FAA to Relocate Two Local Offices

As part of a nation-wide move to centralize its facilities, the Federal Aeronautics Agency plans to relocate two of its offices at the Medford municipal airport within the next 30 days.

The Airways Technical District office, which employs a staff of three persons responsible for maintenance of air navigational aids in southern Oregon, plans to move into offices in the Standard Insurance building June 15.

The office had been housed in a building south of the terminal at the airport.

The other facility, the General Safety District office, which has been in the terminal annex building, will be moved to central quarters in Portland July 1.

The office is responsible for determining the airworthiness of aircraft and for conducting examinations for pilots. About three employees will be involved in the move.

Soviet Cosmonaut Deaths Reported

Chicago – (UPI) – At least five Soviet cosmonauts have died in space flights, an Indianapolis, Ind., television commentator said Thursday in a copyright magazine article.

The article by newsman and commentator Frank Edwards of station WTTV appears in the current issue of Fate magazine, a popular science journal.

"The five known Russian astronauts who have lost their lives in the Soviet space program . . . do not constitute the complete list, of that we can be sure," Edwards wrote.

He listed the lost cosmonauts as Terenity Shiborin, in 1959; Piotr Dolgov, in 1960; Massikevich Zavadosky, in 1961; and a Soviet man and woman moon exploration team which disappeared in May, 1961.

Edwards said, "missing and unaccounted for are two other graduates of the Soviet Space Training Center, Gennady Mikaolov and Alexey Belokonev."

Strike by Iron Workers Continues

Portland–(UPI)–A strike by some 700 iron workers in Oregon and Southwest Washington moved into its fifth day today.

The men, members of Portland local 29 of the International Association of Bridge, Structural and Ornamental Iron Workers, went out Monday.

The dispute is hampering heavy construction in the state and Southwest Washington.

John J. O'Halloran of Portland, secretary and business representative of the local, said no negotiating sessions were scheduled with contractors.

Iron workers local at Tacoma, Seattle and Mt. Vernon in Washington also are out on strike.

OBITUARIES

CHARLES V. WINKELMAN

Funeral services for Charles V. Winkelman, 74, of 3279 Biddle rd., Medford, who died Wednesday, will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday at Perl Funeral home. The Rev. Harvey Coovert, pastor of the Zion Lutheran church, will officiate. Interment, at Memory Gardens Memorial park, will be private.

Mr. Winkelman, the son of Frederick W. Winkelman and Rachel Ratcke, was born Feb. 12, 1887, in Buffalo, N. Y. He was a carpenter's foreman and contractor in Los Angeles from 1922 to 1953.

He moved to Medford in 1953 where he continued his employment as a carpenter until his retirement. He was a member of the Carpenters Local Union.

His wife, Mrs. Rose May Winkelman, preceded him in death Jan. 19, 1960.

Survivors include three daughters, Mrs. Victoria Paul, Wichita, Kan., Mrs. Lyvian Vernand, San Bernadino, Calif., and Mrs. Florence Lovelady, San Bernadino, Calif.

MINNIE COLPITTS

Mrs. Minnie Colpitts, 73, died in Ashland Community hospital Thursday. Funeral arrangements will be announced by Perl Funeral home.

JOSEPH DAMEWOOD

Funeral services for Joseph Elsworth Damewood, 97, of Gold Hill, who died Thursday in a Medford hospital, will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday, June 2 in the Smith Funeral Chapel, Cottage Grove, Ore. Memory Gardens Funeral Home, Medford, is in charge of arrangements.

Interment will be in the IOOF cemetery, Cottage Grove.

Mr. Damewood was born June 1, 1864, at Blackwell Hill, near Jacksonville, the son of John and Nancy Jane Damewood. In 1890, he was married to Edna Mary Sloan, who survives, at Eugene.

During his life before retirement, he was a construction foreman with the O.P. and E. Railroad, and with Lane county. He and Mrs. Damewood have lived in Gold Hill since 1950. Prior to that, they resided in Cottage Grove.

He was a charter member of the Cottage Grove IOOF lodge, having been active there for 77 years.

Survivors, besides his wife, include a son, Elsworth Damewood, Bend, Ore.; two daughters, Mrs. Jack (Bertha) Ryan, Cave Junction, Ore., and Mrs. L. L. (Bernice) Slagle, Sisters, Ore.; a sister, Mrs. Alice Slagle, Upton, Wyo.; seven grandchildren, and 20 great grandchildren.

MRS. MAE SHULTS

Mrs. Mae Shults, 84, died May 30 in Klamath Falls where she had made her home recently with a daughter after living in Rogue River for more than 40 years.

She was born July 1, 1877, in Crescent City, Calif., a daughter of Walter and Rebecca King.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday, June 2, at the Hope Presbyterian church, Rogue River. Interment will be in Woodville cemetery.

Joe Shults, her husband, and one son, Virgil Shults, preceded her in death.

Survivors include her daughter, Mrs. Neva Cummings, Klamath Falls; four grandchildren, 11 great grandchildren, one brother, David King, Phoenix, Ore.; four sisters, Mrs. Etta Erskine, Los Angeles; Mrs. Nellie Melvin and Mrs. Julia Smith, both Monrovia, Calif., and Mrs. Happie Rader, Grenada, Calif.

AMALLA WELCH

A memorial service for Mrs. Amalla Welch, of the Rogue Valley Manor, who died Wednesday, will be held in the Meeker Chapel at the First Methodist church at 3 p.m. Sunday. The Rev. George Roseberry will officiate.

The body will be returned to Ft. Collins, Colo., for burial beside her husband Thursday, June 7. Conger-Morris Funeral directors are in charge of local arrangements.

Friends who wish may make a donation to the general memorial fund of the First Methodist church, of which Mrs. Welch was a member.

Mrs. Welch was born in Lincoln, Nebr., but moved to Wellington, Colo., when a child. Since 1930 she had resided in Cheyenne, Wyo., where her husband, the late Raymond R. Welch, was an electrician for the Veterans administration hospital for about 20 years.

In the fall of 1960, she moved to Medford, and had made her home in Rogue Valley Manor since its opening.

Her husband preceded her in death Dec. 5, 1956, in Cheyenne.

She was a member of the First Methodist church, and of the Order of Eastern Star.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Robert Hostetter, Medford; and two sisters, Mrs. Lee Kent, Wellington, Colo., and Mrs. Kate Gordon, Long Beach, Calif.

MARGARET McLEAN

Mrs. Margaret McLean, 431 West 11th st., Medford, died yesterday in a local hospital. Funeral arrangements will be announced by Conger - Morris Funeral directors.
