Oregon's Buck Deer Season Will Open on September 29

Portland – (UPI) – Oregon's 1962 big game hunting regulations will be similar to last year's.

The general buck deer season will open Sept. 29 and run through Oct. 21 and the special permit season for antlerless deer opens Oct. 6 and closes Oct. 21. A total of 135,600 antlerless permits will be available, an increase of 6,700 over last year.

The commission approved three extended deer hunts in the agricultural areas of the Willamette Valley, along the south fork of the Walla Walla River and in the Hood River and The Dalles areas. There also will be 26 controlled seasons, for which 23,000 tags will be issued.

The coastal elk season will run from Oct. 27 through Nov. 9 and the season in the rest of the state from Oct. 27 through Nov. 25. The Clatsop unit again will be open only to 5,000 special permit holders. Another 22 permit hunts will be allowed in other areas throughout the state.

Antelope season will be Aug. 25-29, with 600 tags issued.

Bear were classified as game animals in all national forest lands between U.S. Highways 99 and 97 and within one mile of the Rogue River between Agness and Graves Creek. Open season will be Sept. 1 through Dec. 15, with a bag limit of one. Bear are not protected in other areas of the state.

The most important change from earlier tentative regulations was repeal of a proposed requirement that hunters bring out the entire head of their kill.

The commission had received many protests, mainly from Grant county, that elk hunters would be greatly inconvenienced if they had to pack the heavy heads out from deep canyons.

The commission amended its tagging regulation to prowrite the date, county and species of his kill on the back of his license as soon as he has completed tagging the animal.

10 Champs Defend In NCAA National

Eugene – (UPI) – Ten champions will be here to defend their titles this week end in the 41st annual NCAA Track and Field meet on Hayward field.

And the West Coast is a heavy favorite to win its 27th team title.

The undefeated Webfoots from Oregon rank as the favorites. They have qualified 22 men and defeated Southern California, the defending champion, in a dual meet earlier in the season.

Southern California, with 18 qualifiers, can't be counted out, nor can San Jose State with 12 entries or Villanova with 10. And Oregon State will have a 15-man delegation on hand.

Oregon has two of the returning champions, miler Dyrol Burleson and high hurdler Jerry Tarr. Both could set NCAA records. Burelson holds the mile record of 4:00.5, but has been well under that this year. Tarr has bettered the high hurdles mark of 13.6 held by Lee Calhoun.

100 Hot Race

Villanova's Frank Budd will attempt to repeat as champion in the 100 and the 220, but he faces classy competition in Oregon's Harry Jerome, Bob Hayes of Florida A&M, and Omaha's Roger Sayers, who beat Hayes in the NAIA meet.

The other defending champions are Adolph Plummer of New Mexico in the 440, Pat Clohessy of Houston in the three - mile, John Lawler of Abilene Christian in the steeplechase, Dallas Long of USC in the shot put, John Thomas of Boston university in the high jump, Don Meyers of Colorado in the broad jump, and Dixon Farmer of Occidental in the 440-yard hurdles. Farmer, however, has been bothered by a leg injury and may pass up the meet.

About 300 athletes from 93 schools are entered in the track and field carnival.

Friday's schedule includes the three - mile final and preliminaries in all other events except the 3,000-meter steeplechase.

The Saturday program has semifinals in the 100 and high hurdles, plus finals in all events except the three-mile.

Funk, Florey, Morris Kart Racing Victors

Bud Funk gained first place award for single engines and Dick Florey first for dual engine vehicles Sunday in a 50-lap event at Medford Kartways on Sunday.

Only three karts finished the race.

Funk was first and Gary Austin second in A junior racing. Dan Morris was A senior winner with Chet Ayres runnerup. In B class it was Florey first and Ron Austin second.

Red Bruce was the hard luck man Sunday. He wrecked an engine on one kart and broke the steering apparatus on another.

Rental karts will be at the tracq this Saturday and Sunday from noon on.

Racing Commission Continues Suspension

Portland – (UPI) – The Oregon Racing Commission Monday continued the suspension of trainer High Dayton for the balance of the current racing year.

The decision upheld the Portland Racing stewards. Dayton was suspended by the stewards after laboratory tests on Red State, winner of a May 29 race, disclosed traces of a drug.

Expansion Of Big 5 Rumored

Victoria, B. C. – (UPI) – One persistent rumor, not on the agenda, and routine business matters were expected to keep Big Five athletic directors busy today at their annual spring meeting.

The rumor concerns expansion, principally the addition of Washington State University, although the Cougars have no representative here.

At the opening session Monday, the directors recommended four changes in conference track meets and also set up an agenda for the athletic council which meets Wednesday. The council is composed of the athletic directors and faculty representatives.

Firm May Promote Both TV and Fight

New York –(UPI)– Despite three record bids from outsiders, there's more than a 50-50 chance that Championship Sports, Inc., will promote the closed - circuit television as well as the Floyd Patterson-Sonny Liston fight itself at Chicago, Sept. 25.

That's what attorney Thomas A. Bolan, president of CSI, said today after studying the three bids for television and other ancilliary rights to the fight.

