

Margaret Elise Bentz Bride of Odell Hayes Jr.

Derby-Miss Margaret Elise Bentz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bentz, Klamath, Calif., and Odell Hayes Jr., son of Mrs. Earnest Hawkins, Route 1, Box 748, Eagle Point, were married June 3 in a 3 o'clock afternoon ceremony. The wedding was held in the home of the bridegroom's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hayes, Box 119, Butte Falls highway, Eagle Point.

The Rev. Gerald Smith, formerly of the Reese Creek Community church, read the rites in the presence of about 20 guests.

Mr. Bentz gave his daughter in marriage and Mrs. Sandra Cox, Klamath, attended the bride. Dean Stockton was best man.

For her wedding the bride chose a suit of white lace over yellow taffeta with white accessories.

Mrs. Cox wore a two-piece light blue polished cotton dress.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Bentz wore a white taffeta full skirted frock and the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Hawkins, wore a blue suit with red accessories.

Out-of-town guests who attended the wedding reception that followed included the bride's grandmother, Mrs. M. Melton, Eugene, and her grandfather, M. Lister Bentz, Klamath; and T. Charles Whitaker, Richmond, Calif., a friend of the bridegroom.

For the wedding reception the Hayes home was decorated with pink and white carnations and roses.

The bride was honored at a shower previous to the wedding, when Mrs. Cox entertained at her home in Klamath.

The couple is living at 25 North B street, Eagle Point.

Marriage Plans Are Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hoyt, 815 Diamond avenue, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss JoAnn Hoyt, to Arthur Jennings, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Jennings, 735 Queens drive.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Milo academy and is employed at Rogue Valley hospital. Mr. Jennings attended Oregon Technical Institute, Klamath Falls, and is employed at the Lockheed Missile and Space Plant at Sunnyvale, Calif.

The ceremony is planned for July 1.

'Hard Times' Dance Planned

Townsend club members announce they will sponsor a "hard times" dance June 15 in the Pythian building. Those who attend are to wear costumes in keeping with the theme and those who are not costumed will be asked to pay a small fine, it was announced.

At the meeting of the group last Wednesday a council meeting was called for a decision on the amount of money the group would give to the Parade of States at National Convention and it was decided on the amount of $100.

Officers report that the club now is in second place in eligibility for a trophy at the forthcoming convention in Bremerton, Wash. The group now is working toward a first place.

Miss Rosanne Legas will spend the summer traveling in the United States and in Europe. She will accompany an aunt, Mrs. L. V. Townley, Bellingham, Wash., and is to meet Mrs. Townley in Vancouver, B.C., from where the two will fly to London.

Miss Legas To Travel

Miss Rosanne Legas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence E. Legas, 220 North Baraburg road, will leave Monday, June 11, for Seattle, Wash., on the first lap of a trip to Europe.

Miss Legas will spend several days at the Seattle World's Fair before joining her aunt, Mrs. L. V. Townley, Bellingham, Wash., in Vancouver, British Columbia, for their flight to London.

One of the highlights of her trip will be a week's visit in Schomberg, Germany, a village in the Black forest, where she will meet Miss Helga Gehlhaar. The two girls have been corresponding for several years, ever since Miss Legas saw Miss Gehlhaar's name in the Christian Science Monitor.

Miss Legas and her aunt will meet Miss Sharon Townley, cousin of the Medford girl, in Paris where Miss Townley lives. The trio will take an extensive motor trip through Europe.

The first part of July they will attend the festivals in Pamplona, Spain. Miss Legas will return to Medford September 9.

Meeting Planned By Star Chapter

Grand chapter reports will be made at a stated meeting of Reames chapter, Order of the Eastern Star on Thursday, June 14, at the Medford Masonic temple. Mrs. Lloyd Caton, worthy matron and Ross Gilkison, worthy patron, pro-tem will preside.

Mrs. Jesse Stagg and Mrs. Carrie Walters are in charge of refreshments for the evening.

