

Willamette Coach Tells Qualities of Intelligent Athlete at Eagle Banquet

Eagle Point — John Lewis, Willamette university director of athletics, stressed the importance of students keeping up their grades and discussing the qualities of an intelligent athlete, in a talk here last night.

He was the principal speaker at the Eagle Point high school athletic banquet. Lewis brought out the need of getting good grades to get into colleges in Oregon. He stated that screening of prospective students now is the trend. He told the honored high school boys and girls, "You've got to think about your future before it arrives."

The intelligent athlete, Lewis pointed out, is not necessarily the one who gets good grades. He is, however, one who works on his weaknesses, who works on special techniques he'll use in games and who devises means to overcome his disadvantages. Lewis said, "The athletic director, who is also Bearcat basketball and baseball coach, stated further that the intelligent athlete is one who can adjust to situations, one who can help his team by spotting weaknesses in an opponent and one who never lets himself get completely out of condition."

More For Yourself
"Do a little more for yourself in working on your weaknesses," Lewis advised. Lewis said that he hoped that the banquet would continue to be held every year even if there are no trophies to display. "The kids who play on a loser have it tough," he remarked.

Honored at the dinner in the grade school gymnasium were football, basketball and baseball players and trackmen, the pep band, the majorettes, the pep club. Pep club members served the banquet which was sponsored by community organizations of Eagle Point and Shady Cove. Among those attending in addition to the students were school teachers and administrators of the district, parents of the boys and girls and other residents of the district.

Each of the varsity coaches introduced his players and told of the special awards which had been bestowed. Steve Geren, student body president, who in getting his track award, received the 11th varsity letter of his high school career, discussed what an athlete gains from athletics. Dick Wilson, lettermen's club president, presented pins to the coaches and awarded an Eagle Point letter to Don Hanlin, KMED-TV and radio sports announcer, who was master of ceremonies.

Recognition was accorded by the pep band and majorettes by Charles Martin, director, and the rally squads and pep club by Mrs. Dale Bates, advisor.

Invocation and benediction were given by the Rev. Warren Christensen, pastor of Eagle Point Community church.

Baseball Coach Kenneth Vannice announced the 1962 letter winners and along with the special awards Gary Clement, who compiled a .347 batting average was the most valuable player and leading hitter. Roger Bartlett was the most improved player.

Captain Lew Whipple of Coach Vern Steward's track squad was named the most valuable and most improved man. He will defend his state A-2 high school co-championship in the high jump this week end. Bill Miller, who has moved from the community, was designated the best sophomore. Bob Colpitts and Mike House the best freshmen and Mike Stover the most improved freshman. Darrel Stock, like Whipple, was recognized for his district title. He will contend in the state meet in the discuss.

Steward, who awarded letters, pointed to overall squad improvement this season.

Steward is also head football mentor. In introducing his gridgers, he termed them "the finest group of boys I've worked with" and declared also that "outstanding leadership was the key."

Honors noted for the gridgers included Steve Geren, most outstanding senior, all-state, Shrine game selection, best back and most valuable player; Dale Chamberlain, most inspirational and most tackles, and Charles Pomeroy, best lineman. Pomeroy will be 1962 football captain.

A sizeable number of honors were listed among Geren, Wilson, Pomeroy and Whipple who were on Coach Dale Bates' Eagle varsity basketball team which had a spectacular 22-1 regular season and gained A-2 No. 1 rating in the state.

Geren, season end choice as captain of Eagle Point's

board in the high school gymnasium. Musical entertainment was provided by the Ford Brothers, by Diane Putman and Don Carnes and by Carol and Jim Lane.

Whatever Athlete Wants
Geren, in his talk declared that athletics "means whatever the individual athlete wants it to mean." He brought out that in athletics personal desires are put behind for the good of the team or a team effort is needed to win.

He declared that in athletics "you learn to accept defeat but never learn to like it." Geren pointed to the sense of accomplishment which can be gained in sports and to the development of the competitive spirit and will to win which are important to life. He spoke also of the experience of meeting people from all over the state.

The young athlete expressed thanks of the players to their parents, to school faculty members and especially to the coaches.

