

WRONG WAY

Houston, Tex. (AP) — There's something of a standoff in the suburban community of Bellaire, where a highway sign on the outskirts reads: "Yield (sic) Right of Way." The city said it was a county sign and demanded the county make a correction. The county said it was a city sign. Said a city councilman: "I don't know whose sign it is, but I demand an investigation. This is embarrassing."

SCHOOL NEWS

Medrick Junior High

By Lynn Benton

Members of the Radio club who are licensed are Don Mackenzie, conditional class license; Rick Maundling, John Casterline, Randy Struble, Bill Hedberg, and Mike Gordon; novice class licenses.

The boys set up a school station under the direction of John McCormack, advisor, and will use a transmitter loaned by Dave Billingsley.

Spring concert date has changed from June 1 to Monday, May 28.

Plans are now under way for the ninth grade assembly, "Blackouts," which will be presented May 29.

More than 700 people attended the evening performance of the Hedrick operetta, "Oh Susanna," presented by the music department.

At the Future Homemakers recognition dinner at the high school recently, Randy Baker was awarded first place as best student in foods; Karen Kruswyk was first in clothing; and Diane Mahren, as second in clothing. Carol Konchot was installed as historian of the high school FHA chapter for next year.

The Hedrick orchestra elected officers for the 1962-63 school year recently. Officers are Terry Tibbitts, president; Signe Lusk, vice president; Jane Sanborn, secretary; Betty Jo Hicks, treasurer; John Drysdale, reporter; and Cecilia Wilson, Cathy Collins, Bob Drysdale and Joy Huntman, librarians.

Marianne Raapke placed second in the Junior girls division of the national rifle shoot held in Roseburg recently.

An all school Physical Education show was held recently in the Hedrick auditorium. Each school was allotted five minutes in which to exhibit some phase of physical education. A marching routine was presented by the Hedrick Stingers, and a wrestling demonstration by the boys.

All eighth and ninth grade boys planning to turn out for football next year are urged to make an appointment with their family dentist and have a tooth protector made. The local Dental Society is making these up at no cost to the players, and wants to complete the project before school is out. Authorization forms may be picked up in the coach's office. This is in accordance with a new ruling that all football players must wear tooth protectors.

Special notices have been sent to all home rooms for all students owing book fines or lunch charges. Everyone is urged to pay.

Bill Mineci won $100 from the National Scholastic Art Contest exhibit in New York when his entry was named a regional winner and received the Hallmark Honors Prize. Bill's entry was a tempera painting on burlap, "Buildings." Ed Callaway received an honorable mention in the same competition.

Twelve Hedrick students from the ninth grade visited the Sacred Heart hospital on Career Day. The students were shown the various jobs connected with a hospital by candystripers, junior volunteers at the hospital. Students who participated in the tour were Patricia Valdez, Sidney Sleat, Jeannette Greeley, Sandra Bayliss, Joan Sexton, Conni Crow, Suzanne Brooks, Anne Donahue, Carol Konchot, Sally Bratton, Mark Milne, and Dick Anderson.

The students of Central Point Junior High elected officers for the 1962-63 school year recently. The officers elected were president, Steven Ryerson; vice president, Joe Pinkham; secretary, Georgia Brittain; sergeant at arms, Dan Corcoran; trophy custodian, Steve Pinkham; Yell leaders, Sheila Beasley, JoAnne Hamilton, Michelle McCalvey and Kathy Neal.

The eighth grade had a visitation day at Crater High school recently.
