

Milnes-Ray Ceremony Held in Forest Grove

A wedding of interest here was an event of June 10 in the Methodist church of Forest Grove. Miss Loretta Ray of that city became the bride of Gregory Earl Milnes, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Milnes, 15 North Groveland avenue, in a three o'clock afternoon ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Myron Ray, Forest Grove, are the bride's parents.

The Rev. Carl Mason, Methodist minister, and the Rev. Vincent Crane, Forest Grove Congregational minister, officiated at the double ring rites. The couple recited the service from memory. The Rev. Mr. Crane is a family friend of the bride.

Among the 275 relatives and friends attending the wedding and reception which followed at the church were a number from Medford including the bridegroom's parents. Pink peonies and candles and white gladioli decorated the church. Miss Gayle Emerson, Sandy, Alpha Chi Omega sorority sister of the bride, was soloist and the Rev. Mr. Mason sang the wedding prayer. Organist was Mrs. James Warren, Forest Grove. Wore White Taffeta

The bride wore a floor length gown of white taffeta, three-quarter length sleeves and full pleated skirt. The bodice and skirt were appliqued with white organdy flowers and her elbow-length tulle veil was held by a white organdy and pearl headband. Her flowers were stephanotis and white roses encircling a pink throat white cymbidium orchid.

Mr. Ray escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. For something old she carried an heirloom handkerchief which had been carried by her maternal grandmother at her wedding 50 years ago and the sixpence in her shoe had been brought from England by the bridegroom. Her single strand of pearls was a gift from the bridegroom.

Miss Karen Myers, Corvallis, sorority sister of the bride was maid of honor. Other attendants were Miss Karen Zumwalt, Forest Grove, fiancée of the bride's brother; Miss Gwen Rheutan, Salem, and Miss Carol Johnson, Portland, and Mrs. John Stevens, Beaverton, both sorority sisters of the bride. Miss Victoria Milnes, Medford, sister of the bridegroom, was junior bridesmaid.

Azalea Pink Frocks
They wore identical frocks of azalea pink silk shantung with matching miniature pill-box hats holding circular veils and matching pink slippers. Their flowers were miniature pink roses. Miss Milnes' frock had a petal overskirt. Candelights were Miss Sylvia Tackeuchi, Salem, and Miss Martha Boyer, John Day, sorority sisters of the bride. Their frocks were identical to the other attendants' but in white.

James Busch, Ashland, Phi Delta Theta fraternity brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. Ushers were Ronald Ray, Forest Grove, brother of the bride; Dan Christensen, Springfield; and Orin Ormsbee, Salem, and Michael Dowsett, Portland, both fraternity brothers of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Ray wore for her daughter's wedding a blue silk shantung dress with matching blue flowered hat accessories. Her corsage was an orchid. Mrs. Milnes chose a turquoise silk sheath jacket-dress with matching petal hat and accessories. Her corsage was a pink orchid.

Guest Hostesses
Members of the Wesleyan Service guild were hostesses for the reception held at the church. Among the Medford residents who assisted were Mrs. Robert Voegtly, godmother of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Steven Hensel, aunt of the bridegroom, who cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. George Watson and Mrs. Walter Wilson, aunts of the bridegroom, presided at the punch bowls and Miss Lou Elsa Voegtly, was in charge of the guest book.

The bride and bridegroom drank a wedding toast from the marriage cup which had been used by the bridegroom's parents at their 25th wedding anniversary.

Members of the wedding party and out of town relatives were guests at a buffet supper at the Ray home following the reception.

Home in Salem
The newlyweds traveled to San Francisco on their wedding trip, the bride wearing for traveling a beige suit with beige and orange accessories and a tangerine carnation corsage. They will make their home in Salem the latter part of June.

The bride is a graduate of Forest Grove High school and Willamette university and is employed as a physical therapist at the Oregon State hospital in Salem. She is affiliated with Alpha Chi Omega and received her degree in psychology. Mr. Milnes, a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity, is a graduate of Medford High school and Willamette university and is attending Willamette university College of Law. He received his degree in economics and is on the announcing staff of radio station KBZY in Salem.

Both the bride and bridegroom received one of the ten "Key awards" given to outstanding graduates of Willamette university in 1961.

jean hart's

Which lady made the Best Match?

Lady Manhattan of course... with the popular roll-sleeve, convertible-collared "in or outer" shirt and tapered Jamaica shorts! There's no doubt about it... this well-matched pair has a great future! Both shirt and shorts are made of fabrics that practically take care of themselves. And they're tailored with the traditionally fine Lady Manhattan detailing you've come to expect.

