yankee win over Boston.

HOT SPRINGS OPENS

Hot Springs, Ark. —UP— The $20,000 Hot Springs Open got underway today amid predictions that defending champ Doug Sanders would have to do better this year than last to stay on top. Sanders, who last year finished 15 strokes under par at 273, faced 94 other hopefuls on a course that Professional Golf Association officials said was in excellent condition.
