Award is Made To Vance Welty

Vance Welty, 2940 Hillcrest road, Medford, has won one of the top awards in drama for 1962 at Oregon State university.

Young Welty was picked as the best supporting actor of the year for his performance in "Three Men on a Horse."

He will be a sophomore next year in the School of Humanities and Social Sciences.

The OSU speech department presents six plays each year to give speech students experience in dramatics and to let other students on campus see the nation's outstanding plays.

Four students chosen outstanding for the year receive plaques sponsored by Masque and Dagger, national dramatics honorary.

Maxwell-Mooney Ceremony Held

An event of Sunday, June 3, was the marriage of Miss Marilyn Sue Mooney to David Alan Maxwell. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herschel L. Mooney, 2675 Hillcrest road, Medford, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Richard B. Maxwell, Cove Point, Klamath Falls, and the late Mr. Maxwell.

The double-ring ceremony was read by Dr. D. Kirkland West at four o'clock in the afternoon at First Presbyterian church of Medford. Mr. Mooney gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride wore a gown of silk organza and silk taffeta with appliques of re-embroidered Alencon lace. The billowing skirt was accented with a large pouf bow of the taffeta which extended into a chapel train. Her short bouffant tulle veil was held by a white satin Dior rose embroidered with seed pearls and she carried a cascade of gardenias and lily of the valley centered with a violet-throated white orchid.

Sisters Attend

Honor attendants for the bride were her two sisters, Mrs. Malcolm E. Sample, Demarest, N.J., and Mrs. Matthias F. Erieg, Garden City, Long Island, N.Y. Other attendants were Mrs. M. C. Bidington, Ashland, and Miss Myda McCabe, Medford. All four wore sheaths of white embroidered organza with miniature satin pillow hats and circular veils. Their slippers were of violet colored satin and they carried bouquets of blue iris and gardenias edged with violet statice.

Little Carol Ann Sample, niece of the bride, was flower girl. Her frock was of white organza and lace with appliques of embroidered violets and her hat was of white lace. She carried a white basket filled with Cecilie Brunner roses and violet statice.

Jack Prock, Klamath Falls, was best man for the bridegroom and ushers were Stuart Maxwell, Klamath Falls, his brother, Ray Smith, San Francisco, a brother-in-law, and Barry Pitts, San Francisco.

Lawrence Hobson was vocalist and Mrs. N. S. Thames was at the organ. Dan Vorheis and James Cummins lighted the candles.

The bride-elect is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Witt, 44 North Orange street. Her fiancé is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kaye, 1011 Mt. Pitt street. Mr. Kaye is a student at Oregon State college, and Miss Witt is an employee at Groceria Bakery.

Approximately 20 guests attended the shower.

Mrs. Allen Birman baked and decorated the cakes in blue and white. Mrs. Harold Breazeale served coffee, and Mrs. William Wash was in charge of games.

For the wedding ceremony and the reception which followed at Rogue Valley Country club the bride's mother wore a dress of peacock blue chiffon and blue feather hat in a paler shade of blue. Her corsage was of pink Picture rosebuds.

The wedding cake was served by Mrs. Smidt, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Prock. Mrs. Gordon Green took charge of the gift table and Mrs. Peck Hurd, Ashland, the guest book. Mrs. W. J. Moreland poured.

Baskets of stock in two shades of violet and white and gypsophila decorated the church, and the pew flowers were also stock and gypsophila.

Champagne punch was served from a table centered with an arrangement of white and violet stock and white Frau Karl Druschki roses and violet clematis blossoms completed the table decorations. The wedding cake was encircled with gardenias.

The newlyweds traveled to Seattle and Victoria, B.C., for their wedding trip, the bride wearing an apricot colored wool suit with bone colored accessories. They will live at the Medford Plaza apartments.

The bride attended Medford High school and Southern Oregon college. Mr. Maxwell, who attended Klamath Falls High school, the University of Oregon and Southern Oregon college, is an executive training program employee of the Modoc Lumber company, Klamath Falls. He has completed a tour of duty with the United States army and was stationed in Germany and France as a missile instructor.

