

Large Delegation At PTA Convention

A large delegation of Jackson County PTA association officers and members are in Portland today to attend opening sessions of the 66th annual National Congress of Parents and Teachers being held in the Portland Public Auditorium. The meetings will continue through May 23.

The group is headed by Mrs. Chester Keene Jr., of Lone Pine school, president of the Jackson County Council of Parent-Teacher associations, with Mrs. Leigh Gustison, Medford, past president of the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Election of officers is on the agenda for Tuesday. The Jackson county voting delegates are Mrs. Glen Stewart, secretary of Jackson county council, from Lincoln school; Mrs. Donald DeHaven, Eagle Point, treasurer; Mrs. Ronald Keesling, Phoenix-Talent, first vice president, and Mrs. Keene, president. Most of Jackson county's 35 PTA units will be represented, at least by one delegate.

Mrs. M. O. Grove, Phoenix-Talent, health chairman for the Oregon Congress, is in charge of first aid facilities at the national meeting. She also is health chairman for the council and Phoenix-Talent PTA.

Mrs. Clifford N. Jenkins of Roslyn Heights, N.Y., retiring president, will preside for the meetings. Registrations are being held today and tomorrow. An organ recital and vespers service is scheduled for today at 3:45 p.m., in the Portland First Presbyterian church, when Dr. Gerald Wallace, superintendent of Corvallis Public schools, also will speak.

Mrs. Jennelle Moorhead, a past president of the Oregon Congress and first vice-president of the National Congress, is a member of the nominating committee. Four national officers are to be elected.

"New Adventures in PTA Leadership and Responsibility," is theme of the meeting. Mrs. Jenkins will give the keynote address to be followed by a commentary by Harry and Bonaro Overstreet, noted adult educators and co-authors of "What We Must Know About Communism and The War Called Peace."

Other main addresses will be given by such outstanding speakers as Dr. Andrew Holt, president, University of Tennessee; Dr. I. James Quillen, dean, School of Education, Stanford University; and Charles Vetter, junior training division of the United States information agency.

The underlying structure of the convention will be determined by the focal elements of the current Action program.

This is the first national convention of the group in Portland since 1915.

Installation Is Slated by Unit

Hillcrest Extension unit officers will be installed at a luncheon meeting of the group set for Wednesday, May 23 at 10:30 a.m., in the home of Mrs. Frank Grover, Route 3, Box 169-B-3, Cherry lane. Mrs. Warren Kelsoe will conduct installations, and also give a resume of a recent council meeting held at Corvallis.

The lesson, "Accessories in the Home," will be given by Mrs. Claude Dean and Mrs. Frank Grover.

A covered dish luncheon will be served and members should call Mrs. Richard Sturgill, 773-3563 in regard to the menu.

To Meet

The Past Chiefs club of the Pythian Sisters plans to meet for a potluck luncheon and business meeting to be followed by a social hour Tuesday, May 22 at 1 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Emily Conrad, 632 Palm street.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Robin

Cave Junction Scene Of Robin-Hoover Rites

Illinois Valley - Miss Arlene Hoover and Michael Robin were wed May 5 in the Immanuel Methodist church in Cave Junction. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. John McMurtrey.

The bride is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chad Hoover, Kerby, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Robin.

The bride's gown was of white net over satin designed with a matching lace jacket. She carried white carnations on a white Bible.

Miss Arlene Hoover, sister of the bride, and Miss Delecia Robin, sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. Their pink gowns were full skirted and they wore floral head pieces to match their gowns. Their corsages were of white carnations.

Mrs. William Burch furnished the wedding music. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hoover wore a beige dress and the bridegroom's mother was dressed in black.

Serving at the wedding reception were Miss Janice Weyhe, Miss Elizabeth Weyhe, Mrs. William Carter and Mrs. Ron Prather.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Iva Hoover of Ukiah, Calif., and Mrs. Delecia Nystrom of Potter Valley, Calif. The bride is a student of the Shasta Cosmetology college at Redding, Calif., and the bridegroom is serving with the Navy. They made their wedding trip to Memphis, Tenn., where the bridegroom reported for duty on May 18.

Prior to the wedding the bride-elect was honored at a shower given at the Cave Junction Community church by Mrs. Birdell Smith, Miss Delia Robin and Miss Elizabeth Meyhe. About 30 guests attended.

Music, Installation On Hoover Pta Program

Band and orchestra music was on the program for the final meeting of the year of Hoover Parent-Teacher association, held Thursday, May 10, in the school gymnasium.

The program was planned to demonstrate the progression of band and orchestra training from grade school through junior high and high school. The orchestra, under the direction of John Drysdale as a whole group and as ensembles. Stringed ensembles from Hedrick Junior High school and Medford High also played.

The band, under the direction of Ron Bartlett, also furnished music as a whole group and in ensemble groups. "The Hungry Five," a seventh grade German band, group from Hedrick school, played with the Hoover school band and later entertained with selections of typical German band music. Several members of the band are former Hoover students.

A business meeting, conducted by Mrs. John Stong, association president, followed the program. Mrs. A. J. Johansson, a past president, installed the new officers for the coming year.

They are Mrs. T. P. Baras, president; Mrs. R. W. Seeler, vice-president; Miss Laura Honts, secretary, and Mrs. William Cox, reelected treasurer.

The flag ceremony was led by Girl Scout Troop 13 led by Mrs. Norton Smith. Mrs. Brostad's third grade room won the room count, and hostesses for the evening were mothers of fifth grade pupils.
