The regular Sunday Bible classes will meet at 9:45 a.m. this week. The sixth graders, taught by Claude Eaker and Bob Balch, will begin a new series of studies entitled "Heroic Christians." Following the Bible classes and the communion service at 10:45 a.m., Mr. Bridges will speak in recognition of the day of "Pentecost to Me."

At the 7 p.m. service, his sermon will be titled "Nothing!"

NEW AGE CHURCH "Are You an Image Thinker?" will be the subject of a lecture at 2:30 p.m. Sunday by Dr. Dell E. Millard, at the New Age church, north of Eagle Point, on Hammel rd. Preceding the lecture there will be a fellowship dinner at 1 p.m. and a musical half-hour at 2 p.m.

Assistant Pastor Honored By Priests at Banquet

The Most Rev. Edward D. Howard, archbishop of Portland in Oregon, and about 50 priests of the archdiocese and the Diocese of Baker gathered at the Rogue Valley Country club Tuesday evening to pay tribute to the Rev. William McLeod and to celebrate the occasion of the 25th anniversary of his ordination to the Roman Catholic priesthood.

The banquet for the clergy in the Starlight room was one of the gifts to Father McLeod made possible by the contributions of many friends and parishioners. A public reception honoring the silver jubilee had been held May 27.

At the dinner the Rev. Martin Doherty of Albany, a longtime friend of Father McLeod, presided as toastmaster. Among those he introduced were the Rt. Rev. Msgr. George J. Campbell, Portland, whose remarks were offered as an older member of the clergy and another friend of many years of the honored guest.

Spoke for Priests The Very Rev. Carl Mai, pastor of Sacred Heart church, spoke in behalf of the priests of the diocese and presented a purse from them to Father McLeod.

Speaking last, to offer his congratulations and blessing, was Archbishop Howard.

During the evening a musical program was presented by the Marian choir and the Boys' Glee club of St. Mary's High school, directed by Sister Miriam Joseph, SNJM.

Donald Macpherson, tenor and graduate of the parochial school, was soloist. Organ dinner music was played by Marilyn Guldan, Ingrid Bergstrom and Jennifer Espey.

Solemn High Mass Immediately preceding the banquet, Father McLeod offered a solemn high mass of thanksgiving in the presence of the bishop in Sacred Heart church.

Attending the archbishop in the sanctuary were the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Edmund J. Murnane, Eugene, and the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Edmund G. Van der Zanden, Portland.

Assisting Father McLeod in the celebration of the mass were Father Mai, deacon, and the Rev. Arthur P. Dermback, sub-deacon. The Rev. John A. Iig was master of ceremonies.

Methodist Pastor Transferred To Heppner Church

The Rev. Melvin Dixon, minister of St. Luke's Methodist church, 2940 Siskiyou blvd., will preach his farewell sermon to the congregation during the 11 a.m. worship hour Sunday.

His subject will be, "The Continuing Church." A coffee hour will be held in the church parlor immediately following the service to honor the Dixons.

Mr. Dixon came to Medford from the Willamette valley in June, 1957, when the small year-old congregation was meeting in Bingham hall on the fairgrounds. The late Dr. I. D. Higgs gave the property for St. Luke's to build on, and in August, 1958, the congregation moved into the new unfinished chapel and education unit.

Since that time the membership has grown from 50 to almost triple that number. Last summer the church built a new parsonage on Lindero ave. and is anticipating a new sanctuary in the next several years.

Mr. Dixon expects his appointment at the annual conference now convening at Salem and will move next week to Heppner, Ore.

While in the valley Mr. Dixon has been active in a number of organizations and is immediate past president of the Medford Ministerial association.

Student Day To Be Observed Sunday

Methodist Student day will be observed at First Methodist church Sunday.

Dr. George Roseberry will preach at both morning worship services on "A Solitary Life." The Rev. Gerald Nelson, associate pastor, will give a short summary of the Methodist annual conference which he and Dr. Roseberry have been attending all week at Willamette university.

Mrs. D. G. MacDougall will sing "Entreat Me Not to Leave Thee" for both the 9:30 and 11 a.m. services. The youth choir will sing "Praise to the Lord, Almighty" for the early service, and the chancel choir, "Sanctus" for the second service.