Two parties were given just before the wedding day. The bridegroom's mother was hostess for the rehearsal dinner given at Mon Desir inn for family members, friends, and a few close friends. Eighteen attended.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Erieg, gave a supper for the bridegroom at the Mooney home. Decorations were in violet and white; ten attended.

The graduate was to arrive Friday from Linfield accompanied by a classmate, Miss Lola Martinson of Bremerton, Wash., and the two young women will spend the summer here. Miss Brood will teach next fall at the Winston-Dillard High school.

Other spring activities in which Ted has participated include: sound technician for "The Consul" opera; played Alphonse in "The Boy Friend" which toured Missouri and Kansas cities under the auspices of the Community Theater program of the university; drama designer for dance drama and three language plays, and participated in a series of Shakespeare scenes for a styles of acting class which will be performed on television, at various groups on campus, and in Kansas City. The scenes are "Taming of the Shrew," "Hamlet," and "Richard II."

Lawson is also the director of the combined Army-Air Force band for Kansas university parades, reviews and federal inspections.

To Hawaii Mr. and Mrs. E. L. McGraw and son, Tom McGraw, 3288 Hollywood avenue, left yesterday for Hawaii where they will be guests at the Rees hotel at Waikiki Beach. They will make the trip by plane.

Craig-DeMers Wedding Held in Phoenix Church

An event of June 3 was the marriage of Miss Alma Kay DeMers to Bobbie Franklin Craig. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. L. K. Walker, 4720 South Pacific highway, and Lloyd A. DeMers, San Francisco. Mr. Craig's parents are the Rev. and Mrs. Amos L. Craig, 306 First street, Phoenix.

The Rev. Mr. Craig officiated at his son's wedding which was held at two o'clock in the afternoon at the First Southern Baptist church, Phoenix. The double-ring, candlelight ceremony was attended by 125 relatives and friends. Trellises covered with ivy formed the background for the wedding party and the pews were decorated with white satin bows and ivy.

Ralph Craig, brother of the bridegroom, played the wedding music and accompanied, Miss Marilyn Popow, soloist.

The bride designed and made her wedding gown of white embroidered cotton batiste. The floor length gown was made with high scoon neckline, bouffant elbow length sleeves and bustle detail in the back. Her double shoulder length veil was held by a coronet of the same material of her gown. She wore short white gloves and carried a single, long-stemmed Talisman rose.

The bride's step-father, L. K. Walker, escorted her to the altar and gave her in marriage.

The bride's honor attendant was her sister, Mrs. Stuart H. Baker, Salem. Bridesmaids were Miss Wanda Lee Craig, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Jacqueline Howard. Mrs. Baker wore a white cotton batiste gown heavily embroidered in tones of apricot, mint and maize, designed with short jacket and bustle detail. A coronet held her short veil and her shoes were apricot colored. The bridesmaids' gowns of sheer Dacron were similar in design to that of matron of honor, but were sunlight maize in color as were their coronets, veils and shoes. The attendants wore short white gloves and carried cascade bouquets of ivy.

Terry Hulse served as best man for Mr. Craig. Seating the guests were Eldon Mitchell and John Martin.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Walker chose a cream colored shirtwaist dress with toast and bone accessories. Mrs. Craig wore a green dress with beige accessories. Their corsages were of yellow rosebuds.

A reception was held following the wedding.

Following a wedding trip to Laguna Beach, Calif., the couple will be at home in Rapid City, S.D.

The bride is a 1962 graduate of Phoenix High school and until her marriage was employed by Dr. James W. Bayliss of Medford. The bridegroom is a 1960 graduate of Phoenix High school and is currently on duty with the United States Air force stationed at Ellsworth Air Force Base, S.D.

Arrangements of peonies and iris decorated the rooms and the refreshment table was centered with white bells and streamers.

About 30 persons attended. Earlier she was honored at a shower given for her by classmates at Phoenix High school.

Friday evening, the bridegroom-elect's mother, Mrs. L. W. Wright, 1784 Springbrook road, gave a wedding rehearsal party in her home. Other friends joined the group and refreshments were served.

The bride-elect is a daughter of Mrs. John McFarlane of Nevada, and the late Jess Thompson.
