Newlywed Couple Leaves For South Carolina Home

Mr. and Mrs. James Russell MacRae are en route to Charleston, S.C., where they will make their home following a wedding trip along the California coast. Mrs. MacRae is the former Julie Lee Seawell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Seawell Jr., 630 Oakdale drive, Medford. Mr. MacRae's parents are Mr. and

Mrs. Donald MacRae IV, Campbell, Calif.

The Rev. George R. V. Bolster officiated at the four o'clock afternoon rites June 9 attended by 30 relatives and friends. White stock and red carnations in vases decorated the altar for the double ring wedding.

The bride wore a white nylon lace frock over taffeta fashioned with bell skirt and three-quarter length sleeves. Her puffed veil of silk illusion was held by a lace and pearl crown and she carried a bouquet of pink roses encircled by Ester Reed daisies.

Miss Lynne Abbott, Boston Bar, British Columbia, attended the bride. She wore a silk organza frock of aquamarine fashioned with bell skirt. Her circle veil was held by horsehair flowers, crystals and pearls. She carried a bouquet of white Ester Reed daisies with aquamarine ribbon.

Kenneth Macovitch, who is stationed with the Royal Canadian Air Force at Comox, Vancouver Island, B.C., served as best man. Oscar D. Seawell, Woodlands Hills, Calif., uncle of the bride, and John Stewart seated the guests.

For her daughter's wedding and reception which followed at the Rogue Valley Country club, Mrs. Seawell chose a Don Loper silk print dress with beige accessories. Her flowers were bronze chrysanthemums. Mrs. MacRae wore a pink silk sheath dress with white accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

Assisting with the serving at the reception were Miss Nancy Housel and Miss Amy Vail.

For traveling the bride wore a beige suit with white accessories. She is a 1962 graduate of Medford High school. Mr. MacRae is an electronics technician third class in the U.S. Navy serving aboard the USS Vesole out of Charleston.

Among the out of town guests attending were Mrs. MacRae, Campbell, Calif., mother of the bridegroom; Mrs. Ray Hawk, Concord, Calif., his grandmother; Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Johnson, Richland, Wash., grandparents of the bride; Miss Marion Seawell, San Francisco, aunt of the bride; Miss Susan Seawell, Woodlands Hills, Calif., a cousin; and Mrs. Frank N. Labadie, South Bend, Ind.

The wedding is set for Saturday, June 23 at 4 o'clock in the afternoon at Westminster Presbyterian church.

Graduate, Wife To Live in East

Gold Hill - Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Burnett have been guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Burnett, Upper River road, Gold Hill.

Mr. Burnett was among graduates at Oregon State university, Corvallis on June 3. His major was electrical engineering. He and his wife plan to leave within a few days for Washington, D.C., where he has a position with the U.S. Public Health department.

The Burnett's daughter, Miss Donna Burnett, who attends the University of Oregon, accompanied her parents to Corvallis for the graduation. She is now at home in Gold Hill to spend the summer.

Family Gathering Honors Travelers

Mr. and Mrs. Dana W. Bowers, 48 Rose avenue, entertained at a family gathering Wednesday at their home honoring Mr. and Mrs. Norris Gore, Prospect Park, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Finn and Mr. Finn's brother, Walter Finn, Sebastopol, Calif.

The group were guests of the Bowers, the Gores having arrived here on a six-week trip of this country and Canada.

From here the Gores planned to leave for Portland, and a stay with friends in Seattle where they will visit the World's Fair, before continuing to Vancouver, B.C.

The couple plans to retire next fall to a new home in New Hampshire.

Rites Held At Home Wed Couple

Eagle Point - Miss Carol Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Taylor, Butte Falls Star route, Box 101A, Eagle Point, became the bride of Richard Collman, son of Mrs. E. L. Beck, Route 1, Box 30, Talent, Saturday, June 9. The ceremony was performed by Bishop William H. Davis, of the Ashland Latter Day Saints Church of Jesus Christ, in the Davis home at 1040 Clay street in Ashland.

About 40 persons attended the ceremony.

William Richstein, Talent, gave the bride in marriage. The bride's street length dress was of net over satin, designed with a sweetheart neckline and bows of self material trimmed the sleeves and the back neckline. Her elbow length veil was held by a crown of pearls and rhinestones, and her corsage was of red roses.

Miss Bonny Taylor, San Francisco, and Eagle Point, was maid of honor for her sister. She was attired in a light beige colored sheath dress and her corsage was of white carnations with miniature pink roses.

The fireplace in the Davis home which was scene of the ceremony was decorated with baskets of roses and peonies. The reception was held immediately following the ceremony. The bridegroom's mother had made the wedding cake which was decorated by Mrs. Norman Klavano of Ashland. Serving the cake was Mrs. Beck, while Mrs. Davis poured the punch.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a beige dress and Mrs. Beck wore a pink full skirted sheer dress.

The bride was graduated this spring from Eagle Point High school and the bridegroom attended Talent schools.

The couple is living at 926 1/2 North Central avenue in Medford.

Herbs in Dyes Is Lecture Topic

Mrs. Stephen Counts will lecture to the Rogue Valley Herb society on herbs used in dyes at her home in Grants Pass Tuesday, June 19.

The society will meet at 10 a.m. for an all day work shop. Members should take their own lunches. Members will meet at the Big Y at 9 a.m. before leaving for Grants Pass.

At the May 15 meeting members answered roll call naming a use for sweet woodruff. Mrs. H. W. Ward had the exhibit of sweet woodruff and told of some of its uses. Mrs. J. W. Ostrander read an article, "The Forest and the Druggist." Mrs. Ray Cyr lectured on trees used in dyes, seasoning and medicine.

Mrs. Ostrander told how they made maple syrup when she was a little girl. Mrs. Frank Carson and Mrs. Clayton Walker were hostesses of the day serving herb teas and cookies.

Senior Artists Exhibit At Rogue River Event

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Neptune of Rogue Valley Manor will show colored slides at the Senior Activity center Monday, June 18, at 1 p.m. for persons interested in both foreign and domestic travel.

The pictures to be shown by the Neptunes will include scenes in Yellowstone and Grand Teton National parks, the Jackson Hole country in Wyoming, the Craters of the Moon in Idaho, and a trip in the Big Bend country of British Columbia.

During the last month, the Arm Chair Travelers have been to Jerusalem, Bangkok in Thailand, Hongkong, and Africa. Any person over 60 is welcome to attend.

Twenty-two artists and guests filled the Center Tuesday last week when they painted under the direction of Mrs. Ruby Twedell. The Saturday class did not meet as most of the two classes took their pictures to Rogue River to the Live Oak Grange hall for the exhibit held during the Rooster Crow event. More than 40 paintings were displayed by the group.

Tuesday, June 19, the class plans to paint in Hawthorne park, weather permitting.

The group will meet at the Center first.

Saturday, June 23, although no teacher will be available, members may go to the Center and paint as usual.

New members are welcome to learn copper tooling in the class held each Wednesday at 1 p.m., now under the direction of Mrs. Ethel Byers.

Robert Africa, who planned to teach the class, is out of town.

The orchestra will meet on Thursday afternoons each week, but both the Spanish classes are taking a vacation from studying during the summer months. They will resume in September.

The Senior center will now be open only five afternoons from 1 to 4 p.m. Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday. Committee meetings may be scheduled any morning or after 3 p.m.

Last week the Medford Fifty Plus club executive committee met Thursday at 3 p.m. in the center.

Some of the jury meetings for the Senior Craftsman of Oregon will be held in the center for the benefit of craftsman who have no trans-
