

No-Hitter Recorded In Softball

Ron Weatherford pitched a no-hit, no-run victory last night as Tru-Mix Concrete rose into a second place tie in the Jackson County Softball association. And Don Reese's homer in the second inning enabled Grants Pass Elks to retain their undefeated league leadership.

Mix blanked Butte Falls 13 to 0 as Weatherford walked one and struck out six. Nor in Hedgespeth homered and Lowell Dean cracked three hits in the decision.

Reese homered after John Brown got aboard on a fielder's option in the bottom of the ninth inning to break up the ball game with Central Point Merchants. Final score was 6 to 4. The teams were knotted at four-all after seven regular innings.

Reese had two hits in the game. Three Grants Pass pitchers held Central Point to four hits. They walked two and struck out four. Central Point's Vern Neiswander gave up seven safeties, walked three and fanned three.

Tru-Mix shares second with Keith Schulz Garage. Schulz and International Harvester collide in the first game at 6:45 o'clock tonight at Cheney field. Mail Tribune and Sam Jennings company follow.

Linksmen Tee Off in U.S. Open

By LEO H. PETERSEN
UPI Sports Editor

Oakmont, Pa. — (UPI)—Favored Arnold Palmer, feeling "100 per cent" mentally and physically, went out after the second leg of a new golfing grand slam today as a field of 150 teed off in the first round of the U.S. Open championship.

If he adds the Open title to his Masters crown and he's the 5-1 betting choice to do it, it will leave him needing the British Open and PGA championships to round out the greatest golfing feat since Bobby Jones' slam in 1931.

Jones won the only four major titles available to an amateur—the U.S. and British Opens and the U.S. and British amateurs. No professional ever has won the four big ones they are eligible for, but Palmer promises that he will try for them "so long as I play the game."

Rain Ruins Practice
Winning this second leg isn't going to be easy, although Palmer got a big assist Wednesday when rain washed out the final practice rounds scheduled for the tournament at Oakmont Country club course. It kept some of the leading contenders, including defending champion Gene Littler, from getting in a much needed test run.

Most of the others in the field spent an hour or so on the practice tee before officials decided to close the course because of the rain to guard against damage to the greens and fairways.

West Virginia Ex-Coach Dies

Pittsburgh — (UPI)—Art (Pappy) Lewis, who led West Virginia university into its so-called "golden years" of football and then resigned under the pressure of two consecutive losing seasons, died here Wednesday night.

Lewis, head scout for the National Football league's Pittsburgh Steelers at the time of his death, suffered a heart attack on June 4 and was in critical condition most of the time thereafter.

Cheney Baseballers Slate Grants Pass

The teams which launched the American Legion junior baseball season in this section with a non-league game will get together for official business Friday night.

Central Point Cheney Studs and Grants Pass will tangle at 7:30 p.m. at Memorial field, White City.

The skirmish will be an Area 4 Southern division game.

Central Point won the non-counting game on Memorial day 9 to 5.

One of two Larrys, Mason or Pepper, could get the pitching call from Cheney Studs Coach Bill Askwith. Grants Pass coach Ron Maurer may have either Jerry McCormack or Lyman Kiesecker on the hill.

Cornell's Oarsmen Favorites

Syracuse, N. Y. — (UPI)—Twice-beaten Cornell Wednesday topped undefeated Washington in the eyes of coaches as the crew to beat in the 60th annual Intercollegiate Rowing association regatta here Saturday.

The 11 coaches, voting in the Syracuse Herald-Journal's poll, called for a Cornell sweep of Lake Onondaga in all three events. Not a single coach forecast a Washington triumph in the varsity event.

Fil Leanderson's Huskies, the only unbeaten eight entered in the varsity event, were hailed earlier as favorites after soundly beating the California crew twice this season, both at a sprint distance and over the three-mile regatta route.

The varsity poll gave Cornell seven first-place ballots and Pennsylvania, which has beaten the "Big Red" twice this year in sprints, two. Syracuse and California received one each.

The Huskies did, however, receive seven second-place ballots and Cornell three.

John Havlicek Surprises, Inks Pro Grid Pact

Columbus, Ohio — (UPI)—John Havlicek, an All-American basketball player at Ohio State, left the sports world puzzling by deciding Wednesday to make his professional career with the Cleveland Browns of the National Football league.

The muscular athlete had received offers from four major league baseball teams and from the champions of two professional basketball leagues—the Boston Celtics of the National Basketball association and the Cleveland Pipers of the American Basketball league.

He was the first draft choice of both teams, "Hondo" was the seventh draft choice of the Browns in a move that caught the league by surprise. He played no football in college.

His explanation of the jump from basketball to football: "I wanted to know if I can do it. I've always been optimistic and I think I can. It has been a challenge to me ever since the Browns drafted me."

INKS BONUS PACT

Detroit — (UPI)—The Detroit Tigers have signed Tom Fletchier, a left-handed pitcher on Illinois' Big Ten championship team, to a bonus contract for an estimated $65,000. Fletchier will be assigned to Knoxville of the Sally league.

