Trinity Episcopal Suspends Usual Services; All-Parish Picnic Set

Ashland—Regular morning worship services at Trinity Episcopal church, Ashland, will be suspended Sunday only in order to accommodate the all parish picnic at the Black Oaks conference center on the Rogue river.

Two services have been scheduled at the church Sunday morning. They are holy communion at 8 a.m. and an all-parish prayer service featuring the combined junior and senior choirs at 10 a.m. All picnickers have been asked to attend the later service in the clothes they will wish to wear to Black Oaks. Transportation to Black Oaks will be arranged immediately following the service.

All members and friends of the parish family of all ages are invited to join in the picnic, according to the rector, the Rev. Duane S. Alvord. Picnickers are to take their own table setting, enough friend chicken for themselves, and a bowl of either fresh fruit, potato salad or baked beans. Coffee, punch, rolls, and dessert will be provided. General chairman for the event is Mrs. Ralph Leach, assisted by members of Trinity Afternoon guild.

An adult bridge and pinocle party is being planned by Mrs. Elizabeth Sommers and Mrs. Ralph Burgess. Games and contests for the children will be under the direction of Harry Hoxie and Mrs. Clifford McLean. Activities provided at Black Oaks include tennis, badminton, volleyball, croquet, soft ball, horse shoes, table tennis, and swimming.

Regular Sunday services will be continued the following Sunday. A Children's day program will be presented in the sanctuary of the First Christian church Sunday at 10 a.m. during the church school hour. The traditional program will include singing, readings, and skits from all age groups nursery through junior high. Directing the program are Mrs. William North and Mrs. Earl Purdy.

The Rev. Fredrick R. Evans will preach on the theme, "To Be a King" at both the 8:30 and 10:55 a.m. services. The youth choir will sing "Faith of our Fathers" at the early service and "Let Not Your Heart Be Troubled" will be sung by the chancel choir at the second service.

Graduating high school seniors will be honored at the 10:55 a.m. service and presented with a gift from the church. The coffee hour following the second service will be hosted by Mrs. Ralph Cook and Mrs. Vaughn Keyser. Meeting Planned

A meeting of all division leaders, captains, and visitors for the Every Member Canvass, now in progress, will be held Sunday at 2:30 p.m. to train participants for calling. The meeting will be held in the fellowship hall.

The Christian Youth Fellowship will meet at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Wendell Wagner at 6:30 p.m. Mr. Wagner will lead the study, after which the group will attend the baccalaureate services of Medford High school. Mr. Evans is the speaker at the baccalaureate services.

Following the regular Chiro Choir rehearsal at 5:45 p.m. Sunday, the Chiro Fellowship will meet in the church annex. Their worship leader will be Alvin Craver.

Tomorrow, June 2, Mr. Evans will moderate a panel discussion on "Ministers' Roundtable," on KMGD-TV concerning rules and standards for wedding services and solemnizing Christian marriage.

Early Service Is Scheduled

Ashland—Sunday Grace Lutheran church, Frances lane, Ashland will begin an 8:30 a.m. worship service. This will be in addition to the Sunday school classes at 9:45 and the 11 a.m. service.

The pastor of the congregation, the Rev. Albert Nickodemus has stated that the additional service was added so that more persons would worship in the summer. The same sermon will be delivered in both services. It is planned that these early services are to continue through June and July.

Mr. Nickodemus reports that the congregation is planning a Vacation Bible school which is to begin June 11. There will be classes for all children from four years to those who finished the eighth grade this year. The courses for the five departments as reported by Mr. Nickodemus are titled, "Let's Learn About God."

Classes will be held from 9 to 11:45 a.m. Monday through Friday for two weeks.

Music Recital Planned Tonight At 1st Nazarene

A spring music recital will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the First Church of the Nazarene, 520 North Holly street.

Twenty-two music students will participate in the program which will include beginners as well as the more advanced students. A wide variety of vocal and instrumental music will be presented.

Mrs. Perry Christiansen is in charge of the program. A reception will follow the program in the activity building for all participants, their parents and friends.

June winds up the fiscal year for the Oregon Pacific Church of the Nazarene. Wednesday evenings of June 6 and 13, reports of the local church officers and elections will be held in connection with the regular mid-week services.

The pastor, the Rev. Harold M. Sanner, continues his Pentecost messages in both the morning and evening Sunday services. At the 11 a.m. hour his message topic is "Signs of the New Testament Church" and in the 7 p.m. service he is following the theme, "God Keeps His Promises."

Music for the 11 a.m. service includes the sanctuary choir singing and a tenor solo by Dean von Stein. During the evening service Mr. and Mrs. Christiansen will sing a duet and Mrs. Rex Vowell a solo. Instrumental numbers will include a duet by Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hansen.

The annual Vacation Bible school will be held at First Nazarene June 11 to 22. Mrs. Wayne Larson is the supervisor and has announced that there will be departments for each age group kindergarten through junior high. The time of meeting each week day Monday through Friday for these two weeks will be 9 to 11:45 a.m.

The monthly all Sunday school staff meeting will be held Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at the church in which plans for the summer will be presented by the Sunday school superintendent, Bill Brewster.

Two Churches List Coming Activities

Central Point - The sacrament of the Lord's supper will be observed Sunday during the 11 a.m. worship service at the First Presbyterian church in Central Point. The communion meditation, "The Church as Community," will be preached by the Rev. Robert W. Olmsted. Following the worship service a coffee hour will be held in the church fellowship hall.

Presbyterian Men of the First Presbyterian church, Central Point, will meet Sunday at 8 a.m. for breakfast at the church. The Rev. Robert T. Bridge will be the guest speaker.

The Junior High Fellowship will meet at the church at 5 p.m. The Senior High Fellowship will not meet this week due to high school activities.

