Calcutta Man in Portland To Have Heart Surgery

Portland - UPI - A 32-year-old Calcutta, India, man arrived today for delicate open-heart operation at the University of Oregon Medical School.

Berendra Kumar Dutta Barman arrived at Portland International Airport and was met by Clackamas county deputy sheriff Ken Shoup and his wife. Shoup is an Indian Theater war veteran who pledged his help to Barman when he first heard of the Indian's trouble.

Barman was brought to this county through efforts of the Oregon Heart Association, the Medical School and Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt.

Barman, a college graduate, was taken to the medical school hospital where Dr. Albert Starr said he would attempt the delicate operation. Barman was to begin a round of tests and Dr. Starr said the mitral valve replacement might be indicated.

Frequent Attacks

Such surgery is not practiced in India. Barman, a former athlete, has suffered from frequent heart attacks over the past seven years. He read of Dr. Starr's surgery in a Calcutta newspaper and wrote Mrs. Roosevelt asking for help.

Mrs. Roosevelt wrote to Dr. Starr and the Oregon Heart Association. Shoup read of the story and made many calls on Barman's behalf.

Medical school authorities have decided the operation could be performed under terms of an $800,000 cardiac research research awarded the medical school in 1961.

Barman's travel expenses were paid by the Calcutta Rotary Club.

Hitchhiker Held For Robbing Man

Portland - UPI - A hitchhiker was being held here today after a Portland man's car was stolen, his wallet taken and he was tied to a tree.

Under arrest was Jon E. Gray, 24, Okaloosa, Fla. Adolph V. Ekedahl, an assistant refuge supervisor for the Fish and Wildlife Service, told authorities he picked up a hitchhiker near Baker Tuesday as he was returning to Portland.

He said he let him out of the car at Pendleton and later picked him up again outside that city. Shortly after he left Biggs Junction he said the hitchhiker pulled a gun and forced him to drive a short distance off the road.

Ekedahl's hands were tied around a tree and the man left in his car. Ekedahl managed to work his way free and hail a passing motorist. The Multnomah county sheriff's office later spotted the car near Troutdale Junction and made the arrest.

Tax Collections Show Decline

Salem - UPI - The Oregon Tax commission said today it collected $10.4 million from the key personal and corporate income taxes in May.

This was a drop of $3.3 million from May, 1961. For the fiscal year to date, however, total collections as of May were $111 million, a gain of 8.2 per cent over a year ago.

The commission added that income tax collections for both April and May this year were $45 million, up $3.6 million from April-May, 1961.

At the same time, State Treasurer Howard C. Belton made an upward revision in estimated revenue from the Oregon inheritance and gift taxes. Belton said he expected to take in $13 million from these taxes during this biennium which runs to July, 1963 - $4.4 million more than anticipated earlier.

Hatfield Claimed Dodging GOP Label

Salem - UPI - Atty. Gen. Robert Y. Thornton said Tuesday night that Gov. Mark Hatfield is avoiding the Republican party label.

Thornton, Democratic nominee for governor and Hatfield's opponent this fall, noted that Hatfield has just put out what Thornton called a "lavish 4,000 word propaganda folder" which fails to mention that Hatfield is the Republican candidate for governor.

The folder includes the name Republican "only three times, printed only in the smallest type" but doesn't list Hatfield as the GOP governor, nominee, Thornton said.

Thornton also said that Hatfield has "even omitted his Republican party identification on his large picture posters."

Thornton said that with the election nearing "we can expect him to 'forget' his Republican identification. We can also expect that from now on he will avoid, like hoof and mouth disease, such big GOP events as the recent Republican conference at Seattle where he failed to put in any appearance."

Thornton addressed Marion and Polk county Democrats here.

Roseburg - UPI - State Rep. Carl Fisher (R-Eugene) fourth congressional district candidate, told the Roseburg Junior Republican Club Tuesday night that the Republican party will gain in the coming election.

He said that "it's time our elected officials stop trying to kid us about the stock market, the situation in Laos, or the 'Billie Sol Estes mess.' Fisher will be in Roseburg again Thursday to meet with the Douglas County Republican club.
