

PREPARED—Following a very dignified graduation of the kindergarten class at Alta Loma Elementary school in Los Angeles recently, the 74 students showed that they were prepared for the "adult" world of the first grade by doing an adult dance, the Twirl. Louverne Stokes, 5, left, and Blekal Loma, 5, are shown performing for their fellow classmates, (UPI)

Portland Child Subject of Search

Government Camp, Ore. — UPI-A 7-year-old Portland boy was missing in heavily timbered country about 15 miles southeast of here in the Mt. Hood National Forest.

Clifford Altman, who was wearing an orange-yellow shirt and jeans, vanished from the Bear Paw campground. The campground is located just off Highway 26 some three miles north of the intersection with state highway 216.

Fifteen Wasco county sheriff's deputies and reserves and an equal number of volunteers searched all roads in the area throughout the night and were joined later by two bloodhounds maintained by a private rescue unit at Madras.

The boy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Altman of Portland.