The Senior High Methodist Youth Fellowship will meet at the church at 6:30 p.m. with Sherri Smith and Denna Taylor in charge of the program on "Churches for the New Times." Tuesday beginning at 7 p.m. this group will have a barbecue and fun night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Higgins, 2200 Oakwood dr. There will be a MYF Workshop at Camp Magruder, June 10 to 16, for all sub-district officers.

The College Age Fellowship will have a "Brain-storming" session at 6:30 p.m. Sunday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Verne Wilson, 1556 South Ivy st. It will be a homecoming for students who have been in college, as well as a welcome to new members.

Mr. Robert France, director of Christian education, will conduct a training session for vacation church school at 10 a.m. Monday.

Community Bible To Host Choir

Central Point - The annual Vacation Bible school sponsored by the Community Bible church, Fourth and Alder sts., Central Point, begins Monday at 9 a.m. The school will continue through June 22 with sessions from 9 to 11:30 a.m.

"Patriots for Christ" is the VBS study course offered in all departments.

The Bible school is open to all children four years and older. The Sunday school buses will operate on the regular Sunday School routes picking up the children one hour earlier than the Sunday schedule.

The King's Royal Heirs, a 15 voice choral group from King's Garden, Seattle, has been scheduled Monday, June 11, at 7:30 p.m. at the church.

The choral group of Senior High students will be one of two groups travelling from King's Garden during the month of June in the capacity of Gospel teams.

Special lighting effects and solos and ensembles will be a part of the program presented.

Christian Science Lesson Topic Told

The spiritual source of intelligence and creativity will be brought out in the lesson Sunday at First Church of Christ, Scientist, 100 Windsor ave.

"God the Only Cause and Creator" will be the subject of the 11 a.m. lesson-sermon which will include the passage from Isaiah 45:5.

Young people up to the age of 20 are invited to attend Sunday school. All are invited to attend the services.

Congregational Lists Changes

The Congregational church, 2100 Oakwood dr., will begin its summer schedule of services and church school Sunday.

The service of worship and the church school classes will be from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. each Sunday through the first week in September.

During the worship hour, pre-school children will be cared for in Pilgrim house. Children of grade school age and older will attend church with their parents.

After the children's sermon, the first through fourth graders will be dismissed to their class.

Mrs. Don Bohner will conduct the summer class for six through nine year olds. Children in the fifth grade and beyond will remain in church for the worship hour.

The Rev. Robert W. Tull, minister of the church, will preach a Pentecost sermon Sunday entitled "Power with Purpose."

Sunday during the Pilgrim Fellowship meeting at 6 p.m. in Pilgrim house plans for the summer will be discussed.

The church moderator, Don Bohner, has called a church council meeting for Tuesday, June 12, at 8 p.m. in Pilgrim house. Each elected officer, committee and board chairman, and organizational leader will give a brief verbal report of recent business and anticipated concerns. There will also be discussion and evaluation of the year just ended and of building program progress.

Thursday at 8 p.m., the members of the church will have a congregational meeting in the sanctuary. The purpose of the meeting is to receive and act upon recommendations from the building committee and the board of trustees concerning further progress in the building program.

Pastor To Preach Farewell Sermon

The Rev. Elvin S. Tollefson, pastor of Ascension Lutheran church, 2301 Barnett rd., will preach his farewell sermon Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service. His topic will be "Christ's Gift of Power and Peace." Infant baptism will be held.

Mr. and Mrs. Tollefson will spend the summer vacationing in Montana, Washington and Oregon. They plan first to visit their children and grandchildren in the Polson, Mont., area.

Foursquare Church Schedules School

Vacation Bible school will begin Monday, June 11, at 9 a.m. at the Foursquare church 2200 Roberts rd. The session will last until 11:30 a.m. Superintendent of the school will be Mrs. Dan Haas.

Children from four years through junior high school may attend. The school will end June 22 with a program to be presented and work displayed on June 21. The last day the group will have a picnic.

At the Sunday 11 a.m. service at the church the Rev. K. L. Mathewson will receive members into the church. At the 7:30 p.m. service a baptismal service is scheduled.

Yreka Church To Have Open House

Yreka - A second open house at the remodeled Yreka St. Mark's Episcopal church will be held Sunday afternoon. The first was held May 27.

Members of the Couples club of the church were hosts and guides to the public to show the church. Visitors were shown what has been done to restore the church which was recently damaged by fire.

The remodeling is not complete, it was noted, as some windows have to be replaced and the basement has not been furnished. The new pews arrived in time to be installed before the first open house was held, it was reported.

