Foreign Aid Vote Falls Short of Kennedy Request

Washington—The House Foreign Affairs Committee Tuesday gave its final approval to a $4,668,500,000 foreign aid authorization bill which fell $810 million short of what President Kennedy wanted.

The committee vote, taken behind closed doors, was 21-4. The House group, led by Rep. Thomas E. Morgan (D-Pa.), chopped $210 million from Kennedy's general aid requests for next fiscal year. It cut another $600 million from the President's long-range Alliance for Progress aid plan for Latin America.

Meanwhile, Sen. John

Sparkman (D-Ala.) urged approval of the Senate's $4,682,000,000 version of the aid bill. In opening floor debate, he called the measure "a realistic approach to United States interests abroad" and a needed buffer to "the pressure of Communist imperialism."

His Senate Foreign Relations Committee approved the bill, 14-3.

Kennedy originally asked for a $4,678,500,000 program. The Senate committee trimmed it by $216.5 million, including $100 million from the $400 million requested for Kennedy's contingency fund.

But the Senate group left intact a requested four-year, $3 billion authority for Kennedy's Alliance for Progress.

program for Latin America. The $4,682,000,000 total includes $600 million for the first year.