Matched Short Set 13.00

Lady Manhattan

Where You Find the Clothes You Love To Live In

817 E. Main Phone 772-8992

Meeker Chapel Scene Of Neal-Issi Rites

Miss Janet Louise Issi became the bride of John S. Neal in 4 o'clock afternoon rites read June 9 in Meeker Memorial chapel, First Methodist church. The Rev. Bernard E. Andrews performed the double ring ceremony. About 60 guests attended.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Dominick Issi, 3073 Delta Waters road, and the late Mr. Issi. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Neal, 2104 Roberts road, George Smith, Sunbury, Pa., the bride's grandfather, gave her in marriage.

Miss Teresa Mee was maid of honor, and Miss Penny Cantwell, Grants Pass, was bridesmaid. William Neal, San Francisco, a brother of the bridegroom, served as best man, and seating guests were Frank Issi, a brother of the bride, and Robert Neal, a brother of the bridegroom.

Barbara Dellenback was flower girl and Robert Louderberg, Nixon, N.J., a cousin of the bride, was ring bearer. Wears Lace

The bride chose a floor length gown of Alencon type lace over taffeta, designed with a basque bodice and trimmed with pearls and iridescent sequins. Her bouffant skirt was caught up in the front and back by lace roses, and the roses were repeated at the hemline on both sides of the skirt. Her elbow length veil was of hand rolled silk illusion held by a petal lace crown with an inner crown of pearls and iridescent crystals.

The bridal bouquet was of stephanotis, carnations and roses centered with a white orchid, on the bride's Bible. The bride's attendants wore bell-skirted blue satin frocks with fitted bodices and matching bow hats. They carried nosegays of carnations.

The flower girl was dressed in white organdy and her wrist corsage was of white carnations.

Mothers in Pink
For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Issi wore pink voile over taffeta with matching hat and Mrs. Neal was dressed in a pink silk sheath jacket dress with white accessories. Both had pink and white rosebud corsages.

The chapel was decorated with white peonies, stock and roses and the pew ends were marked with white bows and ivy.

Mrs. Ona Lyles, Ashland, furnished the wedding songs. Also from out of town for the wedding was Mrs. George Smith, grandmother of the bride.

The wedding reception which followed was given by Mr. and Mrs. John Dellenback at their home, 257 Windsor avenue. Mrs. Thomas Carter poured coffee and Miss Diane Carter presided at the punch bowl. Miss Annette Carter cut and served the cake while Mrs. George Gilman registered the guests. Mrs. Joseph Beach assisted with the serving.

For traveling, the bride wore a black and white checked suit with box jacket, and white accessories.

The couple is living at the Mountain View apartments on Garfield street in Ashland.

The bride is a graduate of Medford High school and is a student at Southern Oregon college. The bridegroom, also a student at the college, attended Crater High school, and is employed at Timber Products company.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dean Smith (Good photo)

Home Ceremony Marries Lola Good, Donald Smith

Talent - Miss Lola Belle Good and Donald Dean Smith were married Saturday, June 9 in a 2:30 o'clock afternoon ceremony held in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Good, Wagner Creek road, Talent. The Rev. J. C. Arnett of the Assembly of God church performed the double ring ceremony. About 50 guests attended.

The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Irene Hale of Walters, Okla., and he had lived in Jacksonville his entire life until moving to Oklahoma.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Miss Myrna Marumoto of Hilo, Hawaii attended the bride, and Kenneth Fletcher, Medford, served as best man.

The bride's gown was of lace over taffeta and a crown of seed pearls held her elbow length veil. She carried a bouquet of white carnations. Miss Marumoto wore a pink dress with matching head band and carried a bouquet of pink throat orchids.

The ceremony was read before the fireplace which was decorated with white peonies, and orchids which had been flown from Hawaii as a gift to the bride from Miss Marumoto. On either side were baskets of pink and white peonies.

Mrs. Kenneth Fletcher, pianist, furnished the wedding music.

The reception was held in the garden of the Good home. The cake, decorated by Mrs. Leon Lockwood, was cut by her and assisted in the serving were Mrs. Kenneth Edwards and Mrs. Donald Greaves. Punch was served by Mrs. Ole Skoog and Miss Bernice Skoog poured coffee.

Miss Mimi Jones registered the guests, and in charge of the gifts were the Misses Margaret Bolz, Dana Halaas and Sharon Coffman.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a beige sheath dress with white accessories. Her corsage was of orchids.

