McKinley Is Advancing

London—UPI—Chuck McKinley of St. Louis, Mo., still trying to play himself into shape for next week's Wimbledon championships, is advancing in good style in the London grass courts tennis tournament.

McKinley, ranked second in the United States, easily defeated Premjit Lal of India, 6-2, 6-3, Monday in a second round match. Joining their teammate in the third round were Frank Froehling of Coral Gables, Fla., Ned Neely of Atlanta, Ga., and Ed Rubinoff of Miami, Fla.

Sixth-ranked Froehling beat Jose Arilla of Spain, 6-3, 11-9; Neely topped Barenda Nath of India, 6-4, 6-1; and Rubinoff romped over G. Sturza of France, 6-0, 6-1.

However, Mal Fox of Washington, D.C., and Gene Scott of St. James, N.Y., both were eliminated.

The American women didn't fare as well as the men with Billie Jean Moffitt, Margaret Varner, Carol Ann Loop and Victoria Palmer all losing.

Mrs. Margaret DuPont of Wilmington, Del., captain of the successful Wightman Cup team, advanced to the fourth round of the women's singles with a 1-6, 6-3, 6-2, victory over Mrs. Heather Segal of South Africa, while Gwyneth Thomas of Cleveland and Nancy Richey of Dallas both won first round matches.

Morey Leads So. Amateur Golf Field

Ormond Beach, Fla.—UPI—Dale Morey of Morganton, N.C., with a first round 67, led the field today going into the second qualifying round for the Southern Amateur golf championship.

But another distinguished Morganton amateur, Billy Joe Patton, was missing from play. There still was a chance that Patton, the 1961 Southern association champion, would skip the qualifying rounds and show up when match play begins Wednesday.

Tied for second place at 69 were Charles Harrison of Atlanta, John Mundy III, and Marlen Vogt.

Next was Sonny Ellis of Atlanta with a 70, while Charles McCallum of Fort Lauderdale, Dan Ellnor of Ormond Beach, James Spencer and Bob Hinson had 71s. Eight were tied with even par 72s.

Morey and Patton are both former Walker Cup players. Morey has won Western and Southern titles and was runner-up in a U.S. Open.

2nd NCAA Golf Qualifying Round Starting

Durham, N.C.—UPI—The first of a 220-man field of collegiate golfers was to tee off early today in the second 18-hole qualifying round in the NCAA golf championship with Houston players leading for both the individual and team honors.

Kermit Zarley of Houston will complete the final hole of Monday's qualifying round today. Through the 17th hole Monday, he fired a 64 but was unable to complete the last hole because of darkness. A par-4 on the hole would give him a 68, three strokes better than his nearest rivals.

Trailing Zarley with 71s after the first round were Wake Forest's Ken Folkes and Purdue's Bill Templin. Nine players were tied at 73s in the third spot.

Houston, co-favorite to take the team honors which will be decided after today's round, was in first place with a 288 plus the hole that Zarley must complete today. In second place was defending champion Purdue followed by North Carolina and Minnesota tied at 309.

Oregon, Ohio State Plan Home-And-Home Football Series

Eugene—UPI—Oregon and Ohio State will play a home-and-home football series in 1967 and 1968, Oregon Athletic Director Leo Harris said today.

The first game of the series will be played Oct. 7, 1967, tentatively in Portland, Harris said. The game will be the first in history for Ohio State in the Northwest.

The second game will be played Oct. 5, 1968 at Columbus, Ohio.

The two schools have met twice previously, with Ohio State winning 10-7 in the 1958 Rose Bowl and 22-12 at Columbus last year. They will play again at Columbus this Nov. 17.

LISTON TAKES BREATH

Philadelphia—UPI—Heavyweight challenger Sonny Liston rested at home today after breaking camp at South Fallsburg, N.Y., Monday. He will remain here until June 28 when he will go to Chicago for formal signing of contracts for the title bout with champion Floyd Patterson. They will meet in Chicago on Sept. 25.

SCHOOLBOY SIGNS

Pittsburg, Calif.—UPI—Frank Pappas, 17-year-old Pittsburg High school catcher Monday signed a professional contract with the New York Yankees and immediately was assigned to their Harlan, Ky., club in the Appalachian league. Pappas was regarded as one of the top pro prospects in the west.

Jibodad Velvet Entered in National Field Trial

Rogue Valley Retriever club will be represented by one entry in the National Amateur trial which will open on Wednesday and run through Saturday in the Klamath Falls vicinity.

The dog is Jibodad Velvet, female Labrador retriever, owned by Dr. Charles N. Versteeg, Cave Junction. Velvet is back in the competition after completing all the tests in last year's national but failing to place. She was one of seven dogs to finish all tests.

Approximately 60 dogs are entered this year. The trial will be conducted over both of the state game commission areas southwest of Klamath Falls. Shasta-Cascade Retriever club is host.

A Klamath Falls entry is James Stilwell's Tyson Rowdy, a golden.

Put the gear topside—spread the family inside—start your vacation in a Rambler wagon

Vacation starts the minute you roll from the driveway in this roomy Rambler Cross Country Wagon. For you've loaded enough luggage into that rear Roof-Top Travel Rack to outfit a small army. You've got the kids stowed in that king-size playpen area, where they can play mile after mile. And should little sister grow drowsy, she can swap places with Mom and relax in the reclining Bucket Seat. This seat (a low-cost option) converts readily to a nap couch.

Meanwhile, you've got the wheel of a zesty performer that shrinks the miles—skims over ruts and bumps that have other cars dragging their tailpipes.

Fact is, this solid performer cheerfully ignores most any kind of punishment. Single-Unit construction defies jars and jolts—stays rattle-free. And exclusive Deep-Dip rustproofing—right up to the roof—keeps your Rambler young years longer.

All the more amazing then, that you will find Rambler's wonderful wagons so low priced. And offering eye-opening gasoline mileage, low maintenance and, eventually, high resale value to boot.

Choose from 12 exciting models—2- or 3-seaters. With any one of them, you'll be getting a real money-saving deal as you join the Trade Parade to Rambler. See your Rambler dealer tomorrow!

Newspaper Advertising Hits the Mark with a Large and Constant Audience

There's nothing hit-or-miss about the newspaper audience—it's a constant audience that varies little throughout the year. That's because newspaper circulation remains constant with little variation from month to month. There is no summer slump in newspaper reading habits. Furthermore, readers can pick their own time—day or night—to enjoy the paper. And they do—over 107,000,000 of them every day in the U.S. For sure-fire results, advertise consistently in the daily newspaper.