Wilson further praised the coaches. He had awards also for Spike Malloroy, bus driver for team trips, and to Ray Palm, for the track record

board in the high school gymnasium. Musical entertainment was provided by the Ford Brothers, by Diane Putman and Don Carnes and by Carol and Jim Lane.

Whatever Athlete Wants
Geren, in his talk declared that athletics "means whatever the individual athlete wants it to mean." He brought out that in athletics personal desires are put behind for the good of the team or a team effort is needed to win.

He declared that in athletics "you learn to accept defeat but never learn to like it." Geren pointed to the sense of accomplishment which can be gained in sports and to the development of the competitive spirit and will to win which are important to life. He spoke also of the experience of meeting people from all over the state.

The young athlete expressed thanks of the players to their parents, to school faculty members and especially to the coaches.

Wilson further praised the coaches. He had awards also for Spike Malloroy, bus driver for team trips, and to Ray Palm, for the track record

board in the high school gymnasium. Musical entertainment was provided by the Ford Brothers, by Diane Putman and Don Carnes and by Carol and Jim Lane.

Whatever Athlete Wants
Geren, in his talk declared that athletics "means whatever the individual athlete wants it to mean." He brought out that in athletics personal desires are put behind for the good of the team or a team effort is needed to win.

He declared that in athletics "you learn to accept defeat but never learn to like it." Geren pointed to the sense of accomplishment which can be gained in sports and to the development of the competitive spirit and will to win which are important to life. He spoke also of the experience of meeting people from all over the state.

The young athlete expressed thanks of the players to their parents, to school faculty members and especially to the coaches.

Wilson further praised the coaches. He had awards also for Spike Malloroy, bus driver for team trips, and to Ray Palm, for the track record

board in the high school gymnasium. Musical entertainment was provided by the Ford Brothers, by Diane Putman and Don Carnes and by Carol and Jim Lane.

Whatever Athlete Wants
Geren, in his talk declared that athletics "means whatever the individual athlete wants it to mean." He brought out that in athletics personal desires are put behind for the good of the team or a team effort is needed to win.

He declared that in athletics "you learn to accept defeat but never learn to like it." Geren pointed to the sense of accomplishment which can be gained in sports and to the development of the competitive spirit and will to win which are important to life. He spoke also of the experience of meeting people from all over the state.

The young athlete expressed thanks of the players to their parents, to school faculty members and especially to the coaches.

Wilson further praised the coaches. He had awards also for Spike Malloroy, bus driver for team trips, and to Ray Palm, for the track record

board in the high school gymnasium. Musical entertainment was provided by the Ford Brothers, by Diane Putman and Don Carnes and by Carol and Jim Lane.

Whatever Athlete Wants
Geren, in his talk declared that athletics "means whatever the individual athlete wants it to mean." He brought out that in athletics personal desires are put behind for the good of the team or a team effort is needed to win.

He declared that in athletics "you learn to accept defeat but never learn to like it." Geren pointed to the sense of accomplishment which can be gained in sports and to the development of the competitive spirit and will to win which are important to life. He spoke also of the experience of meeting people from all over the state.

The young athlete expressed thanks of the players to their parents, to school faculty members and especially to the coaches.

Wilson further praised the coaches. He had awards also for Spike Malloroy, bus driver for team trips, and to Ray Palm, for the track record

board in the high school gymnasium. Musical entertainment was provided by the Ford Brothers, by Diane Putman and Don Carnes and by Carol and Jim Lane.

board in the high school gymnasium. Musical entertainment was provided by the Ford Brothers, by Diane Putman and Don Carnes and by Carol and Jim Lane.

Whatever Athlete Wants
Geren, in his talk declared that athletics "means whatever the individual athlete wants it to mean." He brought out that in athletics personal desires are put behind for the good of the team or a team effort is needed to win.

He declared that in athletics "you learn to accept defeat but never learn to like it." Geren pointed to the sense of accomplishment which can be gained in sports and to the development of the competitive spirit and will to win which are important to life. He spoke also of the experience of meeting people from all over the state.

The young athlete expressed thanks of the players to their parents, to school faculty members and especially to the coaches.

Wilson further praised the coaches. He had awards also for Spike Malloroy, bus driver for team trips, and to Ray Palm, for the track record

board in the high school gymnasium. Musical entertainment was provided by the Ford Brothers, by Diane Putman and Don Carnes and by Carol and Jim Lane.

