Medford's Legion Crew Subdues GP

Long ball hitting by Dan Miles, Dick Deffley and Gary Miller and fine Legion pitching debuts by Bill Enyart and Jack Forde featured the play yesterday as the Medford American Legion Junior baseball team opened Area 4 Southern division contention on a victory note.

Medford's Cokes defeated the Grants Pass aggregation 2 to 1 and 5 to 1 at Grants Pass. First game counted in the division standings.

Miles knocked a home run to lead off the game, lining the ball over the left fielder's head. Enyart, just out of the ninth grade at McLoughlin Junior high, limited GP to one hit, by Walstrom.

Second Medford run was in the fourth inning. Mike Neathamer got on base on an error and stole second. Miller doubled him on 5.

Grants Pass tallied in the second inning. Paul Blinks, who was the leading hitter for Southern Oregon college as a freshman this spring, was hit by a pitch. He swiped second base and went to third on an overthrow error. Lyman Kiesecker fled out to right field and Blinks was safe at the play when catcher Mike Barnes dropped Jim Callhoun's throw from the outfield.

Deffley had two hits for Medford in the game and Scott Eaton singled. Enyart gave up no bases on balls but

Klamath Falcons Defeat CP Studs

Klamath Falls—Defending champion Klamath Falls Falcons began their Area 4 Southern division American Legion junior baseball campaign yesterday by tripping Central Point Cheney Studs 3 to 1.

A non-counting second game was taken by the Falcons, also. Score was 2 to 0.

The Falcons picked up runs enough for victory in the second stanza of the opener when they tabulated twice. Mary Edwards doubled in the panel and Terry Maw singled. An error on a pickoff try, a base on balls and a sacrifice fly by Lanny Guyer aided the cause.

Central Point followed with its lone counter in the third frame when Pat Pepper singled and Lou Alvarez tripled him home. Another run that might have been prevented when Mike Glines was out trying to steal after starting off the inning with a single.

In the fourth inning for a score Maw and Kent Franklin got hits, Edwards contributed a sacrifice hit and Guyer knocked a sacrifice fly.

Glines and Pat Pepper each hit two for three for hit Blinks twice with pitches. He struck out four.

GP pitcher Jerry McCormack struck out five and walked none.

Miles tripled in three runs for Medford in the second inning of the second game and Forde held Grants Pass to two hits. The blow by Miles came after an error, a walk and a fielder's option loaded the stacks. In the third inning for the other two runs, Miller, doubled and scored on an error that followed a hit by Calhoun.

Host team run was in the first inning on two errors and a sacrifice fly by Bill Standley.

Miles had two hits in the fracas.

Forde allowed one walk and whiffed batters twice. Kiesecker tossed four-hit ball for GP, walking two and fanning three.

Medford has a busy week ahead. The Cokes play at Klamath Falls Hawks at White City on Wednesday night and go to Klamath Falls to meet the Falcons on Saturday night. On Sunday afternoon they will entertain Coos Bay in a doubleheader on the Southern Oregon college diamond at Ashland.

LINESCORES: Medford 100 100 0-2 3 3 Grants Pass 010 000 0-1 1 2 Enyart and Barnes, McCormack and Peters.

Medford 032 00-5 4 3 Grants Pass 100 00-1 2 2 Forde and Phipps, Kiesecker and Peters.

Miller High Over All In State Shoot; Bennett Handicap Champ

Carl Bennett, Philomath, gained the state handicap championship Sunday in the final event of the Oregon state shoot of the Pacific International Trapshooting association at Medford Gun club.

Gordon Miller, Drain, claimed the high overall and the high all-around trophies for the three-days of titular competition.

Bennett broke 97 out of 100 birds in the only Sunday event of the program to nip James Wright, Chiloquin, and Jack Roberts, Portland. They had 96s.

Miller shattered 616 out of a possible 650 targets in seven events for the overall prize and he cracked 385 out of 400 in the all-round competition based on the Friday and Saturday singles, the Saturday doubles and the Sunday handicap.

Jack Leonard, McMinnville, was a runnerup to Miller in overall with 615 and Charles Collins, Roseburg, followed the top gun in all-around with 383.

Class Trophies Class trophies in overall went to Frank Simpson, Cornelius, with 609 in AA; to Irwin Grume, Sprague River, with 599 in A; to Gene Hunt, Directors of the Oregon State Trapshooting association elected Ray Yasui, Hood River, president yesterday. John Hurd, Eugene, was chosen vice president.

