

TRIBE SWEEPS 4 FROM YANKEES

Cleveland Leader by Two Games

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

The Cleveland Indians may not have the New York Yankees "on the run" but even Manager Ralph Houk admits "it's a slow retreat."

It could turn out to be the understatement of the year because Sunday was perhaps the greatest baseball day in Cleveland since World War II. It was the day when the Indians completed a four-game sweep of the Yankees with 6-1 and 6-3 victories, surged two games ahead in the American league race and proved they're solid pennant contenders.

"If we get some consistency in our pitching, we'll be tough all the way," said Manager Mel McGaha. "This team will score runs and it's also a good defensive team."

Dick Donovan and Pedro Ramos, both acquired in trades, treated 70,918 fans at Cleveland—the largest major league turnout of the season—to a day that warmed the hearts of millions of "Yankee haters." Donovan, aided by consecutive second-inning homers by Jerry Kindall, Bubba Phillips and Jim Mahoney, went 6 1/3 innings to raise his record to 10-2, and then Ramos, helped by Willie Kirkland's two-run homer, went 6 2/3 innings for his fourth victory.

A's Downed Twins

The Kansas City Athletics downed the Minnesota Twins, 10-6, the Los Angeles Angels scored 5-3 and 6-5 victories over the Chicago White Sox; the Baltimore Orioles defeated the Washington Senators, 4-3, and the Boston Red Sox won, 5-0, after an 8-5 loss to the Detroit Tigers in the other American league Sunday action.

The Los Angeles Dodgers fopped the Houston Colts, 6-2; the San Francisco Giants defeated the St. Louis Cardinals, 6-3; the Pittsburgh Pirates beat the Milwaukee Braves, 7-3; the Philadelphia Phillies rapped the Cincinnati Reds, 7-2, and the Chicago Cubs swept the New York Mets, 8-7 and 4-3 in National league games.

Norm Siebern hit two homers and drove in three runs to lead a 12-hit Kansas City attack that brought Dave Wickersham his eighth win against two defeats. Harmon Killebrew and Lenny Green homered for Minnesota.

Leon Wagner's 17th and 18th homers and excellent relief pitching by Bo Belkin and Jack Spring enabled the Angels to break a four-game losing streak. Joe Horlen and Johnny Buschard suffered the losses.

Adair Led Orioles

Jerry Adair, hitting only .213 at game time, had three singles and knocked in three runs for the Orioles to offset homers by Joe Hicks and Chuck Hinton. Hoyt Wilhelm stopped the Senators on one hit for the last three innings to win his third game and Bennie Daniels suffered his eighth loss.

Rookie Purnal Goidy hit two homers as the Tigers snapped a seven-game losing streak but the Red Sox bounced back for a split behind the seven-hit pitching of Ike DeLoach, Ed Bressoud's two-run triple and homers by Pete Runnels and Frank Malzone were the big blows for the Red Sox.

Tom Davis' three-run homer capped a five-run sixth-inning rally that brought the Dodgers from behind and snapped their three-game losing streak. Ed Roebuck shut out the Colts for 3 1/3 innings to win his fourth game without a loss.

Haddix Notches Sixth

Tom Haller's three-run ninth inning homer snapped a 3-2 tie and brought San Francisco's Jack Sanford his seventh triumph. Willie Mays had a two-run double and a single for the Giants and Red Schoendienst hit a two-run homer for the Cardinals.

Harvey Haddix struck out 10 batters to win his sixth

Bees Sting San Diego Padres 21-7

By ORVILLE BOYINGTON
United Press International

You really couldn't blame the San Diego Padres if they failed to show up for their Pacific Coast league baseball game at Salt Lake City tonight. The league-leading Bees are becoming mighty rude hosts.

Salt Lake let San Diego romp off to a 7-0 lead Sunday night and then swarmed back to win, 21-7, scoring 12 runs in the sixth inning. The rout was the fourth straight victory for the Bees over the Padres and the loss dropped San Diego into third place, three games out.

In other PCL games, Seattle defeated Tacoma, 9-2; Vancouver beat Hawaii, 5-0, and Spokane turned back Portland, 8-6.

Big Inning

The Bees got seven hits and were given six walks by Sam Ellis and three other Padre hurlers in the sixth inning as they scored their dozen tallies. They added three more runs in the seventh and closed out their scoring with six more in the eighth. Zack Monroe, the fourth and final Padre pitcher, sustained the loss, his sixth in eight decisions. Phil Murdock, who came to the mound in the sixth for Salt Lake, got the win. He is now 1-1.

Johansson Nabs European Title

Göteborg, Sweden (UPI)—Former world heavyweight champion Ingemar Johansson, who recaptured the European title Sunday night in Europe's richest fight, said today he hopes to get another shot at the world crown in 1963 through Sonny Liston.

