

Russian Premier Sees No Reason To Go To War Over Berlin

Bucharest, Romania—(UPI)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev said today the Soviet Union sees no reason to go to war over Berlin. He declared Russia has set no deadline for signing a separate peace treaty with Communist East Germany.

In a speech recalling his famed "we will bury you" remark of 1950, the touring Soviet leader also predicted that, in the long run, the Red flag would fly over the United States and said "the American people will hoist it themselves."

"How ever," Khrushchev added, "we do not want war with the United States and to drop our bombs over America."

Khrushchev appeared supremely confident as he spoke to workers at the Gritva

Rosie railroad workshop, a Communist stronghold through World Wars I and II. In the first address of his eight day tour in Romania.

Western observers in Bucharest considered Khrushchev's remarks on Berlin and Germany to be the most important of his speech.

He first accused the West of threatening war over Berlin and continued:

"We see no reason for going to war. Those who talk about war should better realize that pushing the button would in the end turn against them."

Khrushchev said that if East and West reach an agreement on Germany, the Soviet Union will sign a separate peace treaty.

"We are not setting any deadlines for signing the treaty with the East German Democratic Republic," he added. "If the time is right, however, we shall solve the problem."

Khrushchev appealed to the United States for a German settlement.

"We want an understanding with the Americans over the German question and to settle the West Berlin problem in order to end the occupation regime in this city and turn it into a free town," he said.

Khrushchev said the United States was responsible for Russia's armaments program.

"They force us to produce bombs," he said. "But producing bombs is a waste of energy. Armament is not a creative work," the Soviet leader said.

"President Kennedy once remarked it could be possible that the United States has to take the initiative and start a war... The imperialists prepare war against us. If the imperialists would attack us, it would result in a suicide. I can assure you that in such a case not one stone would remain on the other."

"However, we do not want war with the United States and to drop our bombs over America," he added.

Two patients were flown by Mercy Flights, Inc., in the last two days.

Coleman Smith, Oklahoma City, Okla., was returned to his home from Medford following treatment at Rogue Valley hospital for injuries suffered when he fell from a Klamath River bridge. He was the 1,428th patient carried by Mercy Flights. The flight was June 18.

H. Howard Lage, 2218 Capitol ave., was flown from Klamath Falls to Medford today after a boating accident on the Klamath lake.

Stock Market Experiences Fifth Successive Blue Monday Price Drop

New York—(UPI)—The stock market Monday experienced its fifth successive blue Monday. Volume and prices were lower, indicating traders would have preferred trying to beat the heat somewhere other than Wall Street.

Trading was brisk for about two hours, but dipped in the afternoon and prices showed a moderate loss at the close. Volume on the New York Stock Exchange was 4,580,000 shares.

Some leading issues reflected the sluggish atmosphere, helped by the humidity which covered the world's financial capital. American Telephone & Telegraph was up 25 cents at the opening, off $1.88 at midday and closed at $103.50, off $2.37. Chrysler opened 50 cents higher and closed up 25 cents at $43.25.

Stock exchange President Keith Funston said the recent partial recovery of the market from its May 29 plunge could be attributed to the large number of investors now buying stocks.

Funston spoke in Atlantic City, N.J., to the 16th annual convention of the American Society of Corporate Secretaries.

Funston said today's market is more balanced than in past years, but also more unpredictable "because you have 15 million investors involved in it."

Meanwhile, it was announced that the first big sale of General Motors Corp. stock owned by E. I. DuPont de Nemours & Co., Inc., will probably come next month. DuPont is under a court order to divest itself of 23 per cent interest in GM under terms of settlement of an antitrust suit.

The DuPont family must sell its 63 million shares in GM. The court has allowed three years to complete the stock sale.

The sale next month was expected to involve 2,850,000 shares worth $142.5 million at today's market prices.

Canadian Girls Recruited for Strip Jobs

Washington—(UPI)—An Immigration Service investigator said today an "international conspiracy" is recruiting teen-aged Canadian girls for U.S. strip joints where they are held in virtual slavery, forced to dance nude and take part in prostitution.