Yasui and Hurd were chosen yesterday's handicap drew the top entry of the three days. There were 169 gunners. Site of the PITA 1963 state shoot is to be determined in December.

Wright won a shoot off from Roberts 23 to 22, for second and third in handicap. Miller captured fourth in handicap via an extra after he broke 95 along with Clay Dooley, Scappoose, and Francis Sampson, Willowa. Miller smashed 25 straight in the runoff and Dooley and Sampson each 24.

Ladies' handicap honors went to Corinne Blake, Portland, for a 94. Donna Woolley, Drain, was second with 88.

Steven Cox, Pendleton, was junior champ with 90. Michael Yunker, Forest Grove, won a shootoff 23 to 22 over Randy Williams, Salem, for runnerup. Each had 88 in the regular. Chuck Skeeters, Medford, took subjunior with 91 and Mike Drake, Gold Hill, was next with 84.

Fisher Pro Victor Harvey Fisher, Portland, and Don Wiemer, Portland, knotted for pro laurels with 92s and Fisher won the runoff.

Ties for state doubles class titles were settled in shoot-offs yesterday. For Class A George Sherwood, Roseburg, beat John Simpson, Portland, 19 to 14. Each fired a 90 in the regular event on Saturday. Miller took Class B from Collins 19 to 15. They had 92s on Saturday.

Thunderbird Golf Won By Littler

Oakmont, Pa.—Defending champion Gene Littler can't see why he should be favored to win the U.S. Open golf championship starting here Thursday despite his $25,000 victory in the Thunderbird Open.

His five under par 67 in the closing round Sunday at Clifton, N.J., earned him the biggest golf purse of the year and he finished 15 strokes ahead of Arnold Palmer, who will be favored in the Open.

"No one should ever be favored in a field which includes Palmer," said Littler, who drove here today from Clifton and plans to test the man-killing Oakmont course for the first time Tuesday.

Littler, who started out Sunday's final round in the Thunderbird, one stroke behind the leaders, wrapped up the tournament when he went out in 31, five under par. That put him beyond the reach of young Jack Nicklaus and Dow Finsterwald, who had started Sunday's play in front.

Littler's aggregate of 275 was 13-under-par and was two strokes better than Nicklaus, whose final round 35-35-70 for 277 was good for $10,000 second place money.

Finsterwald, finishing with a 73, and Wea Ellis, with a final round 71, tied for third place with 280's worth $5,000 each.

BOWLING

LADY ELKS ONE Mud Dobbers were champs in the Lady Elks No. One Bowling league. Members of the team were Edna Blew, Stella Niedermeyer and Eva Sessions. Peacocks, with Nellie Van Dyke, Gayle Crover and Evelyn Read participating, took second. Third were the Sparc-O's. In Hoque, Helen Dentner and Faye Hogue were on the team. Consolation prize went to the Three Old Croves. Eva Sessions had 166 high average, 224 high game scratch and 362 high series scratch for the season. High game with handicap was Gayle Grover's 262 and All Salyers rolled 653 high series with handicap. Wanda Booth was most improved bowler, upping her average 13 pins.

BLUE MONDAY LEAGUE Newberry's won the Blue Monday Bowling league title, defeating Medford Hotel Bar of Music in a playoff. The two teams tied for second half honors. Bar of Music won a playoff from Ninety-Nine Barbershop for second place. Placing the league's sweepers were Betty Chisum 594 and Nellie Best 563.

Trophies were presented at a luncheon at Kim's restaurant. Individual awards included Lee Marino high series scratch and most improved, Doris Price high series with handicap, Bea Mathews high game scratch, Alta Knauer high game with handicap and Viola Lewis and Polly Campbell, perfect attendance.

Hotel Medford (43-29): 4. Honey Hobbs 479, Medford Ambulance (26-46): 6. Ann Lisac 249. Newberry's (43-29): 4. Doris Price 438, Alpine Log (33-39): 0. Lydia Nikodem 424.

over the finish line about a two-length winner.

Later in the afternoon the attention again was on the Shoehorn when it was matched against the "A" Gas dragger of Dwan Becker and Bob Beckner from Albany for top eliminator honors of the meet. The Becker and Beckner entry had waded through all other fast cars of the meet and earned the right to race the Shoehorn.

