Walton Convention Opens at Portland

Portland — The Izaak Walton League of America opened its 40th annual conference here today with the presentation of awards and introduction of 36 resolutions pertaining to conservation and the organization's rules.

Action on the resolution is scheduled to come Saturday. Rollin E. Bowles, Portland, and four others were presented the organization's awards for outstanding service in the field of conservation.

The league cited Bowles for his part in preparing a treaty between the U.S. and Canada which protects sockeye salmon, his work in promotion of Oregon water conservation laws, and his advocacy of cutting Klamath Indian reservation timber on a sustained yield basis.

Others receiving the award are L. H. Cory, San Francisco; F. Stanley Mikelk, Dorchester, Mass.; Richard J. Dorer, Minneapolis; and Charles K. Fox, Carlisle, Pa.

The late William Finley of Portland, noted writer and naturalist, was selected to the Izaak Walton league hall of fame, along with Joseph W. Penfold, Washington, D.C., representative of the league.

The Robert C. O'Hair award for the chapter carrying on the most outstanding youth program in the past year went to the Sportsman's Chapter of Baltimore county, Md.

Resolution Listed

Most of the resolutions introduced today concerned conservation of natural resources. One of the most controversial probably will be a request to the federal government to control the catch of salmon and trout by Indians.

Another asks Congress to forbid any further expenditures for drainage of wetlands and another demands that manufacturers of detergents be held responsible for finding means of disposing of detergent wastes, which the league says leave harmful effluents in stream and soil.

The league also urged support for President Kennedy's program to find new sources of money for maintaining recreational areas, for a bill to require approval of conservation agencies before construction of new super-highways, for a program of increased fisheries research and pollution control research, and for controls of vehicular travel off roadways.

Higher grazing fees on bureau of land management lands also are recommended to make fees comparable to those on private land and to provide money for rangeland rehabilitation.

The organization also may press for a department of conservation in the President's cabinet.

The conference will end here Saturday night.

QUITS BASEBALL

Spokane — Left-hander Gene Snyder of the Spokane Indians announced Tuesday he has quit baseball and is returning to his home in York, Pa., according to General Manager Spencer Harris. Harris said Snyder, 31, who was acquired by Spokane from Omaha of the American association earlier this year, has been placed on the suspended list. Harris said Snyder was disappointed with his 0-5 record with Omaha and Spokane this year.

Medford Swimming Relays To Be Conducted on Saturday

Swimmers from at least four cities will contend Saturday in the second Medford relay at Hawthorne pool.

Entries are in from North Bend, Reedsport, Grants Pass and Medford.

The meet will have preliminaries at noon and finals at 4 p.m.

This will be the first meet of the summer season for swimmers under the City of Medford banner and is being conducted by the city recreation department.

Ken Lyons, city recreation supervisor and swim coach, said that the competition is designed as a short distance and fun meet which will allow the participating communities to get their teams together for the season.

Age Groups

There will be boys and girls relays with four age divisions in each. Divisions are ages 10 and under, 11 and 12 years, 13 and 14 and 15 through 17. There will be butterfly, backstroke, breaststroke, freestyle and medley races. Each race will be 160 yards with each of the four members of a team swimming 40 yards.

Medals will go to the members of the first, second and third place relay teams in each event.

The Medford relays were held in 1960 but were not conducted last year because of the conflict with the Oregon Junior Olympic short course meet.

Lyons said that Medford swimmers will be involved in meets just about every week now through the summer.

Alleged Rough Tactics Of Drysdale Ire Cards

By ALEX KAHN

Los Angeles — The faces of the St. Louis Cardinals were as red as their colors today as they tried to forget their gift of a game Tuesday night to the Dodgers, but they promised not to forget what they termed Los Angeles "rough-house" tactics.

A rare mental lapse by relief pitcher Lindy McDaniel in the seventh inning allowed the tie-breaking run to score from third base and the Dodgers then choked off a ninth inning rally to retain a 3-2 victory.

In the seventh, Dodger outfielder Frank Howard dumped a Texas league double into left center field that three men might have caught but didn't.

Failed to Hold

And on Ron Fairly's sacrifice St. Louis pitcher Curt Simmons attempted to throw out Howard at third and missed. McDaniel replaced the veteran, and, after striking out Wally Moon, failed to hold Howard on third when Duke Snider grounded an easy roller to him.

McDaniel, without any hesitation, threw to first base as Howard scored to break a 2-2 tie.

Cardinal manager John Keane, however, was as aroused over what he called the unnecessary roughness of Dodger pitcher Don Drysdale as he was over the miscues of his own players.

"We can play rough too," he warned, "and we may be forced to retaliate."

Keane claimed Drysdale took out Cardinal second baseman Julian Javier with a football block in the sixth. The St. Louis infielder limped around for several minutes before he could continue play. And in the next inning, Drysdale sent Javier sprawling on a close pitch.

Drysdale had no easy time scoring his 11th win of the season as the Cardinals battered him for nine hits but could put across only two runs.

