

Jerome Anxious to Sprint Against Hayes & Budd Again

By JAMES F. FOUR
United Press International
Eugene—Oregon's Harry Jerome is anxious to meet Bob Hayes of Florida A&M and Frank Budd of Villanova again.

It's simple. He wants to prove he's the best sprinter in the world.

Jerome, a 20-year-old junior from Vancouver, B.C., figures to get his chance this month. The occasion is the NCAA track and field championships here June 15-16.

"I'm looking forward to the meet," the soft-spoken Canadian said. "Hayes and Budd will be tough but I hope I can do my part for my school."

Bill Bowerman's unbeaten Oregon forces, with the likes of Jerome, Miller Dyrrol Burleson and hurdler Jerry Tarr, are favored to win the meet.

And anything could happen if all these sprinters get together in one race. Jerome nipped Hayes in the California Relays last month in the 100 and his last loss in the distance was to Budd in the NCAA finals last year. He was second.

Hayes holds an impressive win over Budd in 100 meters this year. He topped the fleet Easterner at the Los Angeles Coliseum Relays last month.

Record Co-holder

"They're both great runners," Jerome said when asked to compare the two. "It's tough to make a comparison. Either one could beat the other in a given race."

Hayes and Budd are co-holders of the world's record in the century at 9.2 seconds. Jerome, who has galloped to four 9.3s and a 20.8 in the 220-yard dash this spring, explains he's much stronger this year.

"I'm stronger and that's why I am having a better year. It's because of maturity. I don't mean only physical maturity but mental maturity, too. I'm adjusting better to academic work."

Jerome had done only one 9.3 before this spring.

"I think it's only a matter of time before I get down to 9.2," he added. "But I'm not particularly worried about my times just as long as I win."

Holds Meter Mark

The 6-foot, 170-pound Vancouver athlete, who doesn't think the damp Pacific Northwest is a deterrent to his running, also is the co-holder of the world's record in the 100-meter dash at 10 seconds flat. He turned in the effort in 1960 in Canada.

And last month, in the same meet in which he beat Hayes, he teamed with three Oregon hurdlers to tie the world's record in the 440-yard relay at 40 seconds flat. Texas set the mark at 1957.

It was his anchor leg that led to victory and the record-equaling time.

Jerome has a tremendous start and a brilliant finish but he doesn't think there's any strong point to his sprinting ability. "I try to do everything well," he said.

Which race does he like best?

"The 220," he answered. "I just like the distance better."

In addition to the NCAA meet, the Oregon star has several other goals.

He will compete for Canada in the British Empire Games at Perth, Australia, in November. And he is pointing to the 1964 Olympic Games.

After college, Jerome wants to coach and do government work in Canada.

Approximately 300 Entries Likely in Spring Drag Races

Drag racing will be one of the top sports features this week end, June 9-10 in Southern Oregon.

White City strip is the site of the 1962 Oregon Spring Championship drag races sponsored by Southern Oregon Timing Association.

The affair is expected to draw some 300 of the top racers in the Pacific Northwest and Northern California.

Advance entries include many of the Sports' top contenders including the national champion Skeans & Pickering team of Vancouver, Washington. The Glass Slipper of Sacramento, Calif., is expected to be in contention as is the Shoeborn of Reno, Nevada. More than twenty five sleek all-out acceleration "dragsters" are entered in the meet.

Gas and Fuel

Competition will be held in both the gas and fuel divisions with more than $1,000 in prize money going to the winners.

Special features include powderpuff events for the girls and Saturday afternoon stock car races for trophies.

Gates open Saturday at 10 a.m. for timed runs against the electronic clocks. Sunday action gets underway at 7 a.m. and stock eliminations begin at 10:30 a.m. Sunday entry deadline for stock cars is 9 a.m. and all other entries must be registered before 12 noon.

The faster entries will have their elimination races Sunday afternoon, followed by trophy and award presentation.

The drag strip is located seven miles north of Medford off the Crater Lake highway in west White City. Concessions will be available at the track.

Ira Unanimous All-Star Choice

Pullman, Wash.—UPI—Cecil Ira, Oregon State pitcher, was the lone unanimous choice on the Northern Division all-star baseball team for 1962 announced by vote of the five team coaches today.

Only one other man from the champion club made the all-stars. He is Al Lehrer, picked for the third base spot.

The only team not to place a man on the all-stars was Washington, which finished last.

The coaches were tied in their choice for first base between Paul Tomlinson, Washington State University and Mike Stowe, Idaho.