A's Bomb Beavers In Exhibition Game

Portland – (UPI) – The Kansas City Athletics showed the Portland Beavers and 7,194 fans why they are only nine games out of the American League lead Monday night, bombing the Beavers 8-4 in an exhibition game.

The A's jumped on Portland starter Jim Archer for seven runs in the first two innings. They scored five runs on six hits in the second inning as Bobby Del Greco and Norm Siebern smashed doubles.

Complete Drag Racing Results Are Announced

Complete results were released today on last week end's Spring Championship drag races held at the Medford drag strip by Southern Oregon Timing association.

Top honors were swept up by the Shoehorn dragster from Reno, Nev. In doing so they set a new track record for gas cars at 169.59 miles per hour.

Second Eliminator money went to the Henry-Germann "A" class roadster from Klamath Falls, Ore. This Chevrolet-powered speedster also set a new class record of 140.62 m.p.h.

Keith & Williamson, Santa Clara, Calif., walked off with Middle Eliminator by gunning their B gas dragster to a top speed of 130.43 m.p.h. in competition.

Street eliminator went to Cordy Jenson, Eugene, and Roseburg's Terry Wolbert copped the stock eliminator award.

The meet's most beautiful entry was the Becker & Beckner "A" dragster from Albany, Ore.

Club participation went to the KLAN racing team of Springfield, Ore., with 21 cars entered in the meet.

Following are the complete results showing class, speed, elapsed time, winner, and winner's car, in that order.

Cokes Play Hawks In Legion Tussle

Stuart Young is expected to get the pitching call Wednesday evening when the Medford Cokes play their second Southern division game in American Legion junior baseball.

Medford entertains the Klamath Falls Hawks at 7:30 p.m. at Memorial field, White City.

No information is immediately available on the Hawks. They are one of two teams in the division from Klamath Falls. If this year's pattern is the same as the one for 1961, the Hawks are the No. 2 Legion team of their community.

This will be the league opener for the Hawks, unless by schedule change they've met the Falcons.

Other Games

Medford opened by beating Grants Pass last Sunday. The Cokes won both the counting game and the non-league one from GP.

The No. 1 Klamath team, the Falcons, will be hosts to Medford next Saturday night. On Sunday in non-league play Medford will take on Coos Bay in two games on the Southern Oregon college field at Ashland.

In other division action during this week and week end, the Central Point Chency Studs oppose Grants Pass on Friday evening at White City and the Hawks play at Grants Pass on Sunday

Johansson Faces European Champ Dick Richardson

New York –(UPI)– Ingemar Johansson will try to win the European heavyweight championship from Dick Richardson of Wales next Sunday at Goteborg, Sweden.

That bout and a lightweight contenders' battle for television Saturday night between Paolo Rosi of New York and Carlos Hernandez of Venezuela at Madison Square Garden will top the week's boxing activities.

The week's boxing schedule includes:

Tuesday: Sacramento, Calif. –Zora Folley vs. Paul Andrews. Omaha, Neb.–Bill Nielsen vs. Jackie Richards. Fresno, Calif.–Gabe Terronez vs. Floyd Sampson.

Thursday: Glasgow, Scotland–Henry Hank vs. John (Cowboy) McCormack.

Friday: Los Angeles Olympic, Johnny Smith vs. Sonny Gill. Rome, Italy–Giulio Rinaldi vs. Chuck Garrett.

Lockwood-Landers Team Faces Casey-Larson in Best Ball Tourney Final

Forest Casey and Max Larson will play Bob Lockwood and John Landers for the men's best ball golf tournament championship at Rogue Valley Country club.

Casey and Larson needed a 19th hole to nose out Randall Gifford and Dave Lawrence in one semifinal. Lockwood and Landers beat Jack Mitchell and Ken Petersen 3 and 2 in the other championship semi.

In the first flight the finale will be between Wally Robinson and Dick Finnell and Earle Tichenor and Jim Gill. Robinson and Finnell advanced with a 3 and 1 win over John Gustafson and Ota Binegar. Tichenor and Gill beat Miles Doran and Ken Teeter.

Beat Champion

Larry Butler, with a 63, fired the low net in National Golf day beat the champ competition at Rogue Valley. Twenty-five men at the club beat, with their net scores, the 75 gross shot by Gene Littler, U.S. Open champ, last week. George Barnum netted 65 and Pat Lynch 66. Butler was also five strokes under the champ with his gross of 70, the low gross in Golf day rivalry here.

Bud Brooks leads qualifying for the men's club championship tourney at RVCC with a 73. Bob Fasel qualified with a 74 and Ray Lindquist and Dr. N. J. Wilson had 75s among the first 31 to play their 18-hole rounds.

Deadline for qualifying is June 24.

Santa Clara Loses Opening Game In NCAA Baseball

Omaha, Neb. – (UPI) – Pretourney favorite Santa Clara, surprise loser in its opening game Monday, played Missouri today in second round action in the NCAA national baseball tournament.

In the winners' bracket it will be Michigan meeting Holy Cross and surprising Ithaca tangling with Florida State.

Two teams were to be trimmed from the eight-team field today when the Broncos of Santa Clara met Missouri and Texas played Colorado State.
