Olsen, Scroggin Win Champ Flight Junior Golf Matches

Lake Oswego –UPI– It was a bad day for medalists at the Oregon Junior Golf tournament Tuesday. Two co-medalists and last year's boys division champ were beaten in the first round of match play.

Alan Hudspeth, co-medalist in the junior division from Prineville, was eliminated by Portland's Dick Iverson, 5 and 3.

Steve Morrison of Portland, co-medalist in the boys division, was beaten on the 18th hole, 1-up, by Bob Rennie of Portland.

Scott Smith of Lake Oswego, Boys winner last year, lost to Don Murrow of Eugene, one-up.

Co-medalist Bill McCrae of Pendleton won on the 18th hole over Ken Studebaker of Lake Oswego.

Steve Vrtiska of Corvallis won out on the 20th hole over Craig Iverson of Lake Oswega in the only junior division championship match to go over 18 holes.

Co-medalists Joan Edwards and Treasure Sullivan won their matches in the girls division.

Terry Scroggin of Medford, pee wee medalist, won over Billy Caldwell of Portland 4 and 3.

Another Medfordite to advance in championship flight play was Doug Olsen in the boys' division. He won over Joe Baker, Coos Bay, 7 and 6. In the same division, Chuck Hogan of Redmond won 2 and 1 from Steve Good, Medford, who had qualified with an 80.

Other results Tuesday for Medford entrants included:

Nippert Performs Magic for Seattle

By RAYMOND L. ANDREWS
United Press International

They call him Merlin (The Magician) Nippert and it was quite a fancy trick the Seattle hurler performed in Pacific Coast league play Tuesday night.

Nippert pitched three innings in relief, retired nine men in order while whiffing three as Seattle turned back Salt Lake City 5-4 to move to within a game of the league-leading Bees.

San Diego, also but one game out of first place, kept pace with an 8-5 win over Vancouver while in other games Portland blanked Hawaii 2-0 and Tacoma stopped Spokane 7-5.

Nippert was credited with his fifth victory against one loss as Joe Theis won it for the Rainiers with a solo homer in the eighth. Seattle had gone ahead 4-3 on another solo homer in the fourth on a 400-foot blast over the centerfield fence by Dave Mann.

A pair of walks and Jack Kubiszyn's double knotted it in the fifth to set the stage for the homer by Theis.

Portlanders Combine

Dale Willis and Dan Osinski of Portland combined to blank Hawaii on two hits. Willis allowed a sixth-inning single to Tom Satriano and a single in the seventh to Eddie Haas. Osinski retired the final six hitters in a row.

Portland got both its markers in the fourth. Ron Debus drove in one marker with a single and the other crossed on Gordon MacKenzie's sacrifice fly.

Tacoma's Gerry Thomas must have thought he should have stood in bed as Spokane touched him for four unearned runs on one hit in the first inning.

However, he then retired 21 straight Indians through the eighth before bumping into trouble in the ninth when Julio Navarro came to the rescue.

Bill Hain hit a three-run homer in the second for Tacoma and then helped spark a four-run third inning with a two-run double. Thomas got the win and stands 6-5.

George McWilliams had to come on in relief in the ninth to put down a Vancouver rally and save the victory for San Diego. John Flavin was the winner.

Tru-Mix, Schulz Softball Victors; Three-Way Tie

There is no unbeaten team in the Jackson County Softball association. Tru-Mix Concrete took care of that last night by ending the spotless record of the Grants Pass Elks.

The Mixers won 7 to 4.

Keith Schulz Garage also tripped the Central Point Merchants 9 to 5 and the net result was to create a three-way tie for first place in the association. It is shared by Grants Pass, Tru-Mix and Keith Schulz at 6-1 each.

Barney Riggs' grand slam home run won the game for Tru-Mix. Chuck Marrs, Lowell Dean and Dick Ragsdale scored ahead of him in the bottom of the seventh inning. Each had drawn a base on balls. The winning run tallied with one out.

Riggs also singled and doubled for Concrete in his four times up and drove in five runs. Bill Werner hit four for four for the victors. Don Reese doubled and singled for Grants Pass.

GP Takes Lead

All Grants Pass runs were unearned.

Grants Pass had gone ahead with three runs in the top of the seventh inning on a hit, fielder's option, a wild pitch, and three errors, one an overthrow at third base allowing two of the runs to come in.

Tru-Mix got one run in the fourth inning on singles by Norm Hedgepeth, Ragsdale and Riggs. In the sixth, Dean walked, went to second on a Ragsdale sacrifice and scored on Gary Britt's bunt single.

TM pitcher Ron Weatherford pitched a five hitter and fanned eight. John Browns and Les Saffer gave up a total of 10 hits to TM and whiffed five.

Jack Burns got three hits and Don Sanford, Dick Sanford, Kay Vaughn and Don Cain each two to pace a 13-hit attack by Keith Schulz. Cain held Central Point to five hits. He struck out six. Central Point's Vern Neiswanger gave up all the hits and runs in 5 2/3 innings. Harry Tonn, finishing, yielded one hit.

Coke, Stud Legion Teams Vie Tonight

Medford and Central Point, with a tradition of fine competition in American Legion Junior baseball, meet tonight at Memorial field, White City.

It will be the third game between the two clubs this season and the first to count in the standings of the southern division of Area 4. Starting time is 7:30 p.m.

COKE PITCHER—Stu Young, above, is the probable pitcher for Medford Cokes this evening when they play the Central Point Cheney Studs in American Legion junior baseball at White City.

Each has beaten the other so far. Medford will try to preserve a spotless league record. Central Point's Studs will be out to improve on a 1-1 standing in the circuit.

The game will be one of two tonight in the division. At Klamath Falls the Falcons will encounter the Hawks.

Stuart Young is the likely pitching choice of Medford Cokes Coach Cliff McLean. He was the Medford pitcher in both previous games with the Cheney nine. Coach Bill Askwith of the Studs will choose from among Mike and Larry Pepper and Larry Mason.

Attention Homeowners !

NEW STATE FARM HOMEOWNERS POLICY WRAPS 4 MAJOR COVERAGES INTO 1, SAVES YOU 1 DOLLAR IN EVERY 4!!!!
Here's news about another good deal from State Farm: the broadest coverage ever offered to Oregon homeowners and renters . . . protection in case of fire, theft, damage to contents, and legal liability . . . at the lowest possible net cost to you.
You save two ways. First, combining separate policies into 1 cuts our cost, and yours. Second, State Farm's 25% current dividend rate saves you even more.
And State Farm's new Homeowners Policy has features you couldn't duplicate elsewhere, even in higher-priced separate policies. For example, all such policies have a $50 deductible feature. But State Farm's is a "Disappearing Deductible." The greater your loss, the less of your $50 deductible you pay. Should your loss hit $500, it disappears altogether, and State Farm pays the whole bill.
With State Farm, your Homeowners Policy is easy to buy, easy to pay for in quarterly, semi-annual or annual instalments. No need to wait for your present policies to expire before taking out your new State Farm Homeowners Policy . . . because State Farm will give you full credit for your existing policies. Start saving, start enjoying the best protection there is. Call your State Farm agent right now. He's in the Yellow Pages.
