

Oswego Graduation Party Too Noisy

Lake Oswego — UP — A noisy pre-graduation party was broken up by police Thursday and about 20 students were picked up on charges of possession of alcohol and being out after hours.

Police estimated about 80 male and female students were involved.

Police said they were first called by residents of the area who complained about noise from hot rods in the Palisades area. Officer Lloyd Ryan said it took four patrol units and six officers to quell the disturbance.

Ryan said three cases of beer and two quarts of wine were confiscated. He said the party started about midnight and that students were being picked up by parents at the police station until 8 a.m.
