

ANGELS HOLD SECOND IN AL

By MILTON RICHMAN
UPI Sports Writer

Bo (live a little) Belinsky was in trouble again Thursday night but came out smelling like Chanel No. 5.

The rollicking, fun-loving left-hander sweated plenty through the first six innings against the Kansas City A's.

Over the last three, though, he looked like Lefty Grove as he won his first game in more than a month and pitched the Los Angeles Angels into second place in the American league with a 3-1 victory.

Frankly, the irrepressible Belinsky was beginning to get a little apprehensive himself before Thursday night's contest. Not so much because of his after-hours escapades but because he had failed to finish six straight times and hadn't won a game since May 20.

He gave manager Bill Rigney a few thrills by putting 13 KC runners on base during the first six innings Thursday night. Fortunately for Bo only one of them scored.

Belinsky settled down nicely, however, and retired the last nine batters with ease, finishing with a flourish by striking out Norm Siebern to end the game and nail down his seventh victory compared with two defeats.

Bo, who accepted congratulatory handshakes all around after the final out, struck out six and walked the same number.

The Angels gave him a two-run stake in the first inning on Albie Pearson's single, Billy Moran's double and Leo Thomas' infield out. Felix Torres added another homer with a second-inning homer.

Kansas City's only run off Belinsky came in the fifth when Gino Cimoli walked, moved up on an infield out and came home on Ed Charles' single, one of the seven hits Bo allowed.

The Chicago White Sox dropped the Minnesota Twins into third place with a 6-2 victory, the Boston Red Sox beat the first-place Cleveland Indians, 3-1, the Detroit Tigers downed the Washington Senators, 6-3, and the New York Yankees ended a five-game backslide with a 3-0 win over the Baltimore Orioles.

The Philadelphia Phillies shut out the Chicago Cubs, 3-0, in the only National League game scheduled.

Eddie Fisher's fine two-hit relief job over the last 7 1/2 innings cemented the White Sox' victory after they rallied for four runs in the first inning against the Twins. Al Smith's two-run double featured the White Sox' big outburst. Fisher took over after the Twins kayoed John Buzhardt in the second inning and hurled scoreless ball the rest of the way to even his record at 3-3.

Earl Wilson and Dick Radatz combined in a three-hitter against the Indians and Carroll Hardy provided the winning margin for the Red Sox with a two-run homer in the fourth inning off loser Pedro Ramos. Wilson, who allowed two hits over the first 5 1/2 innings, was credited with his fifth win.

Rookie Purnal Goldy singled home what proved to be the winning run in the seventh inning of the Tiger's game with the Senators. Terry Fox and pinch-hitter Dick McAlliff drew walks and Fox scored on Goldy's hit to break a 3-all tie. Rocky Colavito then doubled home two more runs. Goldy has hit safely in all eight major league games he has played. Mike Roark and Norm Cash each homered for Detroit while Chuck Hinto and Barry Bright connected for Washington.

Southpaw Whitey Ford cheered Yankee manager Ralph Houk by winning his first game since May 9 at the expense of the Orioles. Ford limited Baltimore to three hits through 8 1/2 innings but Marshall Bridges had to come in and get the final out after Whitey walked two men.

Hector Lopez and Clete Boyer hit second-inning doubles for the Yank's first run and Bill Skowron nicked Los-

Reds Foes Of Dodgers In Series

Los Angeles (UPI)—The National league's two top-ranked pitchers Sandy Koufax, 10-2, and Bob Purkey, 12-1, collide tonight as the Los Angeles Dodgers and Cincinnati Reds open a three-game series at Chavez Ravine.

The whip-armed Koufax, currently leading the league in strikeouts, rates as the Dodgers number one hurler and is riding a six game winning streak. But Purkey, who won the opening game of the season from the Dodgers at Chavez Ravine, is the league's winningest pitcher and has a string of five straight wins going for him.

The Dodgers stand 3-2 with the Reds on the season after taking the final two games of the opening series and then splitting a pair with the National league champs at Cincinnati.

Speedy Maury Wills, with 39 stolen bases to his credit, this season, will have a personal crusade going for him tonight. He has stolen a base on every team in the league except the Reds.

Manager Walt Alston's crew had a day off Thursday to rest up from their grueling three game series with St. Louis. The Dodgers took two out of three from the Cardinals but every game was decided by one run and the final encounter went 11 innings before St. Louis finally won it.

McKinley Plays Laver

London (UPI)—Chuck McKinley, rubbed-legged Davis Cupper from St. Louis, Mo., was bidding for revenge when he met Australia's Rod Laver today in the semi-finals of the London grass courts tennis championships.

Laver was a slight favorite on the strength of his victory over McKinley in their Wimbledon title match last year.

Today's other men's semi-final pitted Roy Emerson of Australia against Pierre Darmon of France.

In the women's semi-finals, Carole Caldwell of Santa Monica, Calif., who will be 19 Sunday, plays Lorna Gaw-thorn of Britain and Christine Truman faces Rita Bentley in an all-British match.

Sunrise Due for Giants; Bill Milwaukee Tonight

San Francisco (UPI)—If it's always darkest before the dawn, then sunrise may be about due for the San Francisco Giants.

Loser of 11 of their last 16 games, San Francisco must host the resurging duo of Milwaukee and Cincinnati for six contests. Tonight, they will run into an old Giant-killer, Lew Burdette of Milwaukee, who lost his first four decisions and then has grabbed his next five. The Giants will counter with Jack Sanford 7-6.

The wounded lefty, Billy Pierce, will be on the bench to lend moral support but nothing else for the Giants. Pierce is still hobbling after being spiked by Cincinnati's Don Blasingame last week.

He won't be off his crutches until next week and is not expected to take the hill for the locals for at least two weeks.

Pierce's record is a clubby 8-1 and his need to the club was never more evident than Wednesday when the two men allegedly "the Giants' best healthy hurlers, Juan Marichal and Stu Miller, gave up nine runs to banjo-hitting Houston. The Giants pitching seems to have collapsed.

San Francisco has an opening on its squad after shifting Dick LeMay back to Tacoma, but finding another good hurler is about as easy as hitting oil in your back yard. Gaylor Perry, another Giant hopeful sent down to the Pacific Coast league, was shelved Wednesday night there.

San Francisco took the day off Thursday, but manager Al Dark had most of his troops out for a workout.

The Giants took an hour and 45 minutes of batting practice, swinging against Don Larsen, Jim Duffalo and Bobby Bolin, Johnny Mota, hitting .197, and Bob Nieman, a .182 batter, were given the longest turns in the batting cage.

Dark said he planned to use the regular lineup tonight against the Braves with Jimmy Davenport back at third base.

Velvet Still In Running of Amateur Trial

Klamath Falls — Rogue Valley Retriever club's lone representative in the National Amateur field trials at Klamath Falls was in the running today as the fifth series of the competition got underway.

The dog is Jibodad Velvet, black labrador, owned and handled by Dr. Charles N. Versteeg, Cave Junction.

The trial opened Wednesday. Two series were run that day and two yesterday.

Twenty-seven of the 56 original entries were still in the running as the third day of the trial began. The trial will conclude Saturday in the Miller Island rd. area southwest of Klamath and close competition necessitates further series Sunday.
