

Shady Cove Bethel Has Officer Installation

Eagle Point — Miss Marcia Ackerman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale S. Ackerman, Eagle Point, was installed honored queen of Shady Cove Bethel, International Order of Job's Daughters, Saturday evening, June 2.

The event was held at the Eagle Point Elementary school gymnasium, with Miss Susanne Schauble, retiring honored queen, as the installing officer. Queen Marcia was escorted to the East through an arch of flowers by her brother, Jim Ackerman, past master, and Crater chapter, Order of De Molay.

Also installed were the misses Susan Eastin, senior princess; Lola Ackerman, junior princess; Sheri Watson, guide; Judy Frost, marshal; Louella Minor, chaplain; Chloe Atkinson, recorder; Donna Weitman, librarian; Linda Weitman, treasurer; Shirley Minor, Susan Wilson, Dawn Oliver, Ann Akin and Tanya Beddingfield, messengers; Marilyn Leaming and Regina Krambeal, custodians; and Barbara Hopper, inner guard.

Miss Schauble was assisted in installing the officers by Past Queens Eda Larson, guide; Joey Hume, chaplain; Susan Chubb, recorder; Mrs. Larry Smith, marshal; a past junior princess, Mrs. William Littlefield, junior custodian and Honored Queen Lauri Beth Buonocone, Bethel 55, Medford, senior custodian. Mrs. Ray Powers was organist.

Miss Lola Ackerman was soloist, and candlelighters were Carol Adams and Toni Whiteley. The Bible was carried by Diane Tryon and the crown by Celeste Krambeal.

Crowning Ceremony

Assisting in the crowning ceremony were a De Molay team consisting of Jim Ackerman, master, counselor, Wally Davenport, state master, counselor and past master, counselor, Grants Pass chapter, marshal; John Rogers, Crater chapter, chaplain; Mike Fetherford, master, counselor, Medford chapter, junior counselor; and Roy Hager, Grants Pass, senior counselor, and Jim Cain, Mike Piel, Rick Wagner and Jim Bell, all Medford chapter, honor guard.

Honored Queen Marcia introduced her parents, her sister, Lola, brothers, Jim and Dale Jr., her grandmother, Mrs. Rhoda Ackerman; uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Mattson, and cousins, George Mattson, from Everett, Wash., and another uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Krambeal, and their children, Regina, Leslie, Dolores and Celeste, from Eagle Point.

Each of the other line officers presented their parents. Guests escorted and introduced were Senior Princesses Camille Eri, Bethel 69, Medford, and Toni Whiteley, Kirby Bethel; Junior Princesses Lindie Langston, Bethel 55, Medford; and Grand Bethel First Messenger, Linda Weitman.

Sister Arrives For Graduation

Miss Leona Jean McCullough, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn McCullough, 29 North Keeneway drive, arrived Thursday from Anderson, Ind., where she is a student at Anderson college. She made the trip that she might attend the Medford High school graduation ceremonies that evening when her brother, Michael McCullough, was graduated.

On Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. McCullough and their daughter will leave by car for Anderson where Miss McCullough will be graduated on June 18. Their son, who will be attending Boys' state at Salem will fly east and they will join him at Chicago, Ill., before continuing to Indiana.

En route home the group will spend a day at the University of Illinois where the son may enroll for studies next fall.

Miss McCullough is a graduate of Medford High school. She has majored in elementary education and will teach next fall in the Portland area. For the past three years she has been a member of the Christian Brotherhood choir, which is heard locally on Radio Station K-SHA, and is recorded in Chicago.