Whatever Athlete Wants
Geren, in his talk declared that athletics "means whatever the individual athlete wants it to mean." He brought out that in athletics personal desires are put behind for the good of the team or a team effort is needed to win.

He declared that in athletics "you learn to accept defeat but never learn to like it." Geren pointed to the sense of accomplishment which can be gained in sports and to the development of the competitive spirit and will to win which are important to life. He spoke also of the experience of meeting people from all over the state.

The young athlete expressed thanks of the players to their parents, to school faculty members and especially to the coaches.

Wilson further praised the coaches. He had awards also for Spike Malloroy, bus driver for team trips, and to Ray Palm, for the track record

board in the high school gymnasium. Musical entertainment was provided by the Ford Brothers, by Diane Putman and Don Carnes and by Carol and Jim Lane.

Whatever Athlete Wants
Geren, in his talk declared that athletics "means whatever the individual athlete wants it to mean." He brought out that in athletics personal desires are put behind for the good of the team or a team effort is needed to win.

He declared that in athletics "you learn to accept defeat but never learn to like it." Geren pointed to the sense of accomplishment which can be gained in sports and to the development of the competitive spirit and will to win which are important to life. He spoke also of the experience of meeting people from all over the state.

The young athlete expressed thanks of the players to their parents, to school faculty members and especially to the coaches.

Wilson further praised the coaches. He had awards also for Spike Malloroy, bus driver for team trips, and to Ray Palm, for the track record

board in the high school gymnasium. Musical entertainment was provided by the Ford Brothers, by Diane Putman and Don Carnes and by Carol and Jim Lane.

Whatever Athlete Wants
Geren, in his talk declared that athletics "means whatever the individual athlete wants it to mean." He brought out that in athletics personal desires are put behind for the good of the team or a team effort is needed to win.

He declared that in athletics "you learn to accept defeat but never learn to like it." Geren pointed to the sense of accomplishment which can be gained in sports and to the development of the competitive spirit and will to win which are important to life. He spoke also of the experience of meeting people from all over the state.

The young athlete expressed thanks of the players to their parents, to school faculty members and especially to the coaches.

Wilson further praised the coaches. He had awards also for Spike Malloroy, bus driver for team trips, and to Ray Palm, for the track record

board in the high school gymnasium. Musical entertainment was provided by the Ford Brothers, by Diane Putman and Don Carnes and by Carol and Jim Lane.

Whatever Athlete Wants
Geren, in his talk declared that athletics "means whatever the individual athlete wants it to mean." He brought out that in athletics personal desires are put behind for the good of the team or a team effort is needed to win.

He declared that in athletics "you learn to accept defeat but never learn to like it." Geren pointed to the sense of accomplishment which can be gained in sports and to the development of the competitive spirit and will to win which are important to life. He spoke also of the experience of meeting people from all over the state.

The young athlete expressed thanks of the players to their parents, to school faculty members and especially to the coaches.

Wilson further praised the coaches. He had awards also for Spike Malloroy, bus driver for team trips, and to Ray Palm, for the track record

board in the high school gymnasium. Musical entertainment was provided by the Ford Brothers, by Diane Putman and Don Carnes and by Carol and Jim Lane.

board in the high school gymnasium. Musical entertainment was provided by the Ford Brothers, by Diane Putman and Don Carnes and by Carol and Jim Lane.

Whatever Athlete Wants
Geren, in his talk declared that athletics "means whatever the individual athlete wants it to mean." He brought out that in athletics personal desires are put behind for the good of the team or a team effort is needed to win.

He declared that in athletics "you learn to accept defeat but never learn to like it." Geren pointed to the sense of accomplishment which can be gained in sports and to the development of the competitive spirit and will to win which are important to life. He spoke also of the experience of meeting people from all over the state.

The young athlete expressed thanks of the players to their parents, to school faculty members and especially to the coaches.

Wilson further praised the coaches. He had awards also for Spike Malloroy, bus driver for team trips, and to Ray Palm, for the track record

board in the high school gymnasium. Musical entertainment was provided by the Ford Brothers, by Diane Putman and Don Carnes and by Carol and Jim Lane.