Glen F. Rice told the Senate rackets subcommittee that a woman identified as Miss Billie Brown of Montreal's Paramount Booking Agency has recruited Canadian girls for clubs in Wisconsin and the Chicago area where "immoral activities and perversion" are carried out.

The subcommittee is investigating the relationship between the American Guild of Variety Artists and racketeer-controlled night clubs.

Another witness, Associate Immigration Commissioner

Mario T. Nolo, said the service had put a stop to the recruiting of Canadian girls for U.S. night club strip shows. Since last March, he said, the service has been investigating the locale and the type of dancing that Canadian applicants for jobs would be doing.

Applications Rejected

Rejected are applications to work as belly dancers, strip tease dancers, and other jobs in "so-called girlie shows," Nolo said.

Rice said Brown's booking agency, which he described as an AGVA-franchised agency, recruited young and inexperienced Canadian girls through newspaper advertisements, promising them "stardom" in the United States.

Rice said that how the girls slept in a long hall with a bodyguard at the front of the building 24 hours a day.

"Miss X and Miss Y observed drunks being rolled while working at the Bond Box; both were urged by the owner and his wife to use whatever method necessary to get men drunk, so they could be rolled or spend their money," Rice said.

He said the girls tried "to escape" but didn't get far because their car got stuck in the snow. After they were unable to get away, Rice said "Both were shipped by the management to Calumet City, Ill., to work."

He said there they were employed by Al Holzman, manager of the Riptide club.

Rice said the girls found conditions at the Riptide even worse than at Hurley. At the Riptide, he testified, girls were threatened and one man was assigned "to beat up the girls and keep them in line." He said there were back rooms at the club "where the girls took the men for immoral purposes."

Rice said the girls finally escaped, and hitchhiked to Los Angeles where they were picked up by the Immigration Service.

According to Rice, the girls said they were in fear of the "syndicate" and were afraid to actually leave the United States unless ordered to do so by the Immigration Service. The girls, under safeguard, were returned to Canada.

Charges Conspiracy

Rice declared that "I would like to say that it is my conviction that this shocking situation in the exploitation of young girls, of tender age, in the Calumet City, Ill., and Hurley, Wis., area, was accomplished by a conspiracy between Billie Brown of the Paramount Booking Agency, an AGVA-franchised agency who recruited the girls, the AGVA branch agents who submitted the petitions to admit these girls to enter the United States, and the organized crime element in the Chicago area who used the girls," Rice said.

He said there were 11 Canadian girls there—most of them between the ages 15 and 17.

Rice told about how the girls slept in a long hall with a bodyguard at the front of the building 24 hours a day.

"Miss X and Miss Y observed drunks being rolled while working at the Bond Box; both were urged by the owner and his wife to use whatever method necessary to get men drunk, so they could be rolled or spend their money," Rice said.

Be sure you collect all you should if your home burns

A fire doesn't always happen to the other fellow.

It could happen to your home—tonight!

If it did, could you give an accounting of every household furnishing and every piece of personal property lost in the fire . . . with the actual value of each? You would have to . . . to establish your insurance claim. Compiling a complete list of your losses after a fire is an almost impossible task.

On the other hand, the procedure is quite simple—if before you have a fire, you keep an up-to-date record of each article exposed to possible loss. To help you do this, the Atlantic Companies are offering a free inventory booklet for household furnishings and personal property. It lists the items you are likely to own—such as carpets, chairs, lamps, appliances—and provides space for additional items and for the cost of each one.

Filing in this inventory record of your possessions now will serve two purposes. First, it will give you an accurate list from which to file a claim. Second, it will help you determine if you are adequately insured (at the time of fire loss, most people do not have enough fire insurance!)

To make certain you collect all you should when you have a fire, fill out Atlantic's household inventory booklet. For your free copy, clip this coupon and send it to the independent agent of your choice below.
