

Club Selects Nominating Committee

Ashland - Preceding the regular afternoon program of Ashland Study club May 21 a business session was conducted by the president, Mrs. R. Drew Lamb, in which a nominating committee, was chosen and a new member, Mrs. Clifford Maust, was welcomed. Hostess for the meeting was Mrs. Harry Skerry Jr., 580 Morton street.

Mrs. Harold Merrill reviewed "The Inheritors" by John Tebbel, a study based upon outstanding Americans of wealth. The Astors, the Guggenheims, Barbara Hutton and Doris Duke, and the late William Randolph Hearst are all analyzed.

The Astor fortune built from fur trading and the Guggenheimer empire established by Meyer the peddler and carried on by seven sons with the golden touch, were among the earliest of the vast fortunes amassed in America. With their wealth came power and position, but in few cases happiness.

The author asks the question "What will history a century from now tell of today's moneyed families?" Whether accumulated or inherited fortune is a responsibility and often a tragedy.

Study of Roses
The selected subject presented by Mrs. Ruth Dews was in keeping with the season and her own hobby as a rose fancier. The garden of Mrs. Dews and her mother, Mrs. Grace Turner, attracts visitors each summer when their hundreds of roses are in bloom.

Mrs. Dews says that the rose is an international flower, being found in all parts of the world regardless of climate, the only exception being a small part of South America. The rose has played an important role in history for centuries. Its influence is seen in music, art, romance, in names of places and people, in adornments and stained glass windows.

Secret documents were once placed under a rose, giving rise to the legal term "sub rosa." The rose has been used medicinally but is loved most for its perfume and beautiful form. The speaker showed colored illustrations and gave suggestions on rose culture, closing with a poem "My Favorite Rose."

The final meeting of the club year will be at 1 p.m. luncheon June 4 at the home of Mrs. Len Osgood, 720 Walker avenue.

Texas Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Harbert of Borger, Tex., visited last week with Mr. Harbert's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Harbert, 49 Valley View drive, while they were en route to and from the Seattle World's Fair.

A large number of Republicans attended the annual tea of the Jackson County unit of the Oregon Federation of Women's Republican clubs held May 21 at the home of Mrs. George M. Roberts on Crown avenue. Shown above in the garden of the Roberts home are (left) Mrs. Joseph Y. Leveton, Portland, federation president; Mrs. E. A. Littrell, 140 Greenway circle, recently named first vice president of the federation, and Mrs. Sig Unander, wife of the Republican nominee for the United States Senate. Mrs. Littrell will serve the remaining year of the two-year term to which Mrs. James Armistead, Salem, was elected, the Salem woman having resigned. Mrs. Littrell also is president of the county unit and has been on the federation board of trustees. (Knackstedt photo)

A number of out-of-town Republicans attended the annual tea of the Jackson County unit of the Oregon Federation of Women's Republican clubs last week at the George M. Roberts home on Crown avenue. Among them was Carl Fisher, Eugene, who is Republican candidate for Congress from the fourth district. He is shown above during the tea chatting with Mrs. W. H. Walwyn (seated left); Mrs. John R. Dellonback, general chairman of the event, and Mrs. Ernst Ruegger, who was a member of both the pouring and receiving committees. Mrs. Frank Bash arranged the flowers for the tea table and for the rooms of the Roberts home. Women of the Young Republican club had charge of the tea table. (Knackstedt photo)

Luncheon Scheduled

A dessert luncheon in observance of Memorial day will be held Monday, May 28, at the Girls Community club by the Rogue chapter, Grandmother Clubs of America. The event will start at 12:30 p.m. and a business meeting will follow.

Hostesses will be Mrs. Carl Pearson, Mrs. Florence Gilkinson, Mrs. Bessie Young, Mrs. Lena West and Mrs. Violet Wilson.

Happy Camp Students Receive Music Awards

Happy Camp - Outstanding music awards were made to two students of Happy Camp schools during the fourth annual Arion award concert here last week. The concert was attended by more than 500 persons.

Lanny Nevens, a senior, received the Arion award for his musical ability and leadership qualities. The award and a pin were presented by Roy Curtis, president of the Happy Camp Lions club, who each year presents the award to an exceptional senior student in the field.

Receiving the award as top music student in the eighth grade graduating class was Elliott Steele James Tristram, music director of the schools, presented the award. Mr. Tristram directed the concert. The program included selections by the high school band and glee club, the elementary chorus, an octet directed by Miss Pam Edmunds, the beginning band, dance band combo, a duet by Miss Phyllis Charity and Albert Diggle, piano solos by Miss Edmunds and Stanley Tristram, saxophone solo by Lanny Nevens, electric guitar solo by Tina Dolezal and a trumpet solo by Larry Westby.

Mother Here

Mrs. Ruth Speare, Stockton, Calif., is visiting with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Speare, 908 Whitman street. She plans to be here until after Memorial day.

Houseguests

Central Point-Mr. and Mrs. Gene Thompson and children, Boise, Idaho, were houseguests last week of Mr. and Mrs. Don Sanford, 141 South Seventh street, Central Point.

Crowd Sees Installation

A large crowd attended the joint installation of the grand lodge officers and the Rebekah Assembly officers of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows Wednesday evening. It was one of the final activities during the four day state session held in Medford.