Whatever Athlete Wants
Geren, in his talk declared that athletics "means whatever the individual athlete wants it to mean." He brought out that in athletics personal desires are put behind for the good of the team or a team effort is needed to win.

He declared that in athletics "you learn to accept defeat but never learn to like it." Geren pointed to the sense of accomplishment which can be gained in sports and to the development of the competitive spirit and will to win which are important to life. He spoke also of the experience of meeting people from all over the state.

The young athlete expressed thanks of the players to their parents, to school faculty members and especially to the coaches.

Wilson further praised the coaches. He had awards also for Spike Malloroy, bus driver for team trips, and to Ray Palm, for the track record

board in the high school gymnasium. Musical entertainment was provided by the Ford Brothers, by Diane Putman and Don Carnes and by Carol and Jim Lane.

Whatever Athlete Wants
Geren, in his talk declared that athletics "means whatever the individual athlete wants it to mean." He brought out that in athletics personal desires are put behind for the good of the team or a team effort is needed to win.

He declared that in athletics "you learn to accept defeat but never learn to like it." Geren pointed to the sense of accomplishment which can be gained in sports and to the development of the competitive spirit and will to win which are important to life. He spoke also of the experience of meeting people from all over the state.

The young athlete expressed thanks of the players to their parents, to school faculty members and especially to the coaches.

Wilson further praised the coaches. He had awards also for Spike Malloroy, bus driver for team trips, and to Ray Palm, for the track record

board in the high school gymnasium. Musical entertainment was provided by the Ford Brothers, by Diane Putman and Don Carnes and by Carol and Jim Lane.

Whatever Athlete Wants
Geren, in his talk declared that athletics "means whatever the individual athlete wants it to mean." He brought out that in athletics personal desires are put behind for the good of the team or a team effort is needed to win.

He declared that in athletics "you learn to accept defeat but never learn to like it." Geren pointed to the sense of accomplishment which can be gained in sports and to the development of the competitive spirit and will to win which are important to life. He spoke also of the experience of meeting people from all over the state.

The young athlete expressed thanks of the players to their parents, to school faculty members and especially to the coaches.

Wilson further praised the coaches. He had awards also for Spike Malloroy, bus driver for team trips, and to Ray Palm, for the track record

board in the high school gymnasium. Musical entertainment was provided by the Ford Brothers, by Diane Putman and Don Carnes and by Carol and Jim Lane.

Whatever Athlete Wants
Geren, in his talk declared that athletics "means whatever the individual athlete wants it to mean." He brought out that in athletics personal desires are put behind for the good of the team or a team effort is needed to win.

He declared that in athletics "you learn to accept defeat but never learn to like it." Geren pointed to the sense of accomplishment which can be gained in sports and to the development of the competitive spirit and will to win which are important to life. He spoke also of the experience of meeting people from all over the state.

The young athlete expressed thanks of the players to their parents, to school faculty members and especially to the coaches.

Wilson further praised the coaches. He had awards also for Spike Malloroy, bus driver for team trips, and to Ray Palm, for the track record

board in the high school gymnasium. Musical entertainment was provided by the Ford Brothers, by Diane Putman and Don Carnes and by Carol and Jim Lane.

Cycology Set

CONVERSING WITH SOMEBODY WHO ALWAYS AGREES WITH US IS LIKE TALKING TO AN ECHO

We Make Saturday Deliveries For Only a Slight Extra Charge Prompt Courteous Service

Medford Hi Way

READY-MIX inc. READY-MIX FOR CONVENIENCE CONCRETE FOR PERFORMANCE

1180 ELLENDALE DRIVE Phone 772-9016

FISHERMEN

STOP FOR BREAKFAST AT THE MILL CREEK FALLS CAFE PROSPECT, OREGON

OPENING FRIDAY, MAY 25th

Under New Management
Nina Hollenback, Mgr. Opening at 5 A.M.

Saints To File Suit vs. NBA

San Francisco — The San Francisco Saints will file an antitrust suit of $3 million against the National Basketball association within five days, president George McKeon has announced.

The suit will charge the NBA with antitrust and restraint of trade violations and conspiracy.

