Klamath Coldest Place in Nation

Oregon's winter-like spring has gained national honors of a sort - for the third time in little more than a week. Klamath Falls recorded the lowest official temperature in the nation this morning - 24. Last week Redmond had the lowest temperature two times. Redmond's temperature early today was 29, Medford recorded 35 and Newport had 67. Brookings, which went up to 62 Sunday afternoon, dropped to 41 at night. The weather forecast for tonight calls for more of the same, with a possible 30 or lower in Eastern Oregon at Klamath Falls and about 4 degrees higher in Redmond. During the week end snow made chains necessary in Willamette Pass.

Varsity distinguished foreign films TUESDAY - WEDNESDAY - THURSDAY "CURTAIN AT EIGHT-THIRTY" HERE'S THE TRUTH ABOUT "THE MARK" Because "THE MARK" deals with themes that are, to say the least, touchy, we were a little reluctant to discuss it frankly. We were more than hesitant to tell the story in our advertisements for fear of being accused of "sensationalism." And so we thought in vague general terms about the picture and its high quality. We want to be truthful and fair to this uncommon film. The words are blunt and dramatic. And they're words you don't have to be a psychiatrist to understand.

State Police Check Accidents During Week End

State police reported three non-injury accidents occurred Saturday and Sunday on Highway 99. Cars driven by Vernon Caldwell, 43, Central Point, and Terry Darwin Moehle, 21, Gold Hill, collided on the Old Stage rd, near Gold Hill Saturday afternoon, state police said.

The Caldwell turned in front of the Moehle vehicle forcing it into a large signpost, police said. Extensive damage resulted to both cars. Caldwell was lodged in the county jail on charges of being drunk on a public highway.

The second accident occurred Sunday on Highway 99 near the state police office. A car driven by Kenneth Lewis Cardin, 45, Prospect, slowed to make a left turn and was hit from behind by a car driven by Harry Clair Hewitt, 57, of 2347 Howard ave., Medford.