Other choices were second base—Dave Moore, Oregon; shortstop—Zeke Blockinger, WSU; outfielder—Bob Walker, WSU; Cal Dean, Oregon; and Dick Mooney, Idaho.

Pat Crook, WSU, was tapped for catcher and Bob Christiansen, Oregon, was named the second pitcher.

Denny Moyer To Fight Teddy Wright Saturday

New York—UPI—Middleweight contender Denny Moyer was scheduled to arrive today from Portland, Ore., for his substitute television fight with Teddy Wright of Detroit at Madison Square Garden Saturday night.

The Moyer-Wright bout replaces the heavyweight contenders' match between Eddie Machen and Cleveland Williams, which was postponed indefinitely Monday night because of a brow-cut suffered by Machen in training.

In the Moyer-Wright 10-rounder, 22-year-old Denny will be seeking family vengeance against 25-year-old Wright, who won a unanimous decision over Denny's older brother, Phil, 23, at the Garden on May 26.

Denny was originally slated to fight Wright on May 26 but he suffered an ear infection and had to withdraw. Brother Phil substituted and gave Wright a hard fight although he lost the unanimous decision.

The week's boxing schedule includes:

Tuesday: London—Dave Charnley vs. Doug Vaillant.

Wednesday: Miami Beach—Mike DeJohn vs. Bert Whitehurst; St. Jerome, Que.—Bob Cleroux vs. Jimmy Simpson.

Thursday: Los Angeles Olympic—Tony Herrera vs. Ray Valdez.

Friday: Oakland, Calif.—Bobby Scanlon vs. Al McMane; Totowa, N.J.—Tom McNeely vs. Don McAteer.

Saturday: New York Garden—Eddie Machen vs. Cleveland Williams (TV).

Koufax Fans 13 As LA Stops Phils

By NORMAN MILLER
UPI Sports Writer

Twice during his career Sandy Koufax strained his manager's patience to the breaking point, and now for his forbearance skipper Walter Alton of the Los Angeles Dodgers is being rewarded with the best National League strikeout pitching since Dizzy Vance.

Koufax struck out 13 batters Monday night in pitching the Dodgers to a three-hit, 6-3 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies. It was the only game played in the major leagues and it moved the Dodgers to within two games of the first-place San Francisco Giants.

This was the fourth straight game in which Koufax struck out 10 or more batters and it raised his season total to 123 whiffs. At this rate, the 26-year-old lefthander could surpass Vance's 282 strikeouts in 1924 and the league record of 267 set by Christy Mathewson in 1903.

Not Always So

All this fine flinging makes Koufax mighty popular with Alton these days, but it wasn't always thus.

As late as 1960, when Koufax had an 8-13 record, Alton was beginning to wonder if he'd ever learn how to control his blazing fastball.

"Koufax is a mystery," Alton lamented. "He can't throw anything but one kind of ball—a high one."

"Still, you can't give up on him."

Monday night's triumph, made easier by the homers by Wally Moon and John Rose-boro, was Koufax' eighth against two defeats. And for a while it looked like he might wind up with a one-hitter.

Tony Taylor hit his first pitch of the game for a single, but Koufax gave up no more hits until Johnny Callisan singled with one out in the ninth. A walk and Jackie Davis' homer produced Philadelphia's three runs.

Art Mahaffey was the loser on his 24th birthday, making his record 5-7.

Jackson County Softball association enters the fourth week of its season with two games this evening at Cheney field.

International Harvester will oppose Butte Falls at 6:45 p.m. and Central Point merchants and Sam Jennings company will meet in the second game.

Tru Mix Concrete and Mail Tribune will meet in the early Wednesday contest and Keith Schulz Garage is billed against Communications Workers of America.

In a Sunday makeup game Jay Allen Cars moved into lone hold on fourth spot in the standings with a 2 to 1 nod over Central Point.

Rival pitchers Jim Reinholdt of Jay Allen and Vern Neiswanger of Central Point each gave up three hits. Each walked three. Neiswanger fanned six and Reinholdt four.

Getting hits for the Carmen were Tom Perdue, Jerry Shults and Jim House. CP safeties were by Jim Haginbotham, Dale Lane and Neiswanger.

JW Loggers Defeat GP

John Wheeler Logging of Medford took 8 to 1 and 1 to 0 softball victories from the Grants Pass Elks Sunday as pitchers Vern Collins and Milan Kurtz tossed one-hitters.

Collins fanned 13 batters and walked two in the first game. Bill Weddle got two of his Loggers team's eight hits. He and Jack Brown doubled.