The Saints, playing in the American Basketball association, will file the charge in federal court. The announcement came as the NBA prepared for another meeting in the East on whether the Philadelphia Warriors should be moved to San Francisco.

"We feel this action is necessary," said McKeon, "because of the NBA's persistent attempts to create a professional basketball monopoly by destroying its rival, the American Basketball league."

Judge Rejects AFL Suit Against NFL

New York — The National Football League club owners fought today to take up some business matters and to celebrate their legal victory which leaves the young American League to thrive or fail strictly on its own competitive merits.

Lamar Hunt of Dallas, founder of the AFL, is considering an appeal from Monday's decision by Baltimore Judge Roszel Thomsen. That decision rejected the AFL's anti-monopoly suit asking for $10 million in damages from the NFL.

In the absence of any help of the courts, however, it appeared that the American league would have to stake its success on its public appeal, which has not been overwhelming during the first two years of its existence.

Judge Thomsen's decision conceivably might have ordered the NFL to abandon Dallas to the AFL exclusively, as well as pay damages. Such a decision might have benefited the American Leaguers' coffers, given them the entire Dallas market and greatly raised their prestige in the eyes of the public.

Dairy Maids To Open Softball Season May 26

The Dairy Maids will open their softball league season Saturday, May 26, at 7:30 p.m. at the Memorial Stadium, White City. The girls from Eugene will oppose them in two games, the second to be played Sunday at 1:30 p.m.

The schedule of baseball events at the domiciliary field through August has been announced by Paul Bethel, in charge of recreation. Twenty-six games are listed, seven of which are tentative.

In addition to the northwest women's softball league, the American Legion, and the Eugene team in the Class B pro baseball league, have scheduled games.

The Dairy Maids will follow this week's games with two against Salem June 2, and 3, and a double header June 26, against Lind Florists. Another game thus far has been scheduled for the Dairy Maids against Yakima July 14.

The Legion has listed games for May 30, Medford against Central Point Legion, and eight games in June on the 4th, 6th, 8th, 13th, 15th, 20th, and 22nd.

Geren, season end choice as captain of Eagle Point's

board in the high school gymnasium. Musical entertainment was provided by the Ford Brothers, by Diane Putman and Don Carnes and by Carol and Jim Lane.

Whatever Athlete Wants
Geren, in his talk declared that athletics "means whatever the individual athlete wants it to mean." He brought out that in athletics personal desires are put behind for the good of the team or a team effort is needed to win.

He declared that in athletics "you learn to accept defeat but never learn to like it." Geren pointed to the sense of accomplishment which can be gained in sports and to the development of the competitive spirit and will to win which are important to life. He spoke also of the experience of meeting people from all over the state.

The young athlete expressed thanks of the players to their parents, to school faculty members and especially to the coaches.

Wilson further praised the coaches. He had awards also for Spike Malloroy, bus driver for team trips, and to Ray Palm, for the track record

board in the high school gymnasium. Musical entertainment was provided by the Ford Brothers, by Diane Putman and Don Carnes and by Carol and Jim Lane.

Whatever Athlete Wants
Geren, in his talk declared that athletics "means whatever the individual athlete wants it to mean." He brought out that in athletics personal desires are put behind for the good of the team or a team effort is needed to win.

He declared that in athletics "you learn to accept defeat but never learn to like it." Geren pointed to the sense of accomplishment which can be gained in sports and to the development of the competitive spirit and will to win which are important to life. He spoke also of the experience of meeting people from all over the state.

The young athlete expressed thanks of the players to their parents, to school faculty members and especially to the coaches.

Wilson further praised the coaches. He had awards also for Spike Malloroy, bus driver for team trips, and to Ray Palm, for the track record

board in the high school gymnasium. Musical entertainment was provided by the Ford Brothers, by Diane Putman and Don Carnes and by Carol and Jim Lane.

Whatever Athlete Wants
Geren, in his talk declared that athletics "means whatever the individual athlete wants it to mean." He brought out that in athletics personal desires are put behind for the good of the team or a team effort is needed to win.

He declared that in athletics "you learn to accept defeat but never learn to like it." Geren pointed to the sense of accomplishment which can be gained in sports and to the development of the competitive spirit and will to win which are important to life. He spoke also of the experience of meeting people from all over the state.

