

Medford Pair Wed In Church Rites

An event of May 25 was the marriage of Miss Joan Grey Harbison, 1546 Kenyon avenue, to Dennis Windfield Hammond, 423 Beatty street. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel B. Harbison, 2125 Orchard Home drive, and Mr. Hammond's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hammond of the Beatty street address.

Dr. D. Kirkland West officiated at the eight o'clock evening candlelight ceremony attended by 190 relatives and friends. Lavender and white gladioli decorated the church for the double-ring rites.

Mrs. Dudley Peterson played the organ wedding music and accompanied Otis Swisher, soloist.

Wears Lace

The bride wore a white ballerina length gown of Chantilly lace fashioned with fitted bodice, long sleeves, and tiered skirt. Her elbow length veil was held by a pearl and rhinestone crown and she carried a bouquet of carnations and white orchids. Mr. Harbison escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage.

Miss Donna Chidress attended the bride. She wore a lavender satin knee-length dress with short length skirt. Her flowers were white and lavender gladioli.

Larry Hammond acted as best man for his brother. Seating the guests were Frank James, Michael Travis, James Harbison, a brother of the bride, and Larry Nomenaker.

For her daughter's wedding and reception Mrs. Harbison chose a pink lace dress with matching coat and pink and white accessories. Mrs. Hammond wore a light blue dress with white and black accessories. Their corsages were of pink roses and carnations.

A reception was held following the wedding in the fellowship hall of the church. Cutting the cake were Mrs. Joe Reuter, aunt of the bride, assisted by Mrs. Lyle Andersen, cousin; Mrs. Kenneth Juza, and Mrs. Peter Walery, both aunts, all of Salem. Miss Marlene Froeber presided at the punch bowl and Miss Teresa Thomas poured coffee. Mrs. Charles Hundley was in charge of the guest book. The reception hall was decorated by Mrs. Lloyd Neilson, Mrs. Arnold Bohner and Mrs. Charles Cummings.

Make Home Here
The couple traveled to Reno and San Francisco on their wedding trip, the bride wearing a mint green suit with black patent accessories. They are making their home in Medford.

The bride attended Medford High school and Southern Oregon college and is employed in the engineering department of the City of Medford as a clerk-stenographer. Mr. Hammond also attended Medford High school and Southern Oregon college and is a salesman for Singler Auto supply.

Among the bride's relatives who attended the wedding and reception were Mr. Reuter, Mr. Walery, Mr. Andersen, Kristy Andersen, and Miss Sally Jo Juza, all cousins, all of Salem. Relatives of the bridegroom included Mrs. Alvin Minshall, the Misses Karen Bengtson, Linda Carver, Sandy Higginbotham, Barbara Darby, Mrs. E. K. Witt, mother of the bride-to-be and Mrs. Richard Kaye, mother of the groom-to-be.

Mrs. Burns made decorated two heart-shaped cakes in pink and white, with the names of the bride and bridegroom inscribed on them. Miss Karen Bengtson served the cake and Miss Carol Burns served coffee.

The marriage of Miss Witt to Glenn Kaye is set for June 17, with the ceremony to be held at the Church of the Brethren, Medford.

Present at the shower besides the hostesses and the guest of honor were Mrs. Donald Steinmetz, Mrs. Cox, Mrs. Horace Doolen, Mrs. Alvin Minshall, the Misses Karen Bengtson, Linda Carver, Sandy Higginbotham, Barbara Darby, Mrs. E. K. Witt, mother of the bride-to-be and Mrs. Richard Kaye, mother of the groom-to-be.

Student Wins CFG Highest Rank

Miss Sharon Baize received the Camp Fire Girls highest rank, that of torch bearer in social leadership, at a recent Medford Grand Council Fire ceremony. She is the fifth girl in the council to receive the award since the council was chartered in 1935. Sharon's sister, Susan, received the award in 1960. They are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Baize, 1037 West Eleventh street.

Miss Baize received her sterling silver candle holder, symbol of the rank, from N. H. Gladfelter, a member of the board of directors of the Rogue council, Camp Fire Girls. Her Camp Fire Group is Ayuzuta Horizon club.

She achieved her trail seeker rank in February of 1958; her wood gatherer rank in May 1958; firemaker in May 1959; torch bearer craftsman in art in May 1960 and torch bearer craftsman in homemaking in May 1961.

Miss Baize taught handcraft at Blue Bird day camp the summers of 1959 and 1960, and 1960, and assisted with the second grade Blue Birds of Jackson School in 1960-1961.

Since beginning work on the torch bearer in social leadership, Sharon has assisted with the leadership of the third grade Jolly Blue Birds of Jackson school. She taught outdoor skills at two camp skill training sessions for Camp Fire guardians and girls during November 1961, and has 10 hours of service sewing for the welfare department to her credit. During this year she has given a total of 26 hours of service to Camp Fire. Sharon will attend resident camp this summer as a program aide counselor.

Miss Baize, who will be a senior in Medford High school next fall, is an honor roll student. She will be copy editor for the Crater, the school year book; she is a member of the French club and of the Pep club, of which she will be secretary next year.

Heritage Association Accepts Four for Tour

Four valley young women will leave in late June on the first part of a trip which will take them to Europe for the entire summer. Those who will make the trip are Miss Marsha Watson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Watson, 3390 Ross lane; Miss Teresa Six, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Six, 250 Lyman avenue; Miss Charlotte Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert R. Brown, 2238 Aloha street, and Miss Beverly Klimko, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Klimko, 3275 Military road.

Miss Watson and Miss Six are senior students at Medford High school and Miss Brown is a junior student there. Miss Klimko is a senior at Crater High school.

The young women are making the trip through the American Heritage association, which headquarters at Lake Oswego, Ore. This is the first year that a tour to Europe has been made through the association. Previously tours were in this country and last year a tour of Mexico was made.

The students are chosen, after making application, on their scholastic standings and recommendations of their schools. The trip is for educational purposes.

To Take Course
The group will leave Medford for Portland where they will receive an orientation course, and then will leave by bus across country to Washington, D.C. There they will receive further orientation and later leave for New York City by way of Jamestown, Va., and Yorktown, Pa., with other members of the tour.

On July 10 they will embark for London, England. Countries in addition to Britain which are on the tour are France, Germany, Austria, Italy, the Netherlands, Belgium and Switzerland.

During the trip the group will be broken into smaller groups according to the interests of those on the tour. On August 1, Miss Brown and Miss Klimko will join those particularly interested in French and they will spend the remainder of their time, about a month, in French speaking areas.

Miss Watson and Miss Six will continue with the general European cultural group. There also is a section for those who are interested in the German speaking areas.

The various sections will meet again before their return to the United States. They are scheduled to arrive in New York City about September 1.