Church in Grants Pass Is Scene of Wedding

Grants Pass - Miss Hazel Roberts Newman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vern C. Newman, 3523 New Hope road, Grants Pass, and Archie Wayne Krel, Lakeview, were married in a 7:30 o'clock evening ceremony recently in the Assembly of God church, Grants Pass. The Rev. Harry L. Ayres performed the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin with a lace bodice. Her bouquet was of white carnations and pink roses.

Mrs. C. B. Kinney, Ashland, was matron of honor. Her gown was of blue crystalline and she carried white chrysanthemums and pink carnations. Miss Linda Dierks and Miss Margaret Cooke were bridesmaids. They wore matching gowns of crystalline. Miss Dierks in yellow and Miss Cooke in blue.

Richard Kinney and Audith Newman lighted the candles. Christine Kinney was flower girl. Ring bearers were Debbie Newman and Ronald Kinney.

Melvin Krebs was best man for his brother and seating the guests were James Street and Ole Newman, brother of the bride.

The church was decorated with chrysanthemums, daisies, stock and carnations. The wedding songs were furnished by Frank Taus accompanied by Mrs. Virgil Hull.

The bride's mother was dressed in a light green frock designed with flared skirt and the bridegroom's mother wore a street length dress in a pastel shade. Both had corsages of white carnations and pink roses.

At the reception which followed, Miss Zorine Newman cut and served the wedding cake which had been made and decorated by Mrs. Carl Hayes of Grants Pass.

Mrs. C. B. Newman, Bellingham, Wash., served the coffee and Mrs. Sherman Newman presided at the punch bowl. Miss Donna Abston registered the guests and Mrs. Ole Newman had charge of the gifts. Mrs. Hilda Kinney, assisted by Miss Annette Burr, both of Ashland, were in charge of the reception arrangements.

The bride is a member of the class of 1962 at Grants Pass High school. The bridegroom is employed by Oregon Food stores. They are at home at 519 Southeast Riverside avenue, Grants Pass.

Auxiliary Elects Delegates For Fall Convention

Delegates to the National convention at Denver, Colo., September 2 through 7, were elected at the last meeting of the Medford Letter Carriers auxiliary to the Medford branch, National Association of Letter Carriers.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Dennis Pfaff, 830 Lawndale road, with Mrs. Ben Ashton, assisting. Those elected to attend the convention from this auxiliary were Mrs. Randy Huggdahl and Mrs. Walter Wilson. Mrs. Larry Rose will attend as a delegate from the state.

Mrs. Ben Ashton, Mrs. Delbert Cone, Mrs. Joe Barrett and Mrs. Dennis Pfaff received the initiation ceremony.

Reports of the state convention at Corvallis were given by the delegates who attended. They were Mrs. Rose, Mrs. Huggdahl, Mrs. Fitzpatrick and Mrs. Wilson. The Medford auxiliary received prizes for taking in the most new members during the past year.

This will be the last business meeting until September, but picnics and outdoor meetings will be announced later.

Square Dancers Promote Event

Oregon square dancers, who maintain a publicity booth at the first Far Western Square dance convention in Las Vegas last week end, report that they did a brisk business in passing out information folders.

The booth was set up by the square dancers to publicize the Far Western convention which will be held in Oregon August 15 to 17, 1963. With some 10,000 square dancers expected, officials say that this will be the largest convention of this type to be held in the west.

At the Nevada convention, representatives of Nevada, Oregon, Washington, Montana, Idaho and part of California voted to participate in the Federation, a new organization designed to provide square dancer conventions for the dancers in the West, where national conventions are seldom held.

Fifty Oregon couples attended the convention, manned the booth and distributed applications for the Oregon convention.

Newcomers

Ashland - Newcomers recently arrived in Ashland are Mr. and Mrs. Edgar H. Wileman, Los Angeles, who expect to build a home in Valley View. Mr. Wileman is the uncle of Mrs. Stanley Jobe, 1440 Bieber street.