Both cars were brought to the starting line and given a final check by their pit members. The Hagman got the ready nod from each driver and pressed the button giving the big race of the day the green light. Becker and Beckner, perhaps a little nervous because they knew they were the underdog in this race, tried a little too hard in coming off the line and killed their engine. By this time the race was fast being won by the Shoehorn with tires smoking all the way. It was on this run that the new elapsed time record of 9.04 was set.

This ended the conquest of speed at this meet for the fast and dependable Welsh-Butler dragger.

Today Welsh and Butler returned to Reno, happy with their all-time best performances on the drag strip ready to come back to the SOTA drag strip and defend their title against all comers.

Complete results of all other winners of one of the largest meets ever held in Medford will be published after it is compiled.

Reno Shoehorn Spectacular In Drag Performance Here

Portland — (UPI)—Russia claimed another first today.

The Tass news agency announced that Soviet brood jumper Igor Ter-Ovanesyan was the first to crack Ralph Boston's world record when he leaped 27 feet, 2 1/2 inches at a meet in Yerevan, Armenia Sunday.

Boston, the Tennessee State star who achieved acclaim when he shattered Jesse Owens' long standing Olympic mark in the 1960 games, established the existing standard of 27 feet, 2 inches in a dual track meet against Russia here on July 16, 1961.

Portland — (UPI)—The Kansas City Athletics stop off here tonight to play an exhibition game against their Portland farm club at Multnomah Stadium.

United Press International If the Spokane Indians of the Pacific Coast league have any more pitchers like Billy Harris around, the Tri-City Braves of the Northwest league would be glad to get them.

Harris, making his first start for Tri-City after being sent there by Spokane, pitched the Braves to a 9-0 win over league-leading Wenatchee Sunday night.

Harris, a 30-year-old right-hander, scattered eight hits as he went the distance in the triumph which was Tri-City's first shutout of the season. He also contributed a single in the second inning during a four-run rally by the Braves.

In other action Sunday, Yakima turned in a pair of 4-1 victories in a twin bill with Eugene and Salem divided a doubleheader with Lewiston. The Dodgers took the first game 8-3 and the Broncos the second, 3-2.

Bruce Brubaker and Roger Roy provided the pitching in Yakima's wins. Brubaker went the route in the opener, spacing nine hits to pick up his sixth victory in seven decisions. Roy limited the Dodgers to six hits in the nightcap and whacked a bases-empty homer in the fourth inning to help his own cause.

Salem picked up seven runs on six hits, three errors and a walk in the fourth inning of its first game with Lewiston to wipe out a 5-1 deficit and salt away the win. In the second game, Bill Landis pitched a two-hitter to pace the Broncos in their victory.

Tri-City's Braves Like Bill Harris

Portland — Portland's Erv Lind Florists, perennial Pacific northwest women's softball power, tripped the Rogue Valley Dairy Maids twice here Saturday night in Northwest Major league games.

Margins were 5 to 1 and 6 to 1.

Lind tosser Marian Kozak held the Maids to two hits in the first game. Rogue Valley combined one of them with Ellen Callaghan, with a fielder's choice and error in the second inning for its one run.

The Florists scored twice in the second inning on a walk and two errors. Safeties by Wingfield, Fran McConnell and Pettina and a fielder's option contributed two runs in the sixth canto.

Kozak issued one walk and struck out batters eight times. Maid chucker Pat Barron walked three and whiffed five in a six-hitter. The other Maid hit of the game was by Glenda Hull.

Portland pumped over all of its second game runs in the third inning on two bases on balls and five hits, including triples by Pat Harrison and Charlene Dauenhauer. For the DM run in the seventh canto, Callaghan singled and went to second on a fielder's option. She swiped third base and came home on an overthrow on the play.

Jean Main and Barron each collected safeties off Lind twirler Louie Mazuca who recorded a three-hitter with one free pass and nine strikeouts.

Callaghan walked five, whiffed one, yielded five hits in 2 2/3 innings and was charged with all Lind runs. Barron walked one, struck out three and allowed two hits.

The Florists entertain Salem on Wednesday and Rogue Valley goes to Salem for games on Saturday and Sunday.

The Dairy Maids will play the Phoenix Westerners on July 2 at White City.

Miss Callaghan was presented her trophy Saturday night as 1961 batting champion of the Northwest Women's Major Softball league.