Retiring grand master was Ellsworth Robison, Central Point, and retiring state Rebekah president was Mrs. Riley Applegate, also Central Point. Assuming their posts were Walter V. Murphey, Reedsport, and Mrs. Leo C. Watkins, Wasco.

Master of ceremonies was John B. Robison, father of the retiring grand master. Medford Mayor John W. Snider sent an address of welcome and the response was given by Jesse Jones, Portland.

Among the guests were Harry Whitmore, grand master of Washington, and Mrs. Eva Thurston, Saskatchewan, Canada, vice president of the International Association, Rebekah assembly.

During the evening entertainment was furnished by the Jackson County Sweethearts sponsored by the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of Central Point, the Central Point Junior lodge, Beta Chi Theta Rho of Central Point, and the Lavaliers of Crater High school. Music for the grand march and dance was furnished by Mrs. Eve Prentiss and her band.

Grand Officer Makes Visit

Mrs. Frank Little, Medford, assistant lecturer of the grand court, Order of the Amaranth, made her official visit to Roxey Ann court May 17.

During the evening a group of candidates were initiated into the order. They were Mrs. Clara Eldridge, Mr. and Mrs. Irvine Urie, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Ladd, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Glenaves and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Smith. The meeting was conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mayfield, royal patron and matron.

Past royal matrons and patrons of Roxey Ann court assisted the officers in a memorial service. After refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gillette and Mrs. Mae Rehart, a ceremony was held in which Mrs. Little was crowned "queen for a day" by Mrs. Mayfield and Mrs. Charles Hoppe.

June 2 Mrs. William Aplinalp, grand royal matron, and Gerald Laurens, grand royal patron, both Portland, will make their official visits to the Roxey Ann court. Mr. and Mrs. Hal Bishop are in charge of the no-host dinner to be held at the Masonic temple that day at 6:30 p.m. A member participation flower show will follow the meeting. Mrs. Lawrence Mossal is chairman of the entertainment.

Officers Elected By Phoenix Group

Phoenix - Mrs. Albert Lewis was elected president of the Phoenix Garden club at a recent meeting held in the Community Club building. Mrs. Irving Thomas was elected first vice president. Mrs. Ruben Richey, second vice president; Mrs. Harlan Glascock, secretary; and Mrs. Allen Poe, treasurer.

The club is planning a fall flower show to be held on September 8. "Rhapsody" has been chosen as the show theme.

Schedule Meeting
A regular meeting of the Slimmer Yets TOPS club will meet Monday, May 28 at 7 p.m. at the home of Mrs. James D. Goin, 1772 Hyattsville avenue.

Eagle Point Couple Honored at Reception

Eagle Point - Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Davies were honored by more than 200 people at a reception recently with guests coming as far as Illinois. Mr. Davies is retiring after teaching for 37 years. The couple plan to move to the coast next month.

The event turned into more of an old time gathering and reunion for many of the people who brought their old photographs taken in the 1920's to share with the others present. Mr. and Mrs. John Henshaw, Butte Falls, were present along with many other people who had Mr. Davies as a teacher. Mr. Henshaw graduated in the first class Mr. Davies taught in Eagle Point.

Some of the other guests who traveled a distance to honor the Davieses were Mrs. Neil (Mary Ballard) Harnish, Reno, Nev.; Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Clave, Arcata, Calif.; Mrs. John (Patti Clave) Knips, Granite City, Ill.; Edison Crandall, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Winslow, Siskiyou, British Columbia, Canada; Ray Neugart, Coquille, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Franks, Gold Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Barrett, Grants, Eugene. Several of them were former teachers who taught with Mr. Davies sometime since 1926.

Flowers used to decorate the Eagle Point Scout Community building for the reception were furnished by members of the Garden Club. Others assisting were the Eagle Point Grange, Junior Chamber of Commerce, the Jayceettes and the Lions club and auxiliary. The Lions auxiliary presented Mrs. Davies with a white orchid.

The reception was sponsored

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Davies will make their home on the coast next month following his retirement. He has been on the Eagle Point school faculty since 1926.

ed by all of the organizations of Eagle Point and other individuals under the leadership of the Lions auxiliary. Mrs. Bill Wattenberg, Mrs. Ray Ragsdale and Mrs. Ann Davies poured tea and coffee. Mrs. Davies was president of the Garden club for two years; helped organize the Home Extension unit in Eagle Point in 1932, belonged to the Grange and Civic Improvement club; and worked to get health service organized in Eagle Point.

She is an officer of the Eagle Point Lions auxiliary and has worked in other civic organizations throughout the years.

Guests

Dr. and Mrs. Walter Cole, Orinda, Calif., left the first of the week after being houseguests for the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Martin Luther, Talent. Dr. and Mrs. Cole were en route to the World's Fair in Seattle.

Dean Entertains Scholastic Group

Mrs. Golda P. Hickham, dean of women of the University of Oregon, entertained at breakfast in her home recently for members of Alpha Lambda Delta, honorary sorority for freshmen women. Students from Medford who attended are Miss Mary D. Frohnmayer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Frohnmayer, 3326 Ross lane, and Miss Nancy Hinman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Hinman, 875 Oakdale drive. Both recently were invited to join the organization. Also at the breakfast was Miss Suzi Thompson, a former Medford resident, and graduate of Medford High school, who also has been invited to join the honorary group.