Jacksonville - The Rev. King K. Jones will preach during the 11 a.m. worship service in the First Presbyterian church of Jacksonville. He will give the second in a series of sermons "Modern Heresies." His subject will be "Stoicism."

The choir will sing "Still, Still With Thee." Mr. and Mrs. Dave Allen will sing a duet during the anthem.

Events of the week will include a Men's Bible study Sunday at 7 p.m. and a session meeting Thursday at 8 p.m.

Services Cancelled Sunday Evening

Central Point - Sunday evening services will not be held at the Church of Christ, Third and Oak sts., Central Point, due to the Crater High school baccalaureate service.

At 9:45 a.m. Bible school exercises will be held for all classes of junior age and older according to Aubrey Stith superintendent. At the 10:45 a.m. service Mr. Jean M. Shelley, minister, will speak on "The End of the Trail." Communion will be served. Wednesday the Hour of Power service at 7:30 p.m. will study John 7.

Summer Youth Activities Set At Butte Falls

Butte Falls - As part of the summer program of youth activities, Community Bible church of Butte Falls is having Vacation Bible school, June 4-15, beginning Monday at 9 a.m. with Mrs. Harry Dalton as director.

Classes are to be from 9 a.m. to noon and the theme will be "Patriots for Christ," answering Khrushchev's boast that "Communism will conquer the world by 1980."

A full schedule of singing, Bible study, handwork, and outdoor games is planned for children aged four through the eighth grade. Every child in the Butte Falls and neighboring areas is welcome to attend.

Mrs. Oscar Barlow will head the primary department; Mrs. Louis Cramer, the junior department; and the Rev. Robert Daniels, the Young Teens. Mrs. Duane Burton will direct music for the entire school.

The early date of the school was chosen to enable several graduating high school students to teach before going away to summer school and summer jobs. Work on the new parsonage has progressed to the wiring stage. Several are getting this phase done before the next general work day in June.

The Rev. Howard Simmonds family, former residents of Butte Falls, attended the graduation of their niece, Mrs. Larry Cavin, from the local high school. The Simmonds live in Elk Creek, Calif., where Mr. Simmonds is pastor of Elk Creek Community church.

Brotherhood To Be Stressed at Unity

The brotherhood of Christianity keynotes the theme of worship planned for June at the Unity Church of Medford. The minister, the Rev. Katharine Bosworth, whose sermon text Sunday will be "Because Ye Are Sons," will have her text from Galatians 4:6. The worship hour begins at 11:15 a.m. at the church, at Holly and Haven sts. Church school classes convene earlier at 9:45 a.m.

Weekly study classes continue at Grants Pass, Medford and Ashland in the week ahead, making use of Ernest Wilson's "Master Class Lessons."

The Fireside Circle discussion group will continue their study and discussions Wednesday evening at the Unity center, 995 South Oakdale ave., their topics taken from "Lessons in Truth" by Cady.

Mrs. Bosworth will leave late in the week for Lee's Summit, Mo., where she will attend ministerial conferences at the Unity School of Christianity during the following two weeks.

Baptismal Service Planned Sunday

At 4:30 p.m. Sunday Trinity Baptist church will hold a baptismal service at the First Baptist church, 241 Hagardine ave., Ashland.

Pastor Bruce Rogers will speak during the 11 a.m. worship service on the subject, "Footsteps in the New Way."

The Scripture portion will be Ephesians 5:1-21. A women's trio, composed of Mrs. Doris Kautz, Mrs. Loretta Nordquist, and Mrs. Lorene McCormack, will sing, "It's Not an Easy Road."

Trinity Baptist church meets temporarily at Thurston Studio, 245 Stewart ave. They will hold no evening services this week because of Medford High school baccalaureate.

Pastor, Members Attend Southern Baptist Meeting

"Mastering Our Motives" will be the subject for the sermon the Rev. G. O. Skaar, pastor of First Southern Baptist church, will preach at the worship hour Sunday morning. The adult choir, Dennis Sannels directing, will sing.

The evening service will be conducted by the Gideons since the pastor, accompanied by Mrs. Skaar and two daughters will leave for San Francisco Sunday afternoon to attend the National Southern Baptist convention.

A session will be held Monday morning for pastors and Women's Missionary Union conferences, with regular convention meetings beginning Tuesday evening and ending Friday noon. The pastor will return home on Saturday. Messengers and observers are expected to attend from all 50 states, Canada and other countries.

Other members of the local congregation planning to attend include Mr. and Mrs. Dave Johnson, Mrs. Ira Burns and Mrs. Jake Covey.

The June meeting of the Sixtiety association will be held Saturday at the First Southern Baptist church, Grants Pass. Emphasis will be on Training Union work. Tom Balch, Ashland, will be in charge of the program.

Children's Day To Be Observed

The Congregational church, 2100 Oakwood Drive, will observe Children's day Sunday. The children's choir will sing during the 11 a.m. service of worship. The children of the church school will attend the opening portion of the morning service when the Rev. Robert Tull will preach a children's sermon. Mr. Tull's sermon for the main part of the service will be on "Laying Foundations for Faith," dealing with the educational ministry of the church.

Following the service of worship, the children of the church school are inviting the adults of the congregation to a Children's Day Social hour on the church lawn. Some of the classes will present examples of the work that they have been doing during the year.

Sunday evening a church-wide fellowship picnic will be held on the church lawn as an opportunity for all the families of the church to be together before getting involved in busy summer schedules. The picnic will not be potluck. Each person or family is asked to take its own picnic supper and utensils. Coffee, milk and ice cream will be provided. The picnic will begin at 4:30 p.m., with supper being served at 5:30, and people being free to leave by 7 p.m.
