Two Persons Hurt In Auto Accidents

Two persons received comparatively minor injuries during a series of accidents Saturday and Sunday on Jackson county highways, state police said.

James Thomas McKenzie, 18, of 8477 Highway 99 south, Ashland, was treated at the Ashland hospital for a deep cut on the top of his head following an accident early Sunday morning.

His car was traveling along Crowson rd. near the Green Springs highway intersection when the left rear tire went flat. The car left the road, went through a section of fence and came to rest against a power pole.

Keldon Gaylord Adams, 59, of 1431 Maple Park dr., Medford, was treated for minor injuries at the Rogue Valley hospital. His car and one driven by Paul Emery Larson, 3275 Hollywood ave., Medford, collided on Airport rd. east of the Medford airport Saturday night.

Late Saturday afternoon, a boat on a trailer was badly damaged just north of Phoenix on the South Pacific highway, state police said.

Strange As It Seems

THE DELAWARE INDIANS, ONE OF THE STRONGEST OF OLD NEW ENGLAND TRIBES, WERE REGARDED AS ALL WOMEN BY OTHER INDIANS BECAUSE OF THEIR OBEDIENCE TO THE WHITE MAN! LATER REVOLT AND A REIGN OF TERROR REINSTATED THEM AS MEN WITH THEIR PEOPLE!