Kurtz issued one base on balls. He whiffed seven. The pitcher aided his own winning cause by getting a hit in the sixth inning. Jack Dier was sent in to run for him. With two out, Fuz McCarry was safe at first and Dier reached third on a dropped third strike. Don Jacobson then slashed a hot single to score Dier.

The Loggers will play the defending state champion Randall's Chuck Wagon team of Salem in a twinnbill on Saturday night at Memorial field, White City.

Tacoma, Making Drive in PCL, Tops Portland

United Press International
Defending champion Tacoma is on the move in the Pacific Coast League, thanks to a big push from reliever Don Carlson.

He won his fourth game in eight days Monday night as the Giants came from behind to pull out a 9-8 decision from Portland. It was the Giants' sixth straight and moved the sixth-place Giants to within five games of idle Salt Lake City, which has led the league from almost the opening day.

San Diego pounded out an 8-2 decision over Hawaii in Monday night's only other action.

Tacoma was down 8-6 after seven Monday night as Run Debus' three run homer for the Beavers appeared to have sewed things up.

But John Orsino homered and then Ricardo Joseuh delivered his third hit of the night. Two walks, Gil Carideo's single and Dusty Rhodes' sacrifice fly gave Tacoma the win.

Homers told the tale in Honolulu. Tom Harper hit a pair and Jesse Gonder one to lead the Padres. Big league veteran Joe Nuxhall baffled the Islanders all night and spaced four hits.

It was his second win against no losses in PCL play.

The line scores:

Portland 021 010 400-8 15 2
Tacoma 001 400 120-9 9 6
Gigie, Grant (4) and Ricketts; Thomas, Soye (3), Carlson (7), Osniski (7), Arruda (6) and Orsino

San Diego 822 300 100-8 9 0
Hawaii 010 001 000-2 4 3
Nuxhall and Gonder; Gatewood, Palica (4), Brown (8) and White.

NEW PILOT—Charley Metro, 44, veteran minor league manager, has succeeded Lou Klein as head coach of the Chicago Cubs, team officials announced today.

Bigras and Congdon Qualify at Tacoma For U. S. Open Golf

Tacoma—UPI—Adrian Bigras, a Montreal golfer now stationed at Ft. Lewis, and Chuck Congdon, Tacoma pro, qualified at Fircrest Golf Club Course here Monday for the U.S. Open.

Bigras, who was sent to Ft. Lewis when drafted while working in the United States, shot a 70-70-140. Congdon shot 73-68-141 to qualify.

Ockie Eliason, Tacoma, beat Bruce Cudd, Portland, for the alternate spot. Both had finished at 142.

The open will be held at Oakmont, Pa., June 14-16.

St. Luke's Still Unbeaten in Church Softball

St. Luke's Methodist remained unbeaten in the YMCA church softball league by coming from behind to score a 10 to 4 victory over First Nazarene at McLoughlin field Monday night.

Nazarene scored a run in the first inning on a hit batter and an error but St. Luke's came up with three runs in the second stanza to take command of the game.

Dave Jordan pitched hitless ball for St. Luke's until he gave up a home run to Dave Gardner and a single to Renie Vowell in the sixth inning. After walking two consecutive batters in the seventh, Jordan gave way to Denny Pugmire, who gave up two hits before retiring the side.

Gardner got two hits in two times at bat. Pugmire topped St. Luke's hitters with three for three and John Hay had two for four.

New Conference Said Necessary

Spokane—UPI—A conference is necessary to build up interest for basketball, T. Hank Anderson, athletic director of Gonzaga university, said Monday.

Anderson outlined to the Inland Empire Sports Writers and Broadcasters his reasons for supporting a proposed new basketball conference.

Gonzaga was one of seven schools represented at a meeting at Hayden Lake, Idaho, last week in which the proposed conference was discussed.

Anderson said the conference would ease scheduling problems and provide uniform standards for entrance requirements and scholarships among the member schools, most of which play each other now.

Other schools involved in the talks included Idaho, Idaho State, Seattle U., Weber College, Portland U. and Portland State college. Anderson said Portland State, the only school now a member of a conference, appeared a doubtful prospect.

Baird Has Best Open Qualifying Score

By United Press International
Sam Snead and a host of the nation's leading golfers set out to top the score of little Fred (Butch) Baird of Galveston, Tex., today when the qualifying competition for the U.S. Open championship winds up at seven different sites.

Baird, a red-haired, 5-foot-9, 150-pounder who is playing only his third year on the pro circuit, had the best 36-hole qualifying score of Monday's competition at six different sites. Baird's 68-69 for a three-under-par 137 topped a crack field playing at Memphis.
