

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Crammer

Edith Wright Is Married To Phillip Crammer

Butte Falls—Miss Edith May Wright and Phillip L. Crammer were married May 26 in the parsonage of the Methodist Community church of South Oceanside, Calif.

The Rev. Raphael A. Ortiz, minister of the church, performed the double ring ceremony at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wright, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Crammer, all of Butte Falls.

The bride wore a ballerina length dress of lace over satin and her veil was elbow length. The bride's mother and Mrs. Ortiz, wife of the minister, witnessed the ceremony.

Both the bride and bridegroom attended Butte Falls schools and the bridegroom also attended Ruch elementary school.

The bridegroom, a jet mechanic, was stationed at the time of the wedding at Camp Pendleton, Calif., and now is stationed for two years in Hawaii, where his bride plans to join him later.

During a tea June 12 which observed the 50th anniversary of Talent Federated Women's club the club displayed a gold tray and a scrap book. The tray was presented to the club for winning third place in the Richfield conservation contest sponsored through the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs. Shown with the tray and book are Mrs. Mae Lowe (left to right), who first interested the club in sponsoring Camp Fire Girls for the area, Mrs. Clay M. Lee, Medford, retiring president of First district of the Oregon federation and Mrs. Frank Christian, chairman of the anniversary tea. Mrs. Lowe has been a Camp Fire Girl leader and volunteer for as long as the club has been organized.

Grandmothers Plan Meeting on Monday

Central Point — Mrs. Millie Johnson has announced a potluck picnic for Grandmother Clubs of America, Crater chapter, to be held at 1 p.m. June 18 at the home of Mrs. Sanford Richardson, Table Rock rd.

Plans Completed for Girl Scout Camp

Plans are being completed for the 1962 camping season at the Girl Scout Established camp, Low Echo, at Lake of the Woods. The first session will start Sunday, July 8, and end Sunday, July 15, and will be for Brownie Scouts.

A new activity this year will be horse-back riding, with horses from Wilhelm's tables at Lake of the Woods. The stable has a string of well-trained trail horses and the Scout camp is offering campers a trail ride in the Rainbow Creek area. Plans also include an overnight ride to High Meadows, with campers taking food for dinner and breakfast, and returning after breakfast. Hayrides and breakfast rides are also planned, according to Mrs. Lucile Russell, camp director. Mrs. Russell is also executive director of the Rogue Valley council.

Three intermediate camp sessions are scheduled, with the second session starting Sunday, July 29 to Sunday, August 5, fully registered. The other intermediate sessions are July 15 to 28, and August 5 to 12. Two Pioneer unit camps are scheduled with the first from Sunday, July 15 to July 28, and the second from July 29 to August 11. Pioneer units do a more primitive type of camping, and girls usually do their own food preparation.

Two program aid sessions will be held, of 10 days each. They are Sunday, July 8 until July 25, and July 25 to

Other program plans include hikes to Lake Harriette and Mount McLoughlin for the older girls, lots of singing, a variety of waterfront activities, and shorter hikes for the younger girls. Water front director this year is Miss Janet Nelson.

Also available this year for the first time will be an opportunity for parents to have lunch at the camp when they come to take the campers home. Parents are to pick up their children by 1 p.m. on the last Sunday of their session. In the morning there will be a family entertainment, and then lunch.

Mrs. Russell stated that those campers who desire more information on the horse-back riding or any other phase of the camp schedule should call the Girl Scout office at 772-5912.

August 11. Two counselor-in-training units are scheduled, with the first session for girls entering the eleventh grade to be July 8 to 25. The second session will be for girls entering the twelfth grade, and will be from July 25 until August 11. Twelfth grade girls can take both sessions consecutively if they desire.

Also available this year for the first time will be an opportunity for parents to have lunch at the camp when they come to take the campers home. Parents are to pick up their children by 1 p.m. on the last Sunday of their session. In the morning there will be a family entertainment, and then lunch.

Mrs. Russell stated that those campers who desire more information on the horse-back riding or any other phase of the camp schedule should call the Girl Scout office at 772-5912.
