

Koufax Fans 10 Giants As Dodgers Thump SF, 8-1

By JOE SARGIS
UPI Sports Writer
Manager Walt Alston of the Los Angeles Dodgers keeps insisting Sandy Koufax could be the best pitcher in the major leagues, and the Brooklyn-born strikeout king couldn't have picked a better time to make his boss look good.

Koufax, who led the majors with 269 strikeouts last season, fanned 10 San Francisco batters Monday night to run his 1962 total to 82 while pitching the Dodgers to an 8-1 victory over the Giants.

Ends Losing Streak
The victory snapped a three-game Los Angeles losing streak and kept the Dodgers 14 percentage points behind the Cardinals, with whom they are virtually tied for second place. The Cards beat the Philadelphia Phillies, 4-1, and now are 3 1/2 games behind the Giants—the same margin by which the Dodgers trail San Francisco.

Orlando Cepeda spoiled Koufax's shutout when he hit his 12th home run of the season in the seventh inning for San Francisco's only run. Tommy Davis provided Sandy with all the batting help he needed with a two-run homer in the fourth and later hit two doubles. Billy O'Dell, the first of three Giants pitchers, was the loser.

The Houston Colts nipped the New York Mets, 3-2, and the Pittsburgh Pirates whipped the Chicago Cubs, 8-4, in other NL games. The Cincinnati at Milwaukee game was postponed because of rain.

Bachelor Butte Mardi Gras Set

Bend—Five days of fun and frolic are on tap for ski buffs later this month at Bachelor Butte, as the famed Central Oregon ski resort celebrates its annual Mardi Gras week end May 26-30, according to a report from the scene.

Joe Morgan, Bachelor Butte manager, said the season-ending fling on 12 feet of fine powder snow is planned to be the best ever with Wednesday, May 30, marked as Mardi Gras costume day. On this day, skiers are invited to come in costumes for their final dashes down the challenging Mt. Bachelor slopes.

Morgan said prizes will be awarded to visitors with the most novel attire. All lifts, including the new Riblet double-chair, will be operating full time through the entire week end, he reported.

Two facilities include a new 4,200-foot Riblet double-chair lift that deposits the skier well above timberline, a 9,600-foot Poma lift with a T-bar and two rope tows providing lower transportation.

Over 50 motels and hotels in the immediate Bend area provide accommodations for the long week end. Special rates are available to ski parties. Many fine restaurants open at near dawn to cater to early rising skiers.

Oregon State already has won the title. Christiansen fanned eight and smacked out two hits himself. Sandy Nosler had a triple for the Ducks.

The two teams were to meet again today. Oregon 100 100 201-3 Washington 000 000 000-0 Christiansen and Jensen; C. Thompson and S. Thompson.