Ingemar, 29, took the European diadem from 28-year-old Dick Richardson of Wales on an impressive knockout at 2:13 of the eighth round before more than 50,000 delighted fans in the Ullevi Soccer Stadium here.

GRANT TITLIST

Portland — Jerry Grant of Kent, Wash., carried off his second consecutive championship in the Rose Cup sports car races Sunday. Grant won the professional modified class in a Ferrari Testa Rossa. He averaged 78.92 miles per hour in the 90-minute race around the 2.4-mile West Delta park course. Daniel Padree, Oakland, Calif., was second in a Maserati Type 61, followed by Ron Dykes, Palo Alto, Calif., in a Maserati.

game for the Pirates who chased Warren Spahn in five innings and tagged him with his eighth defeat.

Joe Adcock homered for the Braves and Bob Skinner had two singles, a triple and a double for the Pirates.

Don Demeter's two-run homer and Roy Siever's two-run triple led the nine-hit Phillies' attack that sent Cincinnati's Jim O'Toole to his eighth loss against four wins. John Baldschun shut out the Reds for the last 5 2/3 innings to win his third game for the Phillies.

Lou Brock became the first major leaguer to hit a homer into the right center field bleachers at the Polo Grounds in the first game and Ron Santo won the nightcap for the Cubs with a ninth-inning homer. Brock's blow—about 460 feet—was off Al Jackson. The Braves Joe Adcock hit into the left center field bleachers at the P. G. in 1953 and Babe Ruth is also credited with hitting two into left center in 1921 when the stands were about 30 feet closer to the plate.

Medford Subdues Falcons, Coos Bay In Legion Tangles

SPORTS

Medford's American Legion baseball team stretched its season winning skel to six straight games with three week end victories.

The loop pacing Cokes became the lone unbeaten team in Area 4 Southern Division by nicking Klamath Falls Falcons 5 to 4 on Saturday night.

On Sunday Medford took a pair of non-league scrapes from Coos Bay, 7 to 1 and 9 to 1, giving the locals a 6-1 season mark.

The Medfords ran their loop standing to 3-0 Saturday by bouncing the defending champions. Two runs in the top of the seventh inning broke a 3-all knot for the Cokes and they withstood a Klamath bid in the bottom of the seventh before claiming victory.

In the Sunday contests, the Cokes won going away after short starts.

Scores In Seventh

Two errors, a single by Dan Miles and a double by Mike Neathamer were employed by Medford for its two seventh inning markers on Saturday at Klamath Falls. The Falcons came back in the bottom of the panel with a triple by Sherm Allen and a single by Crutchfield for one runner.

Medford broke scoring ice in the fracas with one tally in the third inning on Miles' single and stolen base and an error. In the fifth the Cokes made the count 2 to 0 when Stuart Young singled and Dick Deffley two-baggered. Klamath duplicated this in its fifth inning batting turn for its first marker. Larry Smith socked the one-base blow and Kent Franklin the double. An error and Ken Phillips' two-baser garnered a run and 3 to 1 Medford edge in the top of the sixth.

Three scores were piled up in the fifth inning on a hit by Miller, a base on balls, a hit batter, and error, a fielder's choice sacrifice by Phillips. Five stolen bases and a groundout. A single by Miles, a double by Neathamer, a walk and two miscues got two runs in the sixth panel.

Neathamer for Medford and Harold Smith for Coos Bay each had two hits in the game. Enyart walked three, hit one batter and struck out five. CB tosser John Briggs fanned four, walked five and hit two while permitting six Medford hits.

Medford runners swiped 15 bases during the twinbill, nine in the first game. Deffley and Miller had three swipes each in this tussle.

Two errors, a fielder's option and a groundout produced the second game tally for Coos Bay.

Four In Third

Singles by Ron Edmonds and Forde after a walk and a hit batter figured in a three run second inning by Medford. There were two stolen bases. Miles doubled in the inning but the hit did not figure in run production. Four runs in the third inning were on hits by Jim Calhoun and Scott Eaton, four out of five bases on balls, two passed balls, a wild pitch and a stolen base.

Two runs in the fourth came to Miller's double, Phipps single, a groundout, a walk and a stolen base.

No batter got more than one hit in the second game but Edmonds, Eaton and Phipps each batted home two scores.

Forde gave up no walks and struck out two. Nick Nylander yielded seven hits on the hill for the coast team. He walked seven and hit one. Calhoun had three base swipes in this encounter.

Medford had a double play in each game.

Medford and Central Point will meet in a league game at Memorial Field, White City, on Wednesday evening. The teams split in non-loop play.