During the reception, each of the women who attended was presented an orchid, gifts of the maid of honor.

The couple made a wedding trip to California. For traveling the bride wore a turquoise sheath dress, with white accessories. They will live in San Diego, Calif., after August 1.

The bride is a student at Southern Oregon college and she attended Phoenix schools. She has lived in the valley her entire life.

The bridegroom is a petty officer in the Navy.

August Rites Set For Pair

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hugh Southard, 228 South Ivy street announce the engagement of their daughter, Hazel Leona, to Michael Glen Mitchell, son of Mrs. Audrey McCannache, Central Point.

Miss Southard graduated from Medford High school earlier this month. Mr. Mitchell was discharged from Ft. Lewis in May upon the termination of his military tour of duty.

August 25th has been set as the wedding date.

Sara Hinkle, Trent Ortwein To Be Married

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Moore, 403 North Holly street, announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Miss Sara Linn Hinkle, to Trent Roland Ortwein.

Parents of the bridegroom-elect are Mr. and Mrs. Milton Ortwein, Longview, Wash.

The wedding is set for June 23 at 3 o'clock in the afternoon at First Christian church and an open invitation is extended to friends and church members to attend.

The bride-elect is a Medford High school graduate and has studied for one year at Northwest Christian college where her fiancé is a junior student. He attended Kelso High school. Both plan to complete their education at Portland State college.

Wedding Date Set By Couple

Ashland - Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Bernard O. Bardaux of Myrtle Creek for the marriage of their daughter Suzanne to Morton W. Scripser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Scripser, 283 Scenic drive.

The ceremony will be performed in the First Presbyterian church Friday evening, June 29, and will be the first wedding in the new church. A reception will follow in the Caesar room of the Mark Anthony hotel.

The bride, who lives in Ashland, is secretary in the B. K. Herndon office. Mr. Scripser received his diploma from Southern Oregon college June 3.

Visit Fair

Mr. and Mrs. John Collins and children, William, Allen and Betsy, 2248 Dellwood avenue, have arrived home from a visit to the Seattle World's Fair. They also vacationed at Oregon beaches, spending some time at Gearhart. They were away about 10 days.

3 Extra Services YOURS

WITH OUR REGULAR DRYCLEANING SERVICE

Cut Cleaning Bills... Our automatic, coin-operated machines will do all your dry cleaning jobs to perfection, fast!

1. TV FOR YOUR PLEASURE while you wait enjoy your favorite programs in a pleasant surrounding.
2. COIN OPERATED HAIR DRYERS while you wash or dry clean, use the time to dry your hair tool
3. PROTECTION AGAINST MOTHS Don't take a chance, our process protects your clothing for storage.

ALWAYS OPEN - DROP IN ANYTIME!

OAKDALE LAUNDROMAT

COIN OPERATED DRY CLEANING

Next To Oakdale Market

Big 25-lb. Washer Save The Self Service Way!

11th and Oakdale

Miss Doolen, Peter Kouidis To Be Married Next Autumn

The engagement of Miss Sue Donna Doolen, Eugene to Paul Kouidis, also Eugene, was announced Sunday by her mother, Mrs. Horace M. Doolen, 612 West Second street, Medford, at a party at the Doolen home.

Mr. Kouidis is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kouidis of Athens, Greece. A late fall wedding is planned.

Miss Doolen is a graduate of Medford High school and Rice university, Houston, Texas. For the past year she has been a graduate assistant in French at the University of Oregon.

Mr. Kouidis attended the University of West Virginia and is a graduate of the University of Oregon in mathematics. This fall he will do advance study in mathematics at San Jose State college, San Jose, Calif.

Both are members at Pi Delta Phi, French honorary society.

Some 25 relatives and friends attended the announcement party. Among

Miss Sue Donna Doolen (Landis photo)

Brophy's

Serving Southern Oregon and Northern California for Over 35 Years

Lohengrin Duets

for the double ring ceremony - one of life's finer sentiments. In fourteen karat gold, they range from the tried-and-true traditional hoops to bands embellished with engine-turning or Florentine finish.

From the Groom

to his bride—cultured pearl jewelry—as traditional as Lohengrin and lace for him to give — and her to wear. One of these will be prized on her wedding day and long after.

Uniform necklace $150
Diamond pendant $50
Stud earrings $35
Two-strand bracelet $100
Circle brooch $45

For the Gifts

You'll Give

With Pride...

Let

Brophy's

Be Your

Guide

MEDFORD, OREGON

Quality Diamonds Honestly Priced