LA Dodgers Take Two-Game Lead In National as Koufax Pitches Win; Reds' Purkey Beats Giants

By FRED DOWN

Who says pitching is a lost art in this era of the rabbit baseball and the long tapered bat?

Not National league slugger, who have been flailing away at the breeze attempting to hit Cincinnati's Bob Purkey, Los Angeles' Sandy Koufax and St. Louis' Bob Gibson this year.

All three seem headed for their best seasons and all three took impressive steps toward their common goal Wednesday night when the hitters acted as if Commissioner Ford Frick had secretly approved a return of 1910-vintage baseball to the NL.

Purkey, a hero in Cincinnati's losing 1961 World Series effort, pitched a no-hitter for 6½ innings and wound up with a three-hit, 5-0 victory over the San Francisco Giants; Koufax, who set a league record of 269 strikeouts last season, fired a three-hitter to give the Dodgers a 2-1 win over the Milwaukee Braves; and Gibson, 13-12 in 1961, fanned 12 in the Cardinals' 6-1 win over the Philadelphia Phillies.

Purkey raised his record to a glittering 11-1. Koufax now has a 9-2 mark and Gibson sports an 8-4 slate. NL manager Fred Hutchinson could do a lot worse than simply naming those three to face the American league in the July 10 All-Star game in Washington, D.C.

Gordie Coleman drove in two runs with his 10th homer and a single to lead the Reds' nine-hit attack that knocked the Giants two full games behind the first-place Dodgers.

Only Felipe Alou, Jose Pagan and Harvey Kuenn managed to connect off Purkey, with Alou's double in the seventh ending Purkey's no-hit aspirations.

Koufax, rated one of the worst hitters in baseball history, hit the first homer of his career to beat Warren Spahn and the Braves. And red-hot rookie first-baseman Fred Whitfield drove in two runs with a single and double to lead the Cardinals to their ninth win in their last 10 games.

The Pittsburgh Pirates shaded the Chicago Cubs, 6-4, in the only other NL game. In the American league, the Cleveland Indians won, 4-1, after losing to the Washington Senators, 4-2, the Kansas City Athletics defeated the Chicago White Sox, 4-3, the Boston Red Sox beat the Baltimore Ori-

Wightman Cup Players Clash

Wimbledon, England — (UPI)—The wheels of fortune spin rapidly, and this year it's the United States Wightman Cup team which is boasting a lucky star.

Darlene Hard is her name, and the 26-year-old veteran from Montebello, Calif., could prove the difference in the annual matches with England Friday and Saturday. Miss Hard, who is the top ranking U.S. woman player, missed last year's matches because of illness.

The English, on the other hand, apparently have lost their top player—Angela Mortimer. The Wimbledon champion suffered a leg injury on Monday and is still undergoing treatment. She is still listed to play one singles match, but may be replaced by Deirdre Calt.

Elroy Face pitched the last 11 innings for the Pirates to protect Al McBean's sixth win. Bill Virdon hit a three-run homer off Cal Kousser to give the Pirates a 5-3 lead in the sixth inning while Billy Williams homered for the Cubs.

Homers by Ken Retzer and Joe Hicks featured the Senators' fifth straight win in the opener of their twin-nighter but Dick Donovan gained his ninth triumph for Cleveland in the nightcap on the wings of Johnny Romano's three-run homer.

Ed Rakow Wins Fifth
Run-scoring singles by Jose Tarrabial and Gino Cimoli and Dick Howser's 11th and 18th steals of the season enabled the Athletics to beat the White Sox for the seventh time in 10 tries. Ed Rakow received credit for his fifth win with the relief aid of Gordon Jones.

Don Schwalli, 1961 rookie of the year in the AL, who started Wednesday night with a 1-7 mark, pitched a two-hitter for the Red Sox against the Orioles. The Red Sox scored single runs in the second through the fifth innings on sacrifice flies by Bob Tillman and Carl Yastrzemski and run-producing hits by Eddie Bressoud and Frank Maldonado.

Bob Allison's two-run eighth-inning homer off Ryne Duren gave the Twins a victory that snapped the Angels' five-game winning streak. Dean Chance, fanned earlier in the day for breaking curfew rules, gave only one run in seven innings before giving way to Duren. Reliever Ray Moore picked up the win for Minnesota.

Koufax Pleased By Home Run

Milwaukee — (UPI)—Lean Sandy Koufax, well-known in the National League for his strikeout prowess, leaned back, scratched his dark beard and proclaimed he had added a "unique" dimension to his talents.

"It's got to be unique," laughed the sweat-stained left-hander of the Los Angeles Dodgers. "I never did it before."

The feat Koufax was so pleased about was his first major league home run. What made it even more enjoyable was that the big blow beat another veteran southpaw.

Warren Spahn, 2-1, Wednesday night.
Koufax, a kid from Brooklyn who signed on with the Dodgers as a bonus baby in 1954, had committed a feat that will have to stand as one of the ironies of baseball. For the 41-year-old Spahn is one of the best hitters among league pitchers and has sent a number of rival hurlers to defeat with his home run hitting talent in addition to his pitching.
"I've beaten Spahn before," said Koufax, "but never like this."