The choir is now seated at the rear of the church and a new organ installed. St. Mark's church has been a landmark and a part of the Yreka history.

Central Church To Have Anniversary

Central Church of Christ Sunday will celebrate the first anniversary of services in their new building at 1440 South Oakdale ave. A potluck dinner is planned following the morning service.

In observance of this occasion and in remembrance of the day of Pentecost, John V. Heberling, minister, will speak on "The Anniversary of the Church" at the 11 a.m. worship hour.

The Junior Boys and Girls youth groups will meet at 6:30 p.m. The Senior Youth group will have their meeting following the evening worship service. They will go to West Main Church of Christ and join the youth group for a singspiration.

"The Significance of Pentecost" will be the title of the sermon brought by the minister at the 7:30 p.m. service.

Vacation Bible School at Central Church begins Wednesday, June 13, at 9 a.m. Although pre-registration has been emphasized, it is not necessary to be pre-registered to attend. Any child between four years of age and junior high school age is welcome. The theme for this year is "My Bible and I."

Catholics Observe Pentecost With Masses, Prayers

Red vestments will be worn at masses in Sacred Heart Catholic church Sunday, and a special Sequence prayer of petition to the Holy Spirit will be recited on this Pentecost feastday. It commemorates the descent of the Holy Ghost upon the Apostles according to the promise of Christ.

The Vigil of Pentecost, Saturday, June 9, is a day of fast and partial abstinence for Roman Catholics. In Sacred Heart parish it is also the day of the monthly Exposition and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament.

From 1 to 9 p.m. hourly adoration prayers will be recited for the parish in general. Beginning at 9 p.m. and continuing until 6 a.m. Sunday men of the Nocturnal Adoration society will maintain their vigil before the exposed sacrament. All are welcome to participate in any hours of the devotions.

Catholics are also reminded by their pastor that the Summer Ember days occur during the coming week, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday are days of fast, with partial abstinence on Wednesday and Saturday and complete abstinence on Friday. This is, too, the last week during which the "Easter duty" may be fulfilled.

Assistant Pastor To Speak Sunday

"Fruits, Factions, and Familiarity" is the title of the sermon which the Rev. Wendell Wagler, assistant minister, will give at both services Sunday morning at the First Christian church. There will be a dedication of all budget commitments.

The junior choir will sing "Father, At Thy Throne We Bow" at the first service. The combined chancel and Chi Rho choirs will sing the anthem "Come, Thou, Holy Spirit" at the 10:55 a.m. service.

At 2:30 p.m. Sunday the Christian Youth Fellowship will leave the church for Twin Plunges and a picnic dinner in Lithia park. This is a graduation party to honor the seniors. CYF officers for the next six months will be elected during the business meeting.

The Chi Rho Fellowship will meet at 6:30 p.m. with Ann Bannister giving the study and Wayne Harbison leading the devotions.

Friday at 6:30 p.m. the Christian Youth Fellowship will sponsor a box social for the entire church in Fellowship hall. The proceeds will go toward the pledged mission goal of the youth group.

Mrs. Fred Simcox and Ross Conner will auction the boxes. The program will include a songfest and a talent show.

Daily Vacation Church school will be held the week of June 18, Monday through Friday, from 9 to 12 noon. The theme is "The Bible" and the school is open to all children from kindergarten through junior high age. A registration fee of 50 cents for each child will help defray the expenses. A staff meeting will be held Wednesday, June 13, at the church at 10 a.m.

Full Schedule Set At First Baptist

First Baptist Church, meeting at the Wilson school, Grand and Corona aves., Medford, will have a full schedule of services Sunday, according to the Rev. B. E. Andrews, pastor.

Sunday school is held at 9:40 a.m. At the 11 a.m. service, Mr. Andrews' message will be "Divine Emphases." Music for the service will be provided by a mixed trio and Mrs. Donn Platt will be soloist. Maynard Hadley is music leader for the services.

The 7:30 p.m. service will be highlighted with music provided by the Junior High Girls' trio and by Doug Bartholomew in a French horn solo. Mr. Andrews will speak on the subject, "Me First," the beginning of a series on "Men Who Met Jesus." The quiz program will be replaced this week with a "Question Time."

Nursery facilities will be available beginning this week at the Wilson school for both crib babies and toddlers.

Tuesday the men of the church will take their wives to a dinner at Kim's restaurant at 6:30 p.m. This is the monthly meeting of the Men's Fellowship.
