Plans Rushed To Bring Chinese Refugees To U.S.

Washington—The United States today rushed arrangements to bring several thousand Red Chinese refugees to this country from Hong Kong starting in about two weeks.

The action was announced by President Kennedy at his news conference Wednesday.

Administration officials said the U.S. step was carefully chosen to help relieve suffering but without encouraging more mainland Chinese to flee, which would create grave problems for jammed British Hong Kong and possibly lead to border violence.

It left unsolved what Kennedy called the "basic problem" of hunger among 650 million mainland Chinese.

On Waiting List

The refugees to be brought here under emergency presidential powers of parole are not those who have fled in recent months to Hong Kong.

With an annual U.S. Chinese immigration quota of 105, there already are in Hong Kong an estimated 21,500 Chinese registered on a waiting list to come here. About 5,000 to 6,000 of these had been screened and cleared for eventual admission.

It is from these "already cleared" Chinese, who have waited for years, that the new group, after further screening, will be selected. U.S. officials would not say how many.

Salan's Sentence Heartens OAS

Algiers, Algeria—The Secret Army Organization followers were heartened today by the news that the life of their leader, former Gen. Raoul Salan, had been spared by a Paris military tribunal.

Algiers already was under its nightly curfew when the news came over the radio, but shouts of joy could be heard throughout the European quarter.

Observers on both sides of the Mediterranean had expected France's most decorated soldier to be sentenced to death for leading the European terrorists in their fight to keep Algeria French. Ex-Gen. Edmond Jouhaud, Salan's right-hand man, was condemned to die for the same offense.

The sentencing of Salan to life imprisonment came after a day in which French gendarmes fought street battles with OAS commandos in Algiers and with Muslims in Oran, and the OAS showered a crowded Muslim quarter in Algiers with mortar shells.

Terrorist attacks during the day killed 38 persons and wounded 53, bringing the year's totals to 5,042 killed and 8,991 wounded.

McLoughlin Teacher Named To Institute

Howard M. Gang, Spanish teacher at McLoughlin Junior High school, has been chosen to participate in the National Defense Education Act Summer Language Institute at the University of the Pacific, Stockton, June 18 through Aug. 10.

Forty secondary school teachers of Spanish will take part in daily schedules of activities during the eight-week program, designed to develop improved skills in understanding, speaking, reading and writing Spanish, and a familiarity with principles of linguistics and their practical use in the classroom and laboratory.

Dr. Arthur J. Cullen, director of both the Institute and Inter-American Studies at Pacific, will be assisted by eight staff members and six informants, native speakers of Spanish.

Caves Chateau To Open on Saturday

Cave Junction—The Oregon Caves Chateau will open Saturday, May 26, Harvey Mills, manager, has announced.

Recent improvements at the Chateau include installation of new carpeting and drapes in the dining room and lounge, he said. Chef this year will be Sam S. Morgan.

An unusually heavy influx of visitors, including residents of South Africa, Sweden and Hawaii, has been recorded so far this year, Mills said.

EMPLOYS TOO MANY

Washington—The Commerce Secretary Luther H. Hodges told the House Civil Service Committee Wednesday that the government could save "all sorts of money" by firing unnecessary employees. He said about 10 per cent of the employees in his department were doing jobs which "just aren't needed."