USC Grabs Collegiate Tennis Lead

Stanford, Calif. — USC Southern California's tennis team and its number one star Rafael Osuna shared top honors today as the NCAA tennis play continued under blazing skies here.

Playing under temperatures that reached 105 degrees, Osuna — eighth ranked player in the world — Tuesday defeated Jean Baker of arch-rival UCLA in singles play and then joined fellow Trojan Ramsey Earnhart in a first round doubles victory.

Largely because of the Mexican's fine tennis Southern California took a slight lead over the defending champion UCLA squad heading into today's action. The Trojans have 9 points, UCLA 8, Arizona 7, and Michigan 6.

Osuna defeated Baker by a 6-3, 6-4 score and the Mexican Davis Cup star and Earnhart had to go all out to down Drayton Nabers and Herb Fitzgibbon of Princeton, 6-4, 2-6, 6-3 in the doubles.

Other singles highlights saw second ranked Larry Nagler of UCLA coast to a 6-1, 6-1 win over Brian Bloomberg of Washington.

Bond Victor

Third-seeded Bill Bond of USC took care of Gordy Stroud of San Jose State, 6-3, 6-3, while fourth seeded Bill Hoogs of California edged Philippines Davis Cup player Willie Hernandez of Arizona, 6-3, 8-6.

Other third round survivors included George Stoesser of Arizona, Yoshi Minegishi of Stanford, Ray Senkowski of Michigan, USC's Earnhart, Bill Lenoir of Arizona, Rod Mandelstam of Miami, Marty Riessen of Northwestern, Paul Palmer of UCLA, Princeton's Drayton, John Karabasz of Rice and Gerry Doble of Michigan.

The fine USC tandem of Dennis Ralston and Bill Bond also won their opening round in doubles play with a 6-3, 6-2 breeze over Dal Williams and Ron Yamagami of Sacramento State.

It could be an all USC doubles final and the Trojans appear to be the team to beat as long as Osuna and his mates can hold up under the broiling California sunshine here.

Fall From Ladder

Portland — (UPI) — Peter Walters, 63, Portland, died Tuesday of injuries suffered in a fall from a ladder Monday while house painting.

Wimbledon Underscores America's Net Decline

Wimbledon, England — (UPI) — The Wimbledon Championships seeding committee underscored America's decline as a tennis power when it placed Australians at the top of the list of both singles divisions for the first time.

Australians also topped the seeds for the men's doubles and the mixed doubles.

In the only other category, the women's doubles, the top seeds are Maria Buena of Brazil and Darlene Hard of Montebello, Calif., neither of whom played in last year's tournament — the unofficial world championships.

The official draw for amateur tennis' greatest show will be made today. The tournament begins next Monday.

The seeding committee ruthlessly based its selections on performance alone this year and several individual reputations and some national pride had to be sacrificed.

The first three places in the men's singles seedings went to Australians — defending champion Rod Laver, Roy Emerson and Neale Fraser. Ramanathan Krishnan of India was seeded fourth.

A surprising fifth was Chuck McKinley of St. Louis, Mo., who in other years might have been in second place simply because he was one of last year's finalists.

Seeded sixth is Manuel Santana of Spain with Nicola Pietrangeli of Italy seventh and Bob Hewitt of Australia eighth.

COWBOYS START CAMP

Dallas, Tex. — (UPI) — The Dallas Cowboys' rookies, veteran centers and quarterbacks will report to camp July 13 at Marquette, Mich. The rest of the National Football league squad will report to the northern Michigan college campus July 18.

A'S SIGN PITCHER

Buffalo, N.Y. — (UPI) — The Kansas City Athletics have signed Paul Emerick, a one-time Buffalo High school pitching star. The 21-year-old right-hander, currently serving in the Air Force, will report to the A's rookie camp at Daytona Beach, Fla., in November.

Whitney Reed of Alameda, Calif., top-ranked U.S. men's singles player, eliminated Soviet star Tomas Lejus, 6-2, 6-1, and Jon Douglas, the former Stanford quarterback from Santa Monica, Calif., ousted T. Moe of Norway, 9-7, 6-0.

Yank Netters Out To Prove Experts Wrong

London — (UPI) — Chuck McKinley and Karen Hantze Susman are out to prove Wimbledon experts were wrong when they seeded them far down in the listings for the forthcoming all-England tennis championships.

McKinley of St. Louis, Mo., a runner-up to Rod Laver in last year's Wimbledon tournament, belied his fifth-seeded ranking Tuesday by sweeping a 7-5, 6-2 third round match over Russia's Sergei Likhachev in the London grass courts championships.

Mrs. Susman of San Antonio, Tex., eighth ranked in the Wimbledon seedings this year, topped Barbara Vukovich of South Africa, 6-0, 6-2, in a third round women's singles.

Laver, the red-haired south-paw swinger from Australia, eliminated Ed Rubinoff of Miami, Fla., 6-2, 7-5.

A total of nine Americans advanced in the grass court event, while six were defeated.