The young athlete expressed thanks of the players to their parents, to school faculty members and especially to the coaches.

Wilson further praised the coaches. He had awards also for Spike Malloroy, bus driver for team trips, and to Ray Palm, for the track record

board in the high school gymnasium. Musical entertainment was provided by the Ford Brothers, by Diane Putman and Don Carnes and by Carol and Jim Lane.

Whatever Athlete Wants
Geren, in his talk declared that athletics "means whatever the individual athlete wants it to mean." He brought out that in athletics personal desires are put behind for the good of the team or a team effort is needed to win.

He declared that in athletics "you learn to accept defeat but never learn to like it." Geren pointed to the sense of accomplishment which can be gained in sports and to the development of the competi-

Portland 5, Spokane 4 In PCL

By United Press International
Elmer Singleton was 23 years old when Dave Moorehead was born, but now they are both trying to pitch Seattle to the Pacific Coast league pennant.

Moorehead, an 18-year-old Boston Red Sox bonus baby with the earmarks of greatness, tossed the Rainiers to a 3-2 win over Tacoma Monday night in a rugged mound battle with Ron Herbel, the loop's leading pitcher last year.

Moorehead did not allow a hit until the fifth, but surrendered two tallies in the ninth. With the chips on the table, however, young Moorehead fanned Gil Carrido on three pitches to end the contest.

Moorehead has won four straight. Tonight 41-year-old Elmer Singleton, 3-1 so far, will take the hill for the Rainiers, now only two games back of first-place Salt Lake City.

In other action Monday night, Vancouver thumped San Diego, 5-1, and Portland nipped Spokane, 5-4. Salt Lake and Hawaii took the night off.

At Vancouver, Al Schroll, who has lost some heartbreakers this year, finally got a few baseruns to help him out as he breezed to a six-hit win. Schroll fanned 10 men.

The Moores men while cracked 13 hits in a rare display of hitting.

Portland put all their eggs in two baskets. They tallied three in the second on a walk, sacrifice fly and hits by Dave Ricketts, Don Wojcik and Clem Moore.

Spokane grabbed a 4-3 lead but Portland tallied two more when Jay Hankins tripled in a run in the fifth and then scored on Bill Kern's single. That ended the evening's scoring.

Linescores:
Portland — 020 020 000 — 5 9 2
Spokane — 122 100 000 — 4 8 2
Colligan, Fischer (5) and Ricketts; Chittum, Dick (5) and Julian.

Seattle — 300 010 000 — 3 7 1
Tacoma — 000 000 011 — 2 5 1
Moorehead and Skene; Herbel and Orsino.

San Diego — 100 000 000 — 1 4 1
Vancouver — 202 001 000 — 5 13 1
Briggs, Rosenhoover (7) and Gonder, Schroll and Henry.
Only games scheduled.

Law Can Put Hand in Pocket

Pittsburgh — Vernon Law can put his right hand in his back pocket now.

This seemingly prosaic act is good news for the Pittsburgh Pirate right-hander who pitched his first complete nine-inning game Sunday since April 12, 1961. And the accomplishment was more noteworthy because Law beat the Cincinnati Reds for his first complete game victory since Sept. 18, 1960, when he set down the Reds in Cincinnati.

Law was placed on the disabled list last July because of a torn rotator muscle in his right shoulder. He returned to the roster this spring.

Skinner Wins SK Boat Class

Lon Skinner, Medford, won the SK class Sunday in the Dexter Dam regatta sponsored by Springfield Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Howard Lage, Medford, was second. Skinner skipped Crazy Too and Lage piloted Crazy.

CONGRESS HEADS

Seattle — Chuck Congdon of Tacoma Monday fired a 69-68-137 on the Broadmoor Golf Club course here to head a list of five professionals who earned spots in the U.S. Open Golf Tournament's sectional qualifying round at Tacoma June 4-5.

SEATTLE HEADS

Seattle — Chuck Congdon of Tacoma Monday fired a 69-68-137 on the Broadmoor Golf Club course here to head a list of five professionals who earned spots in the U.S. Open Golf Tournament's sectional qualifying round at Tacoma June 4-5.